

ARRANGE TARIFF WAR

German Reichstag Orders Retaliation Against Discriminating Nations.

MOVE AIMED DIRECTLY AT UNITED STATES

Assert New York Authorities Alter Duties to Please Trusts.

AMERICA WILL RESPECT SHOW OF FIGHT

Pleasant Words All Very Well, but Not Profitable.

RADICAL MEMBERS PLEAD FOR PEACE

May Measure Proposed Would Be Breach of Existing Treaties and Far from Patriotic, but House Does Not Agree.

BERLIN, Nov. 12.—The Reichstag adopted today, by 192 to 71 votes, the paragraph of the new tariff authorizing the government to retaliate on any country discriminating against German goods. The agrarians openly affirmed that it was necessary to arm the government with weapons for reprisal, especially against the United States customs practices.

Dr. Brumer, national liberal, cited an instance in which he said $200,000 worth of enameled goods were ordered in Germany for the government with a view to reprisal, especially against the United States customs practices.

The Reichstag also passed a resolution, which was adopted by a majority of 192 to 71, that the government should not retaliate on any country discriminating against German goods.

Dr. Brumer further asserted that the customs officials treatment was dictated by the interests of the home manufacturers, and he continued:

It is said that we must not offend the United States, but they will respect us more and we shall have to do something to keep them from always giving pleasant words.

Herr Gothein, radical liberal, replied that such words were no fitting epilogue to the sentiments expressed by Count Posadowski, the home secretary, in his response to the foreign secretary, Baron von Richthofen, at Ambassador White's farewell dinner.

"They will make discord," he continued, "among the wishes spoken there for friendly relations with the United States. Why empower us in this way to do something it does not want to do? Although the present government would not apply the paragraph and some succeeding government might commit such a folly. Retaliatory duties are the weapon of Chauvinism and not of patriotism."

Opposes Tariff War.

Herr Fischback, radical, said all the Chambers of Commerce opposed to a tariff war with the United States.

Herr Brunsel, radical, remarked that if Germany adopted retaliatory measures against the United States because of regulations which applied not to the goods of all countries but to those of a few, it would be a serious breach of the existing treaties.

The Associated Press is authorized to announce that the ministry has not decided to drop the tariff bill, as published in London, but is determined to persist until the dissolution of the Reichstag in June.

The tariff debate will probably be abruptly suspended by the presentation of the budget in a few days instead of waiting for the first week in December, as previously intended. Chancellor von Buelow finds that the Reichstag's time is being wasted and wishes to employ the budget on the finance bill. As such as the latter is read the government will take up the tariff bill, when a lapse of time will have reduced the majority in the house to a more yielding disposition.

The ministry has also decided not to agree with Russia on an extension for a five-year extension of existing commercial treaties.

Reichstag Changes Party.

The incident of the day was Herr Richter's declaration that obstruction in a parliamentary body was contrary to the dignity of the house and that, besides, it was futile and childish. This old radical leader's withdrawal from the majority and his action in supporting the conservative and center party majority, which he had been fighting for thirty years, caused Herr Hebel, socialist, to point a finger at him and exclaim passionately: "Go over to the right. Your place is among the anti-socialists."

Herr Richter made an angry answer, which was lost in the uproar which followed Herr Hebel's remarks.

Herr Richter's entire party followed him and acted with the majority against the socialists and moderate radicals.

The step taken by Herr Richter was interpreted in the lobbies of the House as being due to reiterated attacks of the socialists upon Berlin's liberal municipal government, which is controlled by Herr Richter's friends, the socialist position being that the Berlin councilmen lacked the courage to resist Emperor William's interference in city affairs.

Herr Heine, socialist, today delayed the session by speaking for about a half hour. He walked to the tribune with an armful of documents and newspapers, causing groans of dismay. Herr Heine began his speech in a low voice and the conservatives shouted, "Louder, louder," to which he replied: "I will not wear out my voice in the first hour."

The rest of his speech was audible only to those immediately surrounding him. He was quite indifferent to occasional interruptions and jeers.

Afraid of Gas Bill.

The session lasted until 9:45 p. m. the dilatory tactics of the socialists and moderate radical members were trying the time.

