Free Sample Given Instant Relief.
MISS BESSIE ARNOLD, president of the Chicago "Alten-Vereln," who resides at No. 2313 Wabash avenue, Chicago, Ill., says: "Last summer, while at a picnic, I was poisoned with poison, and my face and hands were badly swollen and I could not see out of my eyes. I tried washes and salves and painted the affected parts, without relief. I sent for a sample bottle of Warner's Safe Cure and found that it gave me immediate relief. One large bottle cured me in a short time, driving all the poison out of my system and effected a complete cure. Since then I have used it off and on when I feel worn out and have found it a fine remedy for general debility. My wife and I have a host of friends in Chicago who are cured of kidney troubles by using Warner's Safe Cure."

Cured Gravel and Inflamed Urinary Organs.
GEORGE DERRIM, Major Christian Volunteer, Fifth Street, Cincinnati, O., says: "For three years I have suffered constantly with gravel and inflammation of the urinary organs, aggravated by exposure in conducting outdoor meetings. I let the trouble run on, not seeking medical relief until I felt so badly I could hardly continue my work. On examination the doctor told me what my trouble was and prescribed for me. I took his medicine for two weeks without relief; then a brother officer told me how Warner's Safe Cure had cured him of the same trouble. I immediately sent for a bottle, and soon found blessed relief, and I most gratefully acknowledge the truly wonderful power of Warner's Safe Cure. It has permanently cured me. May God bless you for sending such relief to suffering humanity."

Pains in the small of the back, painful passing of urine, inflammation of the bladder, torpid bowels, rheumatism, neuralgic pains and swellings all over the body, eczema and jaundice, tell you your kidneys have been diseased for a long time, for kidney troubles seldom put out such symptoms as the victim recognizes until they have been working several months. If you have any of these symptoms great care should be taken to stop the progress of the disease and prevent it pre-empting the entire system and becoming chronic.

This Simple Home Test Will Tell Condition of Kidneys.
Let some morning urine stand for twenty-four hours in glass or bottle. If it is cloudy or contains a reddish-brown sediment, or if particles or germs float about in it, your kidneys are diseased. If, after you have made this test, you have any doubt in your mind as to the development of the disease in your system, send a sample of your urine to Warner's Safe Cure Co., Rochester, N. Y., and our doctors will analyze it and send you a report with advice free of cost to you. All letters from women read and answered by a woman doctor. All correspondence in strictest confidence.

LAST CHAPTER OF TRAGEDY

Funeral Services of Miss Busch Occur at German Baptist Church.

REV. ANDERSON DELIVERS THE SERMON

Women Crowd Auditorium, with Only About a Dozen Men in the Throng—Rev. Rabe's Remains Sent Away.

The interment of the body of Miss Augusta Busch at Forest Lawn cemetery and the placing of the body of Rev. W. C. Rabe upon a Wabash train bound for Buffalo yesterday afternoon closed the last chapter in the German Baptist church tragedy.

The funeral services over the remains of Miss Busch were held at 2 o'clock in the same church in which she and Rev. Rabe were found dead together last Wednesday morning. Before 1 o'clock, thirty minutes before the church doors had been unlocked, the yard, the sidewalk and half the street in front of the church were packed with women eagerly awaiting the opening of the doors. In the crowd there was one man, aged and gray, who, so he said, had come out of curiosity.

The doors were opened shortly before 2 o'clock and a rush was made for seats. In a very few minutes every seat was occupied and women filled the aisles along the walls, the rear of the room and the vestibule. But twelve men were in the audience.

At 2 o'clock Rev. Thomas Anderson, pastor of Calvary Baptist church, arrived and took his place in the pulpit, the organ being preceding the body walked to the front of the room. The services opened with the singing of the hymn "I'm Looking Up to Thee." In this the audience was expected to join, but very few availed themselves of the minister's invitation. After a short prayer Rev. Anderson read from the scriptures, beginning, "Lord, Thou hast been our dwelling place in all ages."

At 2:15 the pastor read the following telegram from Miss Mary Burdette of the Missionary Training school of Chicago:

"God be with the church as it buries our sister. We are praying and hoping." Rev. Anderson said in part: "Anything like a formal discourse or sermon is singularly out of place when we come together to bury our dead, and I seldom attempt it. Silence at such a time is more appropriate and more expressive. We have fallen into the hands of God on an occasion of this kind and God reserves the verdict, and the verdict of man is of no avail. God's verdict is not based on outside falls and struggles, but on the inside battles, which take place in our own souls and of which man has no knowledge. So it is best to leave the dead and their destiny in the hands of God. We are in no mood for moralizing around the bier of the dead, therefore I shall be mercifully brief."

