ESCAPES FROM JAIL AT PIERCE

PIERCE, Neb., Nov. 17.—(Special.)—John Woolley, who was sentenced to eighteen months in the state penitentiary by Judge Boyd, broke jail at his place Saturday night about 7:30 o'clock. He had told different parties that he would not be taken to the penitentiary. He procured possession of a file and dug his way through the brick wall under the northeast window of the jail. This was done in the day time, and whenever the jailer came in he had it covered with paper so that it was not noticed. Woolley remained inside until it became dark and then he crawled out and made his escape. It is said that E. S. Glaze, a painter, saw him taking the road going north up toward Foster. Another rumor is that he took a horse and made his escape. The surrounding towns have been telephoned and it is probable that he will soon be caught.

YORK'S LIBRARY ABOUT DONE

YORK, Neb., Nov. 17.—(Special.)—In a very short time York's new city library will be dedicated with appropriate ceremonies and opened to the public. Unlike many cities, York's fine new library building was not built with Carnegie money. The York library building was the gift of the late Mrs. G. W. Woods, wife of one of York's early pioneer merchants (deceased), father of the Woods brothers of this city, who are among the leading business men of York. The York library building is a handsome brick and stone building with an abundant amount of good light and a most perfect arrangement of rooms. Located near High school and about the center of the city, The York library association have many thousand volumes, among them the best works of fiction, science, history, poetry and romance.

VERDICT FOR THE CITY

FREMONT, Neb., Nov. 17.—(Special.)—In the district court this afternoon Judge Grimson instructed the jury to bring in a verdict for the defendant in the case of Schmidt against the City of Fremont, which was an action to recover $2,000 for injuries alleged to have been sustained by plaintiff's minor son falling on a defective sidewalk and breaking his arm. The court held that as the plaintiff had not given the legal notice to the city within thirty days after the accident had occurred, he could not recover. The jury were discharged until December 15, when a number of other cases will be tried, among them the case of N. S. Short against Hammond Brothers for libel.

HANDLES RIFLE BY Muzzle

SILVER CREEK, Neb., Nov. 17.—(Special.)—Yesterday Clarence Beckwith, the 15-year-old son of Frank Beckwith, farmer living one mile west of town, undertook to shove a 32-caliber rifle into a wagon, holding the muzzle of the gun in his left hand. The usual result followed—the ball entering at the muzzle, his hand and coming out at the wrist. Unless blood poisoning, caused from pieces of his glove entering with the bullet, his hand will be saved.

Opening at York

YORK, Neb., Nov. 17.—(Special.)—There is room and need in York for a good architect and several good contractors. Many contemplating building fine homes are obliged to wait nearly a year or more owing to there not being a sufficient number of contractors here. Good carpenters, masons and painters will find plenty of employment, and York is one of the finest and best cities in the state to make their permanent home.

Fifteenth Victim of Accident

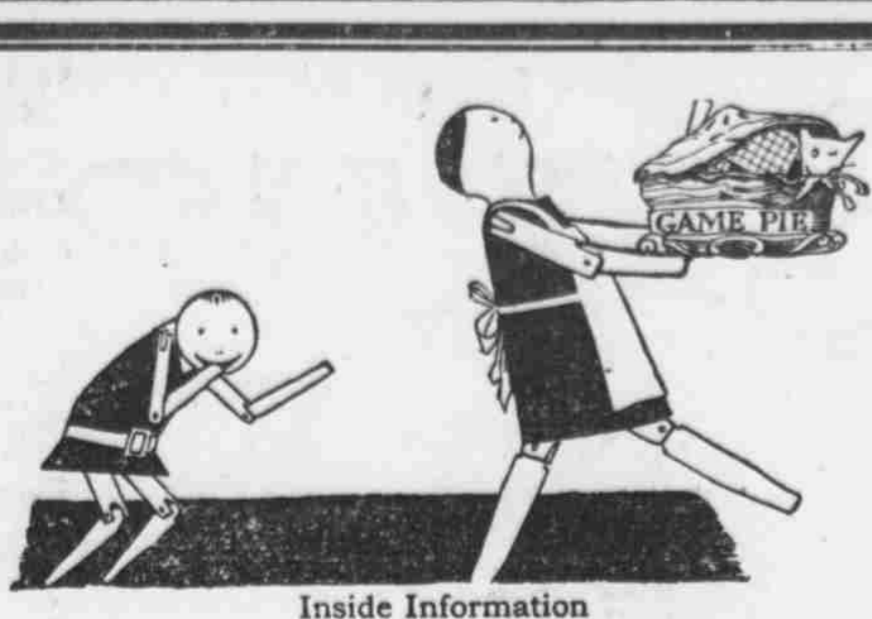

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Frank O'Connor, 17 years old, died today from injuries received at the fireworks explosion in Madison square, New York. He is the fifteenth person to die as a result of that explosion. He was a student at the city school, and his death is another sad chapter in the tragedy of that explosion. The death of James Fenton, colored, another victim of the explosion, is only a matter of a few days.