The majority was determined to reach a vote on the main question and many exciting passages characterized the night session. Herr Spahn, centrist, finally moved to lay the twenty-two socialist amendments to the bill on the table, and this motion was adopted by 187 votes to 85.

At this stage Count Ballestre, president, announced that the illumination of the hall was not provided for later than 10 o'clock. The Reichstag then adjourned to meet at noon tomorrow, when the debate on the amendment of the rules will be resumed.

Today's session lasted nine hours and forty-five minutes.

Borrow Money in London.

VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 12.—The British Columbia government has floated a loan in London of $2,500,000. The finance minister received a cable from London last night announcing that the loan had been underwritten, at 93 per cent.

SAGASTA HAS A DIFFICULT JOB

Making a New Spanish Cabinet Gets the Aged Premier into Fresh Complications.

MADRID, Nov. 12.—A hitch has occurred in the formation of the new cabinet, consequence of the desire of Senor Moret to relinquish the interior portfolio for Romero Robledo.

Premier Sagasta, however, wishes Senor Moret to retain the portfolio. The disagreement has caused friction.

After an audience with King Alfonso today Senor Sagasta informed a representative of the Associated Press that difficulty had arisen regarding the inclusion of Robledo in the cabinet.

It appears that Senor Romero Robledo made it a condition of his entering the cabinet that he be given the interior portfolio, or that two among the cabinet officers should be chosen from members of his party.

He also insisted upon a considerable modification in the legislative program of the liberal party. The liberal leaders declined to accede to these conditions with the result that the projected formation of a concentration cabinet fell through.

All efforts to form a concentration cabinet have now failed and Senor Sagasta has begun an attempt to form a homogeneous liberal ministry.

A dispatch received here from Tetuan, Morocco, where the Kabyle tribesmen have rebelled, shows that the situation has grown more serious.

A body of armed Tetuanis has been defeated in a fight with the rebels and compelled to retreat to the town. The rebels are encamped at Samoa, half an hour distant from Tetuan, where all business is suspended.

In Madrid the position of the Europeans at Tetuan is considered to be not grave. The newspapers comment on Spain's continued ill fortune as evidenced by the fact that the country is without a cabinet at the time of such an important crisis.

GIBRALTAR, Nov. 12.—The British cruisers Furious, Pactolus and Prometheus have sailed from here for Tetuan, Morocco.

MEMBERS COME TO BLOWS

Violent Scene Causes Suspension of Lower House of Austrian Reichsrath.

VIENNA, Nov. 13.—The sittings today of the lower house of the Austrian Reichsrath, on account of the German and Czech members coming to blows.

The cause of the trouble was a debate on the advisability of the use of the two languages in the names of stations on the Bohemian railroads.

Herr Schnal started the disorder by shouting: "You Germans are a lot of pigs!" whereupon a number of German deputies cast themselves upon him crying "Smash him!" "Kick him!" which they proceeded to do.

Eventually Herr Schnal was thrown down the gangway to the bottom of the amphitheater.

The fighting continued for a quarter of an hour after the suspension of the sittings. Throughout the disorder the combatants were encouraged by hearty plaudits from the strangers' gallery.

MINERS DECLARE STRIKE OFF

Many French Coal Workers Go Back and Congress Orders General Resumption.

PARIS, Nov. 13.—The coal miners' strike has practically come to an end. About two-thirds of the strikers have returned to work. The miners' congress now being held at Lens has voted in favor of the resumption of work.

Ten thousand strikers, many of them armed with clubs and carrying banners and red flags, made a demonstration at St. Etienne today. They marched through the streets, but seemed more bent on merry-making than creating disorder and no incident occurred necessitating the intervention of the troops. A few isolated dynamite outrages are reported from various points in the strike region, but the damage done was slight and of a purely material character.

SICILIAN VOLCANO ACTIVE

Sends Up Cloud of Fire, Red Hot Stones and Sweeps Houses Away.

ROME, Nov. 13.—The volcano on Stromboli, off the north coast of Sicily, is in eruption.

A colossal column of fire is rising and incandescent stones are being thrown from the craters.

Many houses have already been destroyed. Although the volcano is situated in the district of Stromboli, yesterday's eruption has broken out in Savast, the westernmost and largest island of the group. Six craters are reported to be emitting smoke and flames.

