A bond for costs of appeal of the Pralor-Lindt suit from the federal court here to the United States court of appeals has been filed. The suit involves the possession of the brick saloon building on Broadway, title to which Attorney Lindt secured from the Schlitz Brewing company after lengthy litigation. The heirs of Mrs. Pralor, the original owner of the ground, are the plaintiffs in the suit at bar.

Reduce Gathman Sentence.

The supreme court has reduced the sentence of Albert Gathman, convicted of the betrayal of Bertha Trede, from fifteen months to three months' imprisonment in the county jail. Gathman appealed on the grounds that the evidence was insufficient to convict him of the offense charged, and on this point the six judges of the supreme court were equally divided, but were unanimous that owing to the peculiar circumstances of the case the sentence should be reduced. The attorneys for Gathman are, however, not satisfied with the court's ruling and will file a motion for a rehearing. Gathman had his preliminary hearing in this city before a justice of the peace, but his trial was held at Avoca before Judge Green, it being shown that the alleged offense was committed in Carson. Young Gathman is a member of a well known family of Pottawattamie county.

LITIGATION IS EXPENSIVE

Eats Up Large Portion of Assets of Kimball & Champ Company.

RECEIVER AND LAWYERS ARE UNPAID

Petition Court to Turn Remaining Property Over to Them to Compensate Them for Services.

"Shortly after assuming the receivership I found that practically all of its valuable securities had been diverted and hypothecated by its officers and my work has principally consisted in tedious efforts to obtain possession of these securities by either litigation or compromise." This is the statement of Charles R. Hannan in his final report as receiver for the Kimball-Champ Investment company of this city, which he filed in the district court yesterday. The Kimball-Champ Investment company failed in 1891 and Charles R. Hannan, then cashier of the Citizens' State bank, was appointed receiver. The failure of the Kimball-Champ Investment company followed shortly after it completed the building of the Grand hotel.

At the time of its failure the Kimball-Champ company had outstanding guarantees aggregating $778,568.92 and debenture bonds to the amount of $43,400. Eastern banks with whom the hypothecated securities had been deposited as collateral for loans were the heaviest losers. In connection with the building of the Grand hotel by this company Receiver Hannan found on taking hold of its affairs one note secured by mortgage on the furniture of the hotel on which $16,500 was still due after foreclosure and another note secured by mortgage on the hotel annex on which $113,660 remained unpaid after the foreclosure.

Owing to the tangled condition of the affairs of the company and the consequent litigation the expenses of the receivership have been heavy and have absorbed much of the receipts which came into Mr. Hannan's hands. The receipts were $39,-261.40 and the disbursements $38,206.66. Still outstanding against the receivership are the claims of Stone & Dawson, attorneys, $12,000, and that of the receiver, amounting to $14,500, on which $3,000 has been paid.

Receiver Hannan in asking to be discharged and his bondsmen exonerated, petitions the court to authorize the issuance of deeds to the property now in his hands to him and to Stone & Dawson in settlement of their claims, the property to be charged against them at its appraised value of approximately $20,000. All the other securities the receiver asserts are practically worthless and impossible to realize on.

The Kimball-Champ Investment company did a large business during the boom days of Council Bluffs and its failure in 1891 created quite a stir in financial circles.

Death of Mrs. Banham.

Mrs. Rachael Bonham, wife of A. S. Bonham, died at her home, 317 East Pierce street, yesterday afternoon, aged 87 years. Death was due to the infirmities of old age. Besides her husband, Mrs. Bonham is survived by two daughters, Mrs. O. J. Smith and Mrs. D. J. Smith, both of this city, and three sons, B. A. Bonham and A. M. Bonham of this city and John Bonham in Mexico. Deceased was born November 22, 1815, in Fleming county, Kentucky, which was also the birthplace of her husband, to whom she was married September 17, 1835. Mr. and Mrs. Bonham had been married for sixty-seven years, reaching a stage of married life seldom attained. They have been residents of Council Bluffs for thirty-eight years, coming here from Abington, Ill.

The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence. Rev. W. B. Crewdson, pastor of the First Christian church, will conduct the services and burial will be in Clarks cemetery.

Concert Program Pleases.