"Some will say that it is a serious mistake to hold a public service of this kind and that it will be interpreted as a condoning of the terrible wrong which has been done and the cruel blow given our common Christianity by a sin so unappealingly sacrilegious and devilish. Some of my own brethren in the church have even protested to me against this public service, but I take an opposite view. I came here on my own responsibility, and what I say, I say from my own opinions."

"If none but saints were buried from a church, then the church would be a burial service. I cannot believe that the life which has just ended under a cloud has not left something of a blessing behind it. We have no right to assume that she has been living in hypocrisy, nor have we a right to assume that she was a devotee of selfishness. I love to think of the good she has done, of the sunshine she has brought into the homes of the afflicted; I love to think of her as she went about her work of charity, caring for the sick and helpless."

Power of Temptation.
"There is none beyond the power of temptation, Christians and those Lot Christians, and none of the realists even, we are until the right temptation strikes us. But I do not apologize for sin. I believe that she who lies before us is more sinned against than sinning. And let us remember the words of Him, infinitely greater than we, 'Let him that is without sin cast the first stone.'"

LINDSEY IS ARRESTED AGAIN

This Time Machinist Is Charged with Having Assaulted Charles Gaughan.

W. R. Lindsey, a striking machinist, out under $500 bond for highway robbery, and who was fined $50 and costs Friday in police court for assault and battery, was arraigned again yesterday on a charge of assault and battery sworn to by Charles Gaughan, 314 South Nineteenth street.

Gaughan, night foreman of the Palace livery stable and said he was assaulted without cause by Lindsey and several other men whom he did not know, Wednesday evening as he was returning home. Lindsey, he said, accused him of being a "scab," and then after saying that he either had to buy a drink for the crowd or fight, struck him back of the ear. The men grappled and the others then took a few raps at him. Gaughan finally made his escape and ran into a saloon near the Midland hotel.

NIGHT SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

Steady Increase in Number of Pupils at Comenius and Kellom Buildings.

Since the opening of the night schools two weeks ago the attendance has steadily increased, until now there are ninety pupils at the Comenius school and eighty in the Kellom.

The enrollment in the day schools, while slightly larger now than last month, is not quite so large as at this period of last year, although the average of attendance for the number enrolled is better, there being less illness among the pupils. The attendance on the part of the teaching force thus far this year has been good, particularly at the present time, and with the exception of some few teachers who were granted leave about the time of the opening of the schools by reason of illness, very few are now absent.

BREAKERS LEAVE THE SHOPS

Strikers Hear that Nonunion Men Are Dissatisfied with Piece Work System.

Union Pacific strikers report that forty-three of the nonunion employees of the Omaha shops quit yesterday for the same reason that others left, because piece work had been forced upon them. It seems that this system is as unpopular with the strikers as with the nonunion men. The former, as well as the latter, declare that a fair day's pay cannot be earned under the system.

The constant exodus of these shopmen is having a stimulating effect upon the strikers. They feel that the company will soon exhaust its resources in importing men and that since these are leaving in such large numbers its shops will soon become depopulated, which will mean that a settlement with the old mechanics must be effected.

NORTH OMAHA LIBRARY STATION

Number of Book Borrowers and of Books Borrowed Show Increased Patronage by Residents.

The North Omaha station of the Omaha public library is showing renewed improvement in the matter of patronage by book borrowers, according to the returns to the librarian. The station was established in March, 1902, and with the first novelty ran the circulation up to twenty-eight daily, but with the summer dropped materially. It has now gone up again to an average of twenty-one daily, serving 125 borrowers who live in the north end of town. Library books for the school children have been distributed through several schools at no very great distance, in addition to the service rendered through the station.

STUBBENDORF NOT AFTER IT

Says He Does Not Want to Remain Chairman of the Committee of the Board of Education.

Fred Stubbendorf, member of the Board of Education, has requested The Bee to state that of the committee on buildings and property, as has been reported, and that in the reorganization of the board he will decline to accept such appointment should it be proffered. He feels that the duties of the position, if conscientiously performed, require more time than he can take from his private affairs and he would prefer to be relieved.

WILL CANVASS THE VOTES

Deputy Clerk Dewey Appoints A. C. Powers and A. J. Webb on the Board.