A village is covered two inches deep with ashes.

HUNT BANDIT, FIND MARQUIS

Sicilian Police Capture Many Noted Men in Their Search for Brigand.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—A dispatch from Rome says the Sicilian police who have been trying to capture a brigand named Varsalone, yesterday raided the district of Cammarata, in the province of Girgenti, and took sixty persons prisoners, among them being a marquis, a mayor, several doctors and a number of lawyers.

In the course of the dragnet operations a wealthy land owner named Lino Barri and wounded another.

The police, however, failed to capture Varsalone.

FRENCH NAVY NEEDS FUNDS

Contracts for Three Ships Cancelled Because Money Runs Short.

PARIS, Nov. 13.—Replying to an interpellation in the Chamber of Deputies today concerning his action in countermanding orders for three battleships, contracts for which had been signed by his predecessor, the minister of marine explained that he had been obliged to take this step because he found that the naval contracts exceeded the appropriations by $5,000,000.

After a lengthy and heated debate the chamber adopted by 281 to 114 an order of the day expressing confidence in the government and referring the matter to the budget commission.

TRADE MAKES FOR PEACE

Shaw Says Commerce Has Rendered War Less Probable.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 12.—The fact that the nations benefit all world

Good of One Class or Country Redounds to Advantage of Earth is Truth Business Organizations Must Teach.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—A banquet was given at the Arlington hotel tonight in honor of the representatives of foreign commercial bodies who came to attend the dedication of the New York Chamber of Commerce, and who arrived in Washington for a short visit today.

In addition to the foreigners there were present Leslie M. Shaw and Mr. Frazee of President Roosevelt's cabinet, Admiral Dewey, Generals Curtis, Young and Wood, members of the diplomatic corps and local business men.

The table was set in oval shape and was decorated in large yellow chrysanthemums and American beauty roses.

Mr. A. Barton Hepburn, chairman of the committee on foreign relations of the New York Chamber of Commerce, sat at the head of the table with M. Cambon, ambassador of France, on his right and Sir Michael Herbert, ambassador of Great Britain, on his left, while to the right and left of the ambassadors were respectively Prince Henry of Prussia, Sir John Fisher, British ambassador, Mr. Hepburn introduced the speakers, among whom were Secretary Shaw and Major General Young.

Mr. Shaw said in part:

Speaking for that department which is supposed to be the guardian of the national business interests of the nation, I take great and peculiar pleasure in bidding welcome to the capital of the world, to the canonic representatives of so many of the leading commercial nations of the world. Such a gathering as this would have been impossible a century ago.

In the creation of the world, the event both natural and agreeable, and in the evolution of conditions making international commerce possible, commerce has played a most important part.

The spread of intelligence and the prudent use of that intelligence for international peace, and I thank my God that the day has come when the world can live without cause, when great nations are no longer looked upon as threatening the peace of the world, and when armaments and fortifications have lost much of their terror.

Commerce Must Be School.

The universal recognition of the great truth that the good fortune of an entire class of individuals redounds to the advantage of all and the prosperity of the people of any one country benefits all nations, would be of inestimable advantage to the world. But if the nations are to be universally recognized commerce must be the schoolmaster and chambers of commerce kindergartens of the world.

I have met within the last few days distinguished representatives of foreign chambers of commerce and eloquent speakers from their lips in the current language of the world, in some of whom I have seen not their mother tongue, but they found it to their commercial advantage to educate themselves in the language of commerce, and that the miracle at Babel will ever be reversed, but if it ever is the convenience of commerce and not the convenience of war will be the occasion. I do not know that the world will ever see a more complete system of weights and measures, but I am convinced that such a course would be to the advantage of commerce and to the benefit of all nations.

For which we acknowledge indebtedness to nations, kindergarten of the world, which necessarily afford the solution. It is evident that all values will be measured in gold, in fact this is already done internationally and governments that provide anything else than the gold standard, local use impose a tax upon every international transaction sufficient to bar their people from competition in commerce.

Looks for Common Language.