C. F. Steckelberg, the violin virtuoso, assisted by Madame Alice Myron, contralto; H. Steckelberg, 'cellist, and Miss Josephine Thatcher, pianist, gave an excellent program last night in Royal Arcanum hall before a large and appreviative audience. From the opening to the closing number the concert was a musical treat. Mr. Steckelberg formerly lived in Council Bluffs and last night was his first appearance in public concert here since going to Lincoln, Neb., to reside, and he was given an enthusiastic reception. No less handsome was the reception tendered Mrs. Myron, who as Mrs. Alice Smith is well known in musical circles in Omaha, where she formerly resided, and this city.

Well Known in the Bluffs.

Dr. John West, who died yesterday morning at 4617 Farnam street, Omaha, was well known in Council Bluffs, where until about a year ago he had resided for fifteen years. He was a veterinary surgeon and stood high in his profession. About a year ago he removed to California, where his wife and two brothers died. After their death he returned to Omaha, and where two weeks ago he was married to Mrs. Ladd.

Iowa State News Notes.

What to do with dead hogs is the live issue in the neighborhood of Sloan.

Centerville is sawing wood; that is, by proxy and the elbow grease of the bums and jailbirds in confinement there.

If marriage is a failure it will be a big one in Jefferson county, where twenty-eight licenses were issued during October.

There has been a lot of kicking in Iowa against political machines and yet an agitation has just been started in Dubuque in favor of voting machines.

A citizen of Fort Dodge undertook to bathe his viscera with a quart of alcohol at one session, and the coroner reports the result as a highly interesting study from a scientific point of view.

At Marion C. G. Wasson robbed a young man by the name of Tom Malone of $75 which the latter had stolen from a farmer and the supreme court says that Wasson's two-year sentence is legally all right.

Qotient verdicts don't go in Iowa and a good many damage awards are being overruled. The courts have distinctly held that jurors must not reach a verdict by averaging the estimates of all the members.

A German named Herman Utesch transacted a lot of business while drunk in Sioux City the other day. When he sobered up he found he had bought a farm for $5,000, paid a lot of cash down and executed notes and mortgages for the balance. He must be a corker for business when not embarrassed by drink.

The Dubuque fellow had evidently first emptied into himself the contents of the bottle before enclosing in it the harrowing tale of an unknown maiden held in an unknown place near there by two horrid men. The maiden, with great presence of mind, withheld her signature and the bunch of police who rushed to the rescue have declined to file a report.

They tell a good story of the origin of the late boom in Iowa for Shaw for vice president. Meyers, a young newspaper editor at Shaw's home town, had provided several bushels of Roosevelt and Shaw buttons to work off when they appeared at Denison. The president's surgical operation was disastrous for the buttons and Meyers had $100 worth of buttons. But he ingeniously worked up the vice presidential promotion and is now said to be within $7 of even with the game.

AN EASY WAY

To Keep Well.

It is easy to keep well if you only observe each day a few simple rules of health.

The all important thing is to keep the stomach right, and to do this it is not necessary to diet or to follow a set rule or bill of fare. Such pampering simply makes a capricious appetite and a feeling that certain favorite articles of food must be avoided.

Prof. Wiechold gives pretty good advice on this subject. He says: "I am 68 years old and have never had a serious illness, and at the same time my life has been largely an indoor one, but I early discovered that the way to keep healthy was to keep a healthy stomach, not by eating bran crackers or dieting of any sort; on the contrary, I always eat what my appetite craves, but daily for the past eight years I have made it a practice to take one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal and I atribute my robust health for a man of my age to the regular daily use of Stuart's Tablets.

My physician first advised me to use them because he said they were perfectly harmless and were not a secret patent medicine, but contained only the natural digestives, peptones and diastase, and after using them a few weeks I have never ceased to thank him for his advice.

I honestly believe the habit of taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals is the real health habit, because their use brings health to the sick and ailing and preserves health to the well and strong."

Men and women past fifty years of age need a safe digestive after meals to insure a perfect digestion and to ward off disease, and the safest, best known and most widely used is Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

They are found in every well regulated household from Maine to California, and in Great Britain and Australia are rapidly pushing their way into popular favor.

All druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, full size packages at 50 cents, and for a weak stomach a 50 cent package will often do $50 worth of good.

PLANS FOR IOWA BUILDING

Commission Tells Architects What is Wanted at St. Louis.