A Weak Stomach

Indigestion is often caused by overeating. A prominent authority says that the harm done thus exceeds that from the excessive use of alcohol. Eat all the good food you want but don't overload the stomach. A weak stomach may refuse to digest what you eat. Then you need a good digestant like Kodol, which digests your food without the stomach's aid. This rest and the wholesome tonics Kodol contains soon restore health. Dieting is unnecessary. Kodol quickly relieves the feeling of fullness and bloating from which some people suffer after meals. Absolutely cures indigestion.

COMPANY PAYS LICENSE

Out of Its Difficulty, but Agent Gets Into Deep Water by Breaking Into Office. SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Nov. 17.—(Special Telegram.)—The difficulty between the United States authorities and the local Commission house of Edwards, Wood & Co. was adjusted today by the payment by the company of the $50 license fee, which formed the bone of contention. The local representative of the company, B. F. Cummings, however, was arrested for breaking into the office of the company after it had been seized by W. I. Howland, deputy internal revenue collector. Cummings was taken before United States Commissioner Conway, and as the result of his preliminary examination was bound over in the sum of $500 for appearance before the next United States grand jury.

CHILDREN GO TO NEW YORK

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Nov. 17.—(Special Telegram.)—As the result of a meeting of the board of directors of the South Dakota Children's home today it was decided to surrender to Sisters Angelle and Anna, representing a Catholic founding asylum in New York City, the nineteen children who were a few days ago taken from a Catholic home at Sisseton and placed in the Children's home in this city. It was shown that the New York institution had been appointed legal guardian for the children and that they had simply been placed by it in the Sisseton institution.

WOMAN'S WORK IN CLUB AND CHARITY

An unusual number of guests and a large number of members were in attendance at yesterday afternoon's meeting of the Woman's club. There was very little business, the meeting being in a sense a continuation of the conference of the morning. All of the state federation officers and four of the district vice presidents were present and were called to the platform. Mrs. Page, federation president, was the only speaker. She said she had received her inspiration in club work at a meeting of the Omaha Woman's club four years ago. She maintained that a consistent club woman is necessarily a better mother, a better wife and a better church woman; that club work awakes mothers to their broader responsibility to their children, for by their study and investigation they are coming to realize how much has been denied many of them, which only makes them more determined that their children shall enjoy the privileges they missed. She called attention to the fact the club women's sons and daughters are being sent to college. She spoke of the prejudice that is frequently encountered in small towns because of a misunderstanding of the club movement and how that must be overcome by good results, urging that no woman has any place in any club if her home is neglected. A communication from Mr. H. D. Purkey, so widely known through his efforts for pure food, was read, expressing regret that he would be unable to accept the invitation recently extended to address the club. Miss Magree, city missionary, asked what the club intended doing regarding the reopening of the Girls' club in the First ward. She said a class of seventy-five girls there is waiting for the sewing and cooking classes to open, and asked that the support given by the club last year be continued. It was decided to refer the matter to a committee to be known as the philanthropic committee, which shall investigate the work and plan for its continuation if it seems advisable. Four new names were proposed for membership and five new members reported as having qualified since the last meeting. The afternoon's program was in charge of the department of political and social science, Mrs. Lobinger presiding. A solo by Miss Helen Hoagland opened the program. As the winter's work of the department includes a study of charitable, industrial and reformatory institutions, Mrs. E. G. McGilton presented a most interesting and instructive outline of the work of the National Consumers League. The label of the league, of enlarged size, was posted on the platform that all might become familiar with it. It bears the inscription, "National Consumers' League, Official Label Registered November 17, 1913. Made under clean and healthful conditions. Use of label authorized after investigation." Mrs. McGilton described the sweat shop system employed in the manufacture of much of the ready-made clothing and explained the object of the league and its efforts to abolish this system, and the manifold evils that result from it. The label is a guarantee that the four following conditions have been complied with: "First, that the manufacturer has complied with all the state factory laws; second, all goods are made upon the premises of the manufacturer; third, no children under 16 years of age are employed in the making of the articles; and fourth, that no overtime labor shall be required. She said there are at present three establishments in Omaha that carry goods bearing the label of the league and urged the women to help abolish the evils existing by asking for these goods. Mrs. A. N. Edwards read a paper on the charitable, industrial and reformatory institutions of Nebraska. Another solo by Miss Hoagland and a trio by Miss Hancock, Mr. Cook and Mr. Francis concluded the program. At the close of the club meeting an informal reception was held in the club parlors in honor of the visiting women. A tea table prettily trimmed with yellow chrysanthemums and yellow shaded candles was set in the east parlor where tea and wafers were served by members of the house and home committee. With few exceptions, all of the clubs of the Second district were represented