I may be dreaming when I suggest that some time, perhaps in the distant future, perhaps sooner than we think, the languages of the world will be written in a common language and in a common script of quantity and denomination of money; but if so, my excuse for the vision shall be that more than one of yesterday's speakers here in St. Louis, who were in the commercial struggle in the years that will follow must not be ignorant of the supremacy. Supremacy must not be sought for supremacy's sake. The superiority of the world's people would be in the fact of their common language and their common script.

PROMISE PRESIDENT A SHOT

Guides Say Bears Are Plentiful in Smedes District.

TRAIN RUNS SEVENTY MILES AN HOUR

Roosevelt Gets Impatient and Asks Engineer to Make Faster Time Over Last Part of Run to Hunting Grounds.

SMEDES, Miss., Nov. 13.—President Roosevelt and his party arrived shortly before 4 this afternoon and started soon afterward for the camp on Little Sunflower river. Mr. Roosevelt is about fifteen miles and the trail rough and bad, the chances are that it was after dark before they reached the camp.

Smedes is simply a siding on the Yazoo & Mississippi Valley railway where cotton is loaded from the big Smedes plantations. Work on the neighboring plantations was suspended this afternoon and several hundred negroes were at the siding when the train stopped. Most of the men sat on the cotton bales, but the black mammys and the pickaninnies stood along the track.

Mr. Roosevelt, who is a keen sportsman, but made no other demonstrations as the president stepped from the train. He was clad in hunting costume, kahlri riding trousers, heavy leather leggings, blue flannel shirt, corduroy coat and wore a brown slouch hat, around his waist was buckled his cartridge, and at his side hung his ivory-handled hunting knife. The other members of the party also wore hunting suits.

While the guns, blankets and other small baggage were being loaded into a four-mule wagon the president conferred with the manager of the Smedes estate and two women who were great admirers of his and who had come especially to greet him.

Dash Away on Horses.

The members of the party, except Mr. Fish and Mr. Dickinson, mounted small horses and dashed away for the woods at a breakneck canter.

Two disappointments met the president here. Mr. Minkum, who had much to do with arranging the hunt, was too ill to proceed to camp tonight and in trying the pack of hounds today half of the dogs went off after a deer. As there are only twenty-two dogs in the pack the split is very disappointing, but Mr. Minkum is trying to obtain a pack of twenty-five dogs owned by Bobb, a famous bear hunter, about 100 miles north of here. In place of Mr. Minkum it has been arranged that Hugh Foote and Hoke Collier will hunt with the president.

Paths have been cut through the undergrowth to be used as cutoffs to the river crossing and on these stations the members of the party, except the president, will be stationed.

Will Lose Five Pounds.

The president and his guides will follow the hounds through the undergrowth in order to be at hand if a bear is brought to bay.

"I will be powerful hard," said Mr. Minkum, "and I predict the president will lose at least five pounds in the next few days. I rode through there a few days ago and when I got out my clothes were almost rotten. I looked as if I had been in a railroad wreck."

Mr. Minkum says the black bears hereabouts weigh from 300 to 600 pounds. "We have a set of scales at the camp," said he, "and the beasts will be weighed when they are brought in."

Signs of bears in the vicinity of the camp are plentiful and Mr. Parker promises the president a shot before tomorrow evening.

The president's train is on the sidetrack here and a telegraph station has been rigged up in a box car on the siding. The arrangements made to prevent a crowd of curious people from spilling the president's fun were admirably carried out. The people of Vicksburg wanted to run an excursion here this afternoon to see the president, but the Illinois Central would not permit it.

Friends Join Him.

CLARKSDALE, Miss., Nov. 13.—President Roosevelt was joined at Memphis by the members of the hunting party. Stuyvesant Fish of the Illinois Central, John McElhinny, formerly a lieutenant in the Rough Riders; Major M. Helm, W. Minkum and H. L. Foote. The latter three are large Mississippi planters and well known bear hunters.

Collier, one of the guides, was credited by Mr. Parker with having been in at the death of 1,600 bears.

"It will be rough work," said Mr. Parker to the president when he joined him. "That is exactly what I want," replied Mr. Roosevelt.

"And we will have bear meat for Sunday dinner," added Mr. Parker.

"Let us get the bear before we arrange for the dinner," responded the president, laughing.