INTEREST CENTERS IN LIBEL CASE

Congressman Hill Comes Out for Babcock of Wisconsin as the Next Speaker of the House.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 11.—(Special.)—The building committee of the Iowa commission to the St. Louis exposition held a meeting here today at the state capitol and considered the inquiries of architects in reference to the proposed building that is to be erected for headquarters for the commission on the exposition grounds at St. Louis. The commission has instructed the secretary to send out a revised statement asking for designs for the building and to include what is wanted in the building as to floor space, rooms, their purpose and the general features of the same. The commission desires a building large enough to contain committee rooms and rooms for the officers and a general assembly room, also a building that will be imposing in appearance. Some of the architects have written to the commission complaining that without some general idea of the character of the building desired they feel it would be folly to undertake the designing of a suitable building. The building committee met to supply this deficiency. It is expected the state will spend $50,000 or $60,000 on a building, or nearly half of the total amount appropriated with which to make an exhibit for the state at the exposition. The designs are to be submitted within a month.

Rulings on a Libel Case.

In the district court today several motions in relation to sundry claims of the contending parties in the suits between J. C. Tate, county clerk, and R. P. Clarkson, formerly publisher of the Daily Register, were ruled upon. Tate sued Clarkson for $25,000 damages for alleged libel and Clarkson brought counter suit for the same amount. The trouble grew out of a hot political fight last spring over congressman. Clarkson published defamatory statements in connection with an affidavit regarding frauds and corruption at the primary election. Clarkson claimed that the publication of the affidavit and comments thereon was privileged, but the court today held this was not the case. Clarkson claimed in mitigation that it was his duty to expose corruption. This also was not sustained by the court. He also claimed that he had first been attacked but the court held that as he was not attacked directly by name this had nothing to do with the case. The Clarkson counter claim was ruled out entirely by the court, so that there is only one case to be tried, and that the case of Tate for damages. This will be heard in court in a few days and under the rulings of the judge it is probable some form of verdict will be given.

Two Murder Cases Considered.

The trial of Harry Levich for the murder of Isaac Finkelstein will be commenced in court tomorrow. The defendant is anxious to have the hearing at once and his attorneys profess to be able to completely establish the innocence of their client. Levich is accused of having planned to have James Walker assault Finkelstein for a consideration. The evidence against both is largely circumstantial.

The grand jury is now making an investigation of the murder of the two Peterson children in Highland park last spring. One arrest was made and a preliminary inquiry held which developed nothing. It is expected the grand jury will secure all evidence possible in that case.

Old Soldier Goes Insane.

Grandison Able, a veteran of the Ninth Iowa cavalry, who has been an inmate of the State Soldiers' home at Marshalltown for several months, has been sent from there to the State Insane hospital at Clarinda. He had become feeble and demented and his condition was such that he was regarded as dangerous. He has a wife and three children living in this city and had been a resident here a long time previous to his having been taken to the Soldiers' home.

Hull Comes Out for Babcock.

Considerable surprise was manifested here when Congressman Hull, who at present holds the important position of chairman of the military committee of the house, announced himself as in favor of Babcock of Wisconsin for speaker of the next house and predicted that he would have the solid support of the Iowa members. It has been generally expected that the Iowa delegation would support Cannon of Illinois as the logical western candidate to succeed Henderson. Hull and Hepburn have now spoken for Babcock. Hull has been in the east all fall in close touch with Babcock and his associates of the national committee.

Congressman Hull is devoting himself entirely to the postoffice question here and will remain until it is settled. A new candidate appeared today in the person of W. V. Wilcox, an old soldier. Probably 200 persons called on Hull today to urge him to appoint this or that person as postmaster.

Appeals Big Damage Case.

The case of F. E. Perry against Clarke county has been appealed to the supreme court. Perry was running a threshing machine engine along the highway and tried to cross a small bridge, when it broke down. The accident occurred late in the evening. Perry was pinioned beneath the engine and buried in the mud. The escaping steam scalded him terribly and his leg was broken and crushed. In his terrible pain, and after he had been lying in the mud for three hours, he called out for a saw that he might saw off his leg and release himself. It was so dark that when help arrived for him he literally had to cut his own way out of the wreck and save himself. The jury decided the county was negligent as to the bridge and gave a verdict for $4,000 for Perry.

Effort to Capture Dipsomaniacs.

Governor Cummins has sent out to the peace officers of the state a request that they make special efforts to arrest and return to the state hospital at Mount Pleasant fifteen escaped inmates of the dipsomania ward whose whereabouts are unknown. He has procured from the superintendent of the hospital the names of those who have run away. The superintendent complains that the sheriffs of the state have made no effort to arrest these persons and he is without means of having them pursued and brought back.

For President of W. R. C.

