

SENT BACK TO THE UNIONS

Central Labor Body Refers Socialism to Constituent Organizations.

WORDY WRANGLE PRECEDES THE ACTION

Members Have Much to Say on the Points Involved, but Finally the Vote is Taken and the Referendum is Adopted.

The minutes of the last October meeting of the Central Labor union were the first to be read at the Central Labor union last night. At the October meeting the chair decided that a resolution to refer the question of socialism to the constituent unions had been defeated. At the reading of the minutes last night he called attention to this resolution and had the secretary read a resolution offered by the Typographical union, saying that under the resolution of the Typographical union he would say that the matter would be referred.

Then came points of order so fast that the record couldn't be kept straight. There was an appeal from the decision of the chair and the vice president took charge or tried to. Then the chair was sustained after a roll call, much interrupted by explanations and loud talk. The vote on sustaining the chair was 27 to 33.

The chair attempted to record the fact that the resolution was referred by one-third vote and pandemonium reigned. The sergeant-at-arms was in the center of the floor trying to quiet the effusive speakers. When quiet was restored W. H. Bell was on his feet and gave the history of the resolution which had caused the wrangle.

A motion was made that the minutes be approved as corrected by the president. John J. Kerrigan got the floor and took occasion to say that he did not believe the policy of the paper should be submitted to the unions constituting the Central Labor union, but only to those unions which approve its present policy. Then there was a lot more talk, after which the minutes were approved as read. The socialists were thoroughly beaten and the question of socialism and the Workers' Gazette will be submitted to the vote of the members of the unions constituting the Central Labor union. The final vote was viva voce, being almost unanimous.

Work for Arbitration.

The stationary engineers reported trouble at the National Printing company and the Kopp-Woodward company, which was referred to the arbitration committee.

The arbitration committee reported on the trouble of the Egg Candlers and Butter-workers union, showing that the trouble can be adjusted as soon as the employees join the union. It was reported from the union that the employees were in arrears to the union and the employers would not discharge them; that the employees are receiving more wages than the union scale, but the union desires the employers to assist in the organization. The firms were given until next Wednesday night to organize their workmen, failing which a boycott will be put on.

The federated board of the Union Pacific strikers reported receipts from local unions of $625; the board of the men reported that $20 a month had been voted to the fund.

Resolutions of regret for the drowning of John C. Moran were adopted. Mr. Moran was a delegate from the Plumbers' union. The engraved copy of the resolution will be sent to the family of the deceased and the charter will be draped for sixty days.

The Bartenders' union presented a resolution endorsing John Mitchell as candidate for president of the American Federation of Labor. The resolution was unanimously adopted.

It was decided not to send a delegate to the meeting of the American Federation of Labor this year.

A resolution from Omaha Typographical union endorsing the candidacy of W. H. Gonsouls to fill the vacancy in the office of county clerk by the death of Harry C. Miller was introduced by John Pollan. The resolution was adopted.

Reception for Mayor Smith.

The president was empowered to make arrangements for a reception to be given to Mayor Smith of San Francisco upon his arrival in Omaha.

Complaints were made against several firms for violating the female labor law and the matter was placed in the hands of the law-enforcement.

Peter Kewitt was appointed chairman of the home industry and union label committee in place of J. P. Moran.

The constituent unions were requested to permit Union Pacific strikers to work at any trade where they can secure employment without taking out cards in the unions of the trades affected.

The matter of the regularity of Federal union No. 8,091 was discussed at length and the matter was referred to the American Federation of Labor.

GIRL WOMEN.

The general standard of measurement for womanhood is "grown-up-ness." When a girl is emancipated from school and arrives at the dignity of cradling babies and cleaning hair dressing she is looked upon as a young woman.

But nature knows nothing of such standards. She is not willing to be standardized, and there is need of womanly care and caution. It is girlish ignorance or neglect at this critical time which often results in long years of after misery.

Mothers who perceive the evidences of functional derangement in young girls should promptly have them begin the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, tranquilizes the nerves and tones up the whole system.

My troubles started during my girlhood, writes Miss Flora I. Greer, of New Street, Akron, O. "but did not prove serious until I was twenty. From that time I did not see a well day, suffered at every monthly period with terrible headache, irritation of the eyes and pains in my bowels. I had soreness through my hips and ovaries all the time and constant backache. One doctor would tell me one thing and another would say something altogether different. I was told to use various pills, but none of them did me any good. I took five bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, four of Golden Medical Discovery and five vials of "Pellea." I have not had a single symptom of my old trouble as far as can be seen. I work hard and eat solid and substantial food without distress."

MEDAL OF HONOR LEGION

Distinguished Organization Holds Annual Convention in Independence Hall, Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—The Medal of Honor Legion, composed of civil war veterans decorated by the United States government for conspicuous bravery in action, met today in annual convention in Independence hall.

Two hundred members were in attendance. Major Moses Veale, commander of the legion, presided. The members of the distinguished organization were welcomed by Mayor Kountze, who paid a glowing tribute to the men who fought to preserve the union.

Quartermaster John Noble Preston's report showed that while most of the medals of honor were awarded for gallantry during the civil war, nearly 400 were given by veterans for distinguished services in the Indian wars. The War department, the report states, is preparing a list of those to receive medals for service in the Spanish-American war and during the Boxer troubles in China. Colonel Preston recommended the appointment of a committee to revise the constitution and suggested a different method of enrolling new members.

The total number of medals of honor issued by the Navy department up to January 1, 1902, was 584, and by the War department, October 1, 1897, 3,454, those issued by the secretary of war between October, 1897, and January 1902, not yet being upon the records of the organization.

The membership of the organization numbers 648, of this number 480 being of the first class, or veterans of the civil war, and sixty-eight of the second class, comprising veterans of other wars.

RETIREES IN FAVOR OF SON

Judge Baker of Indiana Gives Up Place on Bench to Further Boy's Interest.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 7.—The resignation of Judge John H. Baker of the United States district court of Indiana was received by President Roosevelt today. It was the understanding at the time his son, Judge Francis N. Baker of the Indiana supreme bench, was appointed judge of the United States circuit court at Chicago, that Judge Baker, his father, would retire from the bench at an early date.

The elder Judge Baker was appointed in the administration of President Harrison, assuming the position in March, 1892. Judge Baker, after the close of his judicial duties, will return to his old home at Gosben for permanent residence.

The Illustrated Bee

SOMETHING NEW EACH week in the way of beautiful pictures and well-written articles on topics of general interest or special moment is the aim of The Illustrated Bee. How well it has accomplished this object is attested by its increasing popularity. It has a field peculiarly its own, because it is made up of competitors' best of their efforts at illustrating, but none of them ever invites comparison with The Illustrated Bee. If you care to know why, just make the comparison for yourself. Only a glance is needed to convince you that The Illustrated Bee has no rival.

NEW PORTRAIT OF PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

CITIZEN GEORGE FRANCIS TRAIN HAS

told his life story in his own words and soon it will be laid before the public in book form. He accomplished a wonderful feat, dictating 100,000 words in thirty-five hours, making thousands of references to names, dates and places, quotations from speeches, books, etc., and in all this mass of matter, which he delivered without notes or references, to be written record, he made no mistake. All this is told about in a special article, illustrated from photographs showing the Citizen dictating in his room at the Mills hotel.

BIG GAME HUNTING AND INDUSTRIAL

conditions are not usually associated in a friendly way, yet an investigator insists that the industrial movement has had the effect of improving hunting conditions in older states. He writes well in support of his theory and cites many facts as evidence. Illustrations are made from photographs taken in camps and will delight the heart of men who love the gun and the outdoor life that goes with it.

FINE STOCK BREEDING AND SELLING

has grown into a great industry in the agricultural region of the west. Its development has been so quiet that very few save those who are actively engaged in the business know anything about it. A writer who is well informed on the topic tells of its importance and how it is carried on. Illustrations are from photographs taken at South Omaha during the progress of a sale in what has been pronounced by experts the finest stock sale pavilion in the world.

RIBBON CENTER OF EUROPE—ST. ETIENNE, FRANCE—IS THE TOPIC

of Frank G. Carpenter's regular weekly letter on European industries. In it Mr. Carpenter tells how the little town planted in the coal mining region of France, the Pittsburgh of the country, in fact, produces annually $20,000,000 worth of ribbons of all kinds and costs. He tells how the people live, work and spend their leisure hours. Illustrations are made from photographs taken in St. Etienne.

OTHER INTERESTING FEATURES IN clude a special article on the Philadelphia city hall, the largest municipal building in the world; pictures of people who have come into prominence recently, and the regular departments of chatty comment, gossip, personals and entertaining short stories. Nothing has been slighted and nothing has been overlooked. If you are not now a subscriber you should order the paper from your news dealer today.

