Return Insane Man to Omaha.

Holland Hart, a young man against whom an information charging him of insanity was filed yesterday morning, was taken to Omaha by Sheriff Cousins and turned over to the authorities there, his legal residence being in Nebraska. Hart, who is 26 years of age, has been employed as an insurance solicitor in Omaha, but recently showed signs of mental derangement. He was pronounced insane by the Douglas county board, but was released at the solicitation of his mother and sister who reside at 615 South Eighth street, this city, and with whom he has been making his home for a few weeks. A few days ago he became violent and during one of his spells struck his mother, injuring her so that she had to be removed to the Women's Christian Association hospital. The sister, finding that she was unable to care for him, complained to the police and young Hart was taken into custody yesterday morning When the officer went to the Hart residence he found the young man seated in the middle of a tent, which he had constructed out of flour sacks and odd bits of busily conducting the orchestra of a grand opera company, as he imagined. To the officer he said he was preparing to put on grand opera in this city on a more magnificent scale than ever seen in the United States and with that end in view had hired the finest musical talent in the world.

The chances of securing any financial as elstance from Millionaire Carnegie toward a library building for this city are still very remote. At the meeting of the board of trustees of the public library yesterday afternoon it was stated that the committee having the matter in hand had as yet been unable to reach Mr. Carnegie, although it still had some hope of doing so. The meeting yesterday was principally taken up with a discussion of the magazines and periodicals to be taken by the library next year. But little change was made in this year's list, but one or two magazines and the same number of weekly papers being dropped. The report of the librarian showed 5,820

Bill Posters Win Out.

C. H. Nichols of this city has just won an important legal action as president of the Iowa State Bill Posters' and Distributers' association. The city council of Malvern passed an ordinance placing the bill poster's license so high as to be practically prohibitive. Mr. Nichols was appealed to and the association of which he is president authorized him to take the matter into court. He instructed the bill poster at Malvern to go ahead and ignore the ordinance. The arrest of the bill poster 125 followed, the case was taken into the district court and Judge Wheeler has decided 625 that the ordinance was invalid.
