

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE

Published Every Morning. E. ROSEWATER, EDITOR. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Daily Bee (without Sunday), One Year $4.00...

OFFICES. Omaha—The Bee Building, South Omaha—City Hall Building, Twenty-fifth and M Streets.

COMMUNICATIONS. Communications relating to news and editorial matter should be addressed to Omaha, Neb., Editorial Department.

REMITTANCES. Remit by draft, express or postal order, payable to The Bee Publishing Company.

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION. State of Nebraska, Douglas County, ss: George B. Trebucher, secretary of The Bee Publishing Company, being duly sworn, says that the actual number of full and complete copies...

Table showing circulation statistics for The Omaha Daily Bee, listing dates and circulation figures from 1902 to 1901.

It's time to pass that pass cartoon up. This is merely a passing remark.

The Real Estate exchange is now due to show that it is in the fight for tax reform to stay.

Those omniscient Washington correspondents must be busy just now writing the president's forthcoming message to congress for him.

Everybody in Nebraska is feeding sheep now and presently everybody outside of Nebraska will be eating Nebraska mutton chops.

Retail cigar dealers have organized for a fight. Now let the retail cigar smokers organize and agree to invest in corn-cob pipes and dried cabbage leaves.

The ordinance bureau recommends some changes in the artillery, but it does not suggest that anyone but "Uncle Joe" Cannon should be mounted in the speaker's chair.

Arthur Pue Gorman may be the preferred choice of Henry Watterson for president, but he will hardly serve as the reconciliation offering between David B. Hill and William J. Bryan.

With over $16,000 in the treasury to the credit of the police fund there is no apparent excuse for the summary dismissal of the sixteen policemen on the ground of compulsory economy.

Every time the election returns are officially canvassed in this city and county another solid argument is produced for the early introduction of the voting machine with its automatic counter.

The law requiring candidates for office to file sworn statements of campaign expenses should be repealed by the incoming legislature unless we want to perpetuate the perjury habit, which has grown from year to year.

The only way to lift the tax burden from real estate is not only to reduce the tax rate, but to include in the assessment all the taxable property that now escapes listing at the same proportionate value as real estate.

Judged by his address at the New York Chamber of Commerce, as well as by innumerable other public addresses, President Roosevelt would have been the same shining success if he had taken to the pulpit instead of to the law.

Unless the Union Pacific strike breakers are kept at arm's length from each other the city will have to enlarge its window-barred boarding house. John N. Baldwin's injunction chest protector should be extended over the men inside as well as outside the picket line.

The St. Louis grand jury is still doing a land office business at the old stand. Having closed its arduous labors of indicting a brace of boodle aldermen and boodle franchise promoters, it now proposes to devote its time and attention to repeaters and crooked election officers who violated the election laws on the 4th of November.

WANTED—A LEADER. The New York Evening Post says that the democratic need of the hour is "a clean, strong, inspiring leadership."

The late elections effectually killed off several aspirants for democratic leadership. David B. Hill is no longer seriously thought of in that connection, having shown himself more of a demagogue than previously he was thought to be.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION REFORM. The initiative for municipal election reform has been taken in Chicago in the shape of a resolution adopted by its city council endorsing an amendment to the city charter providing for four more hours of voting in order to enable the workmen to participate in elections.

PREPOSTEROUS COAL RATES. No one will deny that the transportation charges on bituminous coal are, to say the least, very high.

Desirable Land. The work of preparation for carrying out the irrigation schemes of the government in the arid west goes bravely on.

Police Chief Donahue is quoted as saying that the proposed eight-hour shift in the Omaha police force was made impossible by the dismissal of the sixteen members of the force on the ground of financial distress.

HONORABLE COMMERCIAL RIVALRY. There were some things said by President Roosevelt in his address at the banquet of the New York Chamber of Commerce which are worthy of more than passing consideration and which will undoubtedly receive attention and favorable comment abroad.

The two trials of Molinoux have cost the state and the defense an aggregate of $500,000. In the first the defendant was promptly found guilty of murder in the first degree and sentenced to death by electrocution.

before the chamber, "commerce is born of enterprise and enterprise is in this busy, bustling age born of struggle and competition."

Liberty in Peril. President Roosevelt expressed the belief that the trend of the modern spirit is ever stronger toward international peace and friendship and said that "we shall be a potent factor for peace largely in proportion to the way we make it evident that our attitude is due not to weakness, but to a genuine repugnance to wrong-doing."

Caution in Prophecy. Editor Bryan's prediction that time will prove the policies of the republican party to be bad for the people has one advantage over his previous prophecies.

Soothing Words for the Left. Mr. Bryan has written an address to the democrats of Nebraska, pleading with them not to be discouraged by their recent defeat.

Examine in Rolling Stock. The only famine that threatens the country is a deficiency in locomotives and cars to handle the traffic.