MEETING OF THE UNITY CLUB
New Officers Preside for First Time and C. C. Wright Reads Paper.

The Unity club met last evening for the first time this season at Linger's art gallery. The new officers, who presided for the first time were as follows: Miss Jennette Wallace, president; Charles S. Elgert, first vice president; Miss Eunice Stephens, second vice president; C. B. Pritchard, secretary; Harry Fischer, treasurer, and Miss Parsons, librarian.

At last night's meeting Carl C. Wright read a paper on the subject of irrigation. His views were the results of practical experience in Colorado and Wyoming and were made interesting with practical examples. The next meeting will be held at the residence of R. C. Patterson, corner of Twenty-fifth and Farnam streets.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Thomas A. Hickey, one of the Union Pacific strikers, addressed the annual meeting of socialists at 153 North Sixth street last night. He spoke in support of the trade union movement.

The Veteran Firemen's association will give a banquet at the Casino on Wednesday evening. The committee having the matter in charge consists of J. P. Schum, D. P. Beatty and C. G. Houghton, prominent citizens of Omaha and the state will be in attendance.

John M. Stockton asks divorce from Effie on the ground of desertion. They were married in Cheyenne October 2, 1898. Sylvia Myrtle Crane has secured divorce from William Adelbert. She alleges that for two years before he deserted her he had been an habitual drunkard.

The social given by the "Whites" of the Casselton Street Presbyrian Church Christian Endeavor society Thursday evening to the "Reds" of the same society was a success. An old time spelling match was a feature of the occasion. The side getting the largest number of new members between this and the first of the year will be the guests of the other side at a New Year's banquet.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Effort Will Be Made to Have Road to River Opened.

HEAVY ENROLLMENT AT PUBLIC SCHOOLS

When Additions to School Buildings Are Completed There Will Be Sufficient Room for the Current Year.

Mayor Koutsky and members of the city council are figuring on having a consultation early next week with Herman Kountze in regard to a suitable road to the river. Mr. Kountze has only recently returned from a business trip and the city officials are pleased at the prospect of an early conference. Some time ago Mr. Kountze signified his willingness to open a road through his property to a recently constructed emergency hospital. As long as Mr. Kountze remained in Omaha the road was open, but when he left his local agent, Sieger, locked the gate and wanted compensation before permitting vehicles to cross the Kountze property. At the time the emergency hospital was erected there was an understanding between the city officials and Mr. Kountze about the roadway.

Increased Enrollment.

Superintendent McLean of the public schools has completed the compiling of statistics for the month of October. He reports that the enrollment for October was 4,165. This is a decided increase over the enrollment of a year ago. More school rooms are needed and the superintendent has made a number of recommendations. It is thought by members of the Board of Education that when the additions to the school buildings now under construction are completed there will be room enough for the present school year. It will be necessary next year, however, to provide additional rooms and some additions to present school buildings will doubtless be arranged for in the spring.

Typewriters Supplied.

Yesterday afternoon members of the Board of Education made arrangements with J. F. McCreynolds for supplying the commercial department of the high school with typewriters. Mr. McCreynolds delivered five machines of the Fox make at once and was busy last night unworking five more. It is expected that these ten machines will be in service today. Whether these machines have been rented or purchased could not be learned last night, as members of the board were non-committal and Mr. McCreynolds said that all he knew about the matter was an order to supply the commercial department with machines.

Mayor Koutsky Overlooks Warrant.

In signing the warrants authorized by the council at its meeting Thursday night the mayor overlooked the yellow slip calling for the payment of $50 to Mose Howard as city meat inspector. When Howard called at the clerk's office late yesterday afternoon for his warrant he was informed that the mayor had failed to sign the paper and so he departed without the customary check. Some time ago Mayor Koutsky appointed John McIntyre meat inspector in the place of Howard, but the latter declined to be removed, and in this he is being backed up by the Union Stock Yards company and other corporations. Howard says that unless the mayor signs his warrants he will commence mandamus proceedings.

Live Stock Association Meeting.

A very well attended meeting of the South Omaha Live Stock exchange was held yesterday afternoon. The proposition to do away with solicitors was brought up and was turned down. This question has been raised before and as a difference of opinion existed between the members it was brought to a vote yesterday. In that there is a decided change in the sentiment expressed, the commission firms will still employ traveling solicitors.