CEDAR FALLS, Ia., Nov. 11.—(Special.)—The Woman's Relief corps and the Grand Army of the Republic post are urging Mrs. J. W. Philpot to be a candidate for the presidency of the Woman's Relief corps, Department of Iowa, at the next election. Mrs. Philpot has served on state committees and is a competent woman in Woman's Relief corps work. She has been a worker in the corps here for many years and has served as president. The Grand Army of the Republic has endorsed her candidacy and she will be one of the leading aspirants for the office at the time of the next convention.

LOSES HIS LIFE IN A FIRE

Man at Ottumwa, Iowa, Burned to Death in House in Presence of Hundreds.

OTTUMWA, Ia., Nov. 11.—Hundreds of horrified spectators saw Thomas Baxter, an aged resident of Chariton, cremated in a fire which destroyed his residence last night.

The blazing body could be seen through the windows of the burning house. There is much mystery surrounding the case, and it is thought he was murdered and the house set on fire to conceal the crime.

For One Big Camp Meeting.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Nov. 11.—(Special Telegram.)—Important action was taken by the Methodist conference of the Sioux City district here today. The campmeeting committee recommended to the conference this afternoon that instead of holding camp meetings in different parts of the district a central district campmeeting be held at Riverside, Sioux City. The committee advocated the appointment of a permanent campmeeting committee, consisting of six preachers and six laymen, who should take entire charge of the campmeeting. The members of the committee will be: Rev. Dr. J. B. Trimble, chairman; Rev. Dr. R. N. McKaig and Rev. Dr. F. E. Day of Sioux City, Rev. W. F. McDonald of LeMars, Rev. O. E. Plummer of Salix, Rev. O. M. Bond of Aurelia, and Messrs. J. F. Hopkins, T. B. Killem and M. R. Hathaway of Sioux City, Frank Woodford of Sergeant Bluffs, J. A. Jackson of Cherokee and Ed Fair of Oregon. This report will unquestionably be adopted by the conference.

Monona County Vote.

ONAWA, Ia., Nov. 11.—(Special Telegram.)—The Board of Supervisors completed the official canvass of Monona county today. There are no changes of importance. Monona county gives a republican majority of 632, which is in marked contrast to the vote of 1896, when Bryan carried the county by 1,080 majority. Every republican official is elected by majorities ranging from 126 to 954.

Vote for New Courthouse.

DECORAH, Ia., Nov. 11.—(Special.)—Winneshiek county is to have a new court house. At the election last week the question of tearing down the old building, erecting a new one and issuing $75,000 in bonds to pay for it was passed upon favorably by the voters.

Arrest Alleged Shoplifter.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Nov. 11.—(Special Telegram.)—Chief of Police Davenport today arrested a woman in Davidson Bros. store on the charge of shoplifting. She gives the name of Mrs. S. White, Martinsburg, Neb.

The new kind of General Arthur cigars are now on sale.

CAPITAL REMOVAL SCHEME

South Dakota Cities Combine in Move Against Present Location at Pierre.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Nov. 11.—(Special Telegram.)—Action which may result in the removal of the capital of South Dakota from the city of Pierre, and which may also have an important bearing on the future politics of the state, was taken in Redfield, S. D., last night. At a secret conference held there the cities of Huron, Mitchell and Redfield were each represented by committees composed of prominent citizens. Although it is difficult to gather much definite knowledge of the result of the conference, enough has leaked out to justify the conclusion that a plan was agreed to by which the three cities will work together for the removal of the capitol from Pierre at the coming session of the legislature. Many people here believe that the result of the meeting makes it certain that Pierre will lose the capitol.

MITCHELL, S. D., Nov. 11.—(Special Telegram.)—The capitol committee of this city returned this morning from Redfield. The members were very reticent as to what transpired at a conference held last night by the representation of Mitchell, Huron and Redfield on capitol removal matters. A member of the committee admitted that the conference was held and that a combination was effected which brought the three towns into a position where they agree to support a measure removing the capitol from Pierre without reference to any individual town. Aside from this much of a disclosure the committee would give nothing. It means a fight, however, that Pierre has not contemplated, according to its newspapers.

RAILWAYS ASK CERTIFICATES

Demand That Invalid Passengers Produce Doctor's Diagnosis of Disease.

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 11.—The passenger agents of the Terminal Lines association have voted unanimously for the adoption of a law requiring all invalid passengers to have certificates from physicians stating their disease before boarding trains.

The secretary of the association was instructed to confer with the city, county and state health officials in regard to the form of certificates, and as soon as this is done plans will be made for putting the new agreement into effect.
