

CONDICION OF THE MARKETS

Volume of Business for Last Week Showed Considerable Improvement.

PRICES FIRM, BUT GENERALLY UNCHANGED

All kinds of holiday goods in better demand than usual and jobbers have made preparations for a big run this week.

There was a noticeable improvement last week in the demand for practically all classes of seasonable goods. More merchants in the city than at any time since the late fall...

There has been no change in the sugar market since the last report. Sugar is still selling on the Missouri river for much less than the New York market...

The cheese market developed still more strength last week and an advance of 4c took place. Stocking of cheese is being done in a position to say how long this will hold out.

The market on cotton goods continues at a standstill. The price of raw cotton has fluctuated to some extent, but quotations have continued to be about the same.

The demand for all lines of hardware continues very active. Many merchants are making over their stock for the winter season.

There was quite an improvement last week in the demand for leather goods. A good many orders were placed for the week.

There was a good demand last week for fruits and vegetables. Cranberries in particular were in great demand.

There was a big improvement last week in the demand for rubber goods. Light rubbers, rubber boots and all kinds of products were in demand.

COMMERCIAL AND FINANCIAL

Quiet Day on the Board of Trade, with Slight Advances.

DECREASE IN RECEIPTS OF WHEAT

This Factor, Together with Unfavorable Weather and Good Cash Demand, Combine to Sustain Prices.

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—Inactivity prevailed in grain and provisions, but prices were quiet to a higher level, December wheat closing at 97 1/2c.

While there was a small dip in wheat shortly after the opening, the market quickly recovered the loss and higher prices ruled the remainder of the day.

There was some covering by shorts, while commission houses were buying. The market closed steady, with December wheat 97 1/2c.