Frank Dewey, acting clerk of Douglas county, has selected A. C. Powers and A. J. Webb to act with him in the official canvass of the votes cast in this county at Tuesday's election. The work will be undertaken Monday morning at 8 o'clock, but because of the rainy weather some of the members of the canvassing board decline to speculate on the date of their completion of the task.

BALL PLAYER LOSES A LEG

Accident Happens, However, on Tracks of Railroad and Not on the Gridiron.

ANDOVER, Mass., Nov. 8.—John Collins, a member of the Princeton university football team, lost his left leg at the knee, as the result of being run over by a train here today.

Collins, who was star halfback on the Andover eleven for two years and captain of the team in 1899, came here yesterday to attend the annual game between Phillips Andover and Phillips Exeter teams today. While he was walking on the Boston & Maine track a freight train struck him and cut off his left foot. The doctors at the Lawrence hospital, to which Collins was taken, decided that amputation at the knee was necessary.

Collins was on the Princeton eleven at the beginning of the season, but was hurt and compelled to leave the team.

COAL COMBINE IS IN COURT

Grand Jury Will Make Investigation of Retail Dealers' Trust at Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 8.—Judge Alvord of the criminal court today instructed the grand jury to investigate the dealings of the retail dealers' coal combine.

CONGRESSMAN MERCER IS SURPRISED

When Shows Press Dispatch from Washington.

Congressman Mercer expressed considerable surprise when shown the telegram from Washington to the effect that it was rumored that he would contest the recent election for congressman in this district.

"I have heard nothing of the kind before," he said. "The matter has never come into my thoughts. Since the election I have received reports which would incline me to believe that there were some irregularities in the election, but so far if all that are indicated would be substantiated there would not be enough to change the result and, therefore, it would be folly to make a contest. Of course, if I knew that I could prove that a contest would give me the seat I would make it, but so far that is not the condition."

COUNTY DOESN'T WANT HIM

Man with One Leg Comes Back After Being Sent to His Relatives.

Any one desiring to assume the care and custody of a man with one leg, bad health and a fierce temper can learn something to his advantage by addressing the commissioners of Douglas county, Nebraska. Incidentally he can save the city jail custodians much annoyance and J. Henry Oest of the county poor farm much anxiety.

At yesterday's meeting of the board Commissioner Connolly, as chairman of the charity work, informed the board that John Temperly had returned to Omaha, and that such return is no blessing. He further said that Temperly is in the city jail, but the police are anxious to be rid of him, but that Superintendent Oest of the county hospital doesn't want him if there is any way to avoid it. Oest has stated, Connolly said, that Temperly is about as much of a terror as a one-legged man possibly could be, and that wherever a few are gathered together in his presence, it is a safe bet there will be a fight. Temperly, it is told, carries a crutch, and having started trouble he is, with its aid, usually able to finish his undertaking to his own satisfaction, but to the material damage of the other parties and the demoralization of the institution within which he is staying.

Connolly considers the case particularly aggravating in view of the fact that it was only a few weeks ago that Temperly was given, at his own request, transportation to St. Louis, where he has relatives. Why he should now return to Douglas county, where he has no relatives and where any friends he may have are discreetly concealing themselves in the tall grass while the county cares for him, is a mystery to the board. Connolly tried to get his fellow members to decide yesterday whether to oblige Oest to take the man in again or whether to give him transportation and compel him to use it, but all remained mute and finally Harte cut in with other business, leaving Mr. Temperly and his temper open to speculation.

A Hopeless View.
Washington Star: "What do you think of the trust?" asked the statesman.
"My dear sir," answered the man who is regarded as politically approachable, "that is not the question. What any individual thinks of the trusts doesn't seriously matter. But what a trust thinks of him may make a vast amount of difference in his welfare."

No true woman's heart is happy which does not ring with the echo of childish laughter, which fails to thrill at the touch of a soft dimpled hand which is flesh of her flesh.
To those who crave motherhood, and through terror at the thought of so much suffering, deprive themselves of it, we say "Be of good cheer—help is here." MOTHER'S FRIEND has made this bearing easy for thousands of women in the last forty years, and receives their hearty endorsement, not only on account of its efficacy but also because it is a pleasant balm for external application only, and not a bitter dose of drugs to be swallowed.
By its use you escape morning sickness, swelling breasts and many of the usual discomforts of pregnancy. MOTHER'S FRIEND eases the nerves, relaxes the muscles, and softens the abdominal tissues, so that they give with the pressure from the expanding organ.
It costs $1.00 per bottle. Write us for our FREE treatise on "Motherhood."