James Small Speaks Sunday.

Through the efforts of Secretary Marsh the local Young Men's Christian association has been able to secure the services of James Small, an evangelist. Mr. Small will deliver a confidential address to men only at the association parlors on Sunday afternoon, November 5. His topic will be "Stolen Pleasures." Mr. Small will also speak at the association rooms on Sunday afternoon, November 14.

Magie City Goals.

Alverson is reported to be quite sick in his temporary residence in Colorado. A son has been born to Mr. and Mrs. James Mahan, Eighteenth and O streets. Mrs. F. W. Shabazz is quite sick. Last night she was reported to be some better.

Volunteer Thanksgiving Dinner.

The volunteers of America are arranging to give a Thanksgiving dinner to the poor of Omaha at Volunteer hall, 113 North Fifteenth street, November 27. The meal will be served from 12 to 2 o'clock. The volunteers appeal to all who desire to help in this philanthropic to send their names to the captain, E. Rotzel, 1308 California street. Mrs. F. W. Shabazz is quite sick. Presently Dwyer came for the birds with a piece of paper to wrap them in. The pair were arrested and will sit on beef heart at the city hotel.

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to: Name and Residence. Agn. James A. Montgomery, Council Bluffs; Elizabeth Bright, Council Bluffs; Patrick McMahon, Omaha; Catherine E. Murphy, Omaha; James M. Woodard, Madison, Wis.; Sadie A. Collins, Madison, Wis.

THE CHILDREN ENJOY Life out of doors and out of the games which they play and the enjoyment which they receive and the efforts which they make, comes the greater part of that healthful development which is so essential to their happiness when grown. When a laxative is needed the remedy which is given to them to cleanse and sweeten and strengthen the internal organs on which it acts, should be such as physicians would sanction, because its component parts are known to be wholesome and the remedy itself free from every objectionable quality. The one remedy which physicians and parents, well-informed, approve and recommend and which the little ones enjoy, because of its pleasant flavor, its gentle action and its beneficial effects, is Syrup of Figs—and for the same reason it is the only laxative which should be used by fathers and mothers. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy which acts gently, pleasantly and naturally without griping, irritating, or nauseating and which cleanses the system effectually, without producing that constipated habit which results from the use of the old-time cathartics and modern imitations, and against which the children should be so carefully guarded. If you would have them grow to manhood and womanhood, strong, healthy and happy, do not give them medicines, when medicines are not needed, and when nature needs assistance in the way of a laxative, give them only the simple, pleasant and gentle—Syrup of Figs. Its quality is due not only to the excellence of the combination of the laxative principles of plants with pleasant aromatic syrups and juices, but also to our original method of manufacture and as you value the health of the little ones, do not accept any of the substitutes which unscrupulous dealers sometimes offer to increase their profits. The genuine article may be bought anywhere of all reliable druggists at fifty cents per bottle. Please to remember, the full name of the Company—CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.—is printed on the front of every package. In order to get its beneficial effects it is always necessary to buy the genuine only.

SCHOOL BOARD PRESIDENCY Subject of Conference Between New Members Elected Last Tuesday. FIVE MEN ARE IN LINE FOR THE OFFICE Rumor that Fred Stubbendorf Does Not Want to Be Presiding Officer, but Prefers Present Committee Chairmanship. The newly elected members of the Board of Education held a session Thursday. The meeting was called for the purpose of informally discussing the action which will be taken by the new members at the organization of the board next year. Under the precedent which has been followed since the formation of the Board of Education the presiding officer is chosen from among the five men who are serving the last year of their term, but there is no law making this imperative. Under this precedent those eligible for election are Fred Stubbendorf, J. W. Maynard, Theodore Johnson, J. J. Smith and M. Levy. The new members talked of this matter and the opinion seemed to be divided between Mr. Stubbendorf, Mr. Maynard and Mr. Johnson. It is said that Mr. Stubbendorf has already declined to permit his name to be used in connection with the presidency, as he desires to retain his position on the committee of which he is now chairman. The statement of Mr. Stubbendorf's declination is coupled with the statement that the contest for that office will be between Mr. Maynard and Mr. Johnson. While there was a tendency to draw party lines at the last organization of the board, it is said that with the election of the full republican ticket this fall party lines will not be considered in the coming organization and that the democrats on the board will enter caucus with the republicans for the purpose of arranging the matter.