Simplicity in the Army. This country got along for a great many years and prospered in peace and greatness with a small army, simply organized.

Desirable Land. The work of preparation for carrying out the irrigation schemes of the government in the arid west goes bravely on.

Police Chief Donahue is quoted as saying that the proposed eight-hour shift in the Omaha police force was made impossible by the dismissal of the sixteen members of the force on the ground of financial distress.

The increase of revenue over expenditures of the national treasury continues, amounting to $4,500,000 for October.

Miscellaneous scenes and incidents sketched on the spot. Washington correspondents of eastern newspapers refer in serio-comic tones to a recent paper published by the United States geological survey on the wells and windmills of Nebraska.

The official paper says that the breathing of the wells found in various parts of the state constitutes an interesting phenomenon. These wells are of the driven type, mostly in use upon the plains.

Examine in Rolling Stock. The only famine that threatens the country is a deficiency in locomotives and cars to handle the traffic.

Simplicity in the Army. This country got along for a great many years and prospered in peace and greatness with a small army, simply organized.

Desirable Land. The work of preparation for carrying out the irrigation schemes of the government in the arid west goes bravely on.

Police Chief Donahue is quoted as saying that the proposed eight-hour shift in the Omaha police force was made impossible by the dismissal of the sixteen members of the force on the ground of financial distress.

The increase of revenue over expenditures of the national treasury continues, amounting to $4,500,000 for October.

The two trials of Molinoux have cost the state and the defense an aggregate of $500,000.

That Minnesota Judge who has resigned, giving as the reason that the salary is insufficient, calls for no public sympathy. It's safe to wager that his Minor Scenes and Incidents Sketched on the Spot. Washington correspondents of eastern newspapers refer in serio-comic tones to a recent paper published by the United States geological survey on the wells and windmills of Nebraska.

The official paper says that the breathing of the wells found in various parts of the state constitutes an interesting phenomenon.

Examine in Rolling Stock. The only famine that threatens the country is a deficiency in locomotives and cars to handle the traffic.

Simplicity in the Army. This country got along for a great many years and prospered in peace and greatness with a small army, simply organized.

Desirable Land. The work of preparation for carrying out the irrigation schemes of the government in the arid west goes bravely on.

Police Chief Donahue is quoted as saying that the proposed eight-hour shift in the Omaha police force was made impossible by the dismissal of the sixteen members of the force on the ground of financial distress.

The increase of revenue over expenditures of the national treasury continues, amounting to $4,500,000 for October.

The two trials of Molinoux have cost the state and the defense an aggregate of $500,000.

That Minnesota Judge who has resigned, giving as the reason that the salary is insufficient, calls for no public sympathy.

The Republican West. Nevada the Only Fly Speck in the Mighty Colossus. Philadelphia Press (reg.).

Some Startling Figures from a New York State Report. C. R. Barnes of the New York Railroad Commission has laid before the twentieth annual convention of the New York Street Railway Association appalling statistics of the accidents caused by trolley lines in that state.

These accidents are nearly all preventable. "The greatest loss of life and injury," says Mr. Barnes, "to passengers on electric railroads in the last five years has been caused by rear-end collisions."

PERSONAL NOTES. General Bragg is thankful for the enemies he made at Havana. He says he never liked the place anyway.

THOUGHTS THAT TICKLE. Philadelphia Inquirer: Mrs. Upton—Why, I thought your little dog was white!

Town Topics: "Poor Jenkins! He thought he could paddle his own canoe through Wall street."

The rippling green is turning to brown. There are men's feet of roses most fair, whose petals in dust breathe the fair human soul.

Advertisement for "To Make Red Cheeks" medicine. A little red, a little white, delicately blended. That's one way. Here's a better: Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It makes the blood pure and rich.

Some Startling Figures from a New York State Report. C. R. Barnes of the New York Railroad Commission has laid before the twentieth annual convention of the New York Street Railway Association appalling statistics of the accidents caused by trolley lines in that state.

These accidents are nearly all preventable. "The greatest loss of life and injury," says Mr. Barnes, "to passengers on electric railroads in the last five years has been caused by rear-end collisions."

PERSONAL NOTES. General Bragg is thankful for the enemies he made at Havana. He says he never liked the place anyway.

THOUGHTS THAT TICKLE. Philadelphia Inquirer: Mrs. Upton—Why, I thought your little dog was white!

Town Topics: "Poor Jenkins! He thought he could paddle his own canoe through Wall street."

The rippling green is turning to brown. There are men's feet of roses most fair, whose petals in dust breathe the fair human soul.

Advertisement for "To Make Red Cheeks" medicine. A little red, a little white, delicately blended. That's one way. Here's a better: Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It makes the blood pure and rich.

Advertisement for "To Make Red Cheeks" medicine. A little red, a little white, delicately blended. That's one way. Here's a better: Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It makes the blood pure and rich.