Some time ago Councilman Welsh tried to get Whalen into the hospital, but Superintendent Oest refused him admittance. Whalen came back to his friends in South Omaha and has remained here in a helpless condition for some time. Dr. W. S. White, the assistant county physician, assigned to duty in this city, has given Whalen a card to Superintendent Oest, but it did no good, as Oest wanted orders from Commissioner O'Keeffe. It is expected that O'Keeffe will be located some time today and that he will give the order placing Whalen in the hospital.

Sons of Hermann.

Lodge No. 33, Sons of Hermann, an exclusive German-American order, has been instituted in South Omaha. At a meeting held last night the following officers were installed: F. J. Freitag, president; Otto Maurer, vice president; Henry Geest, secretary; Joseph Speri, treasurer. The trustees are Joseph Hoffman, Rudolph Schmidt and Ferdinand Jansen. This lodge starts with three dozen members. A. F. Kiehl, the grand organizer of the order, appears to be well pleased with his work here. He said last night that the South Omaha lodge would soon be one of the best in the state.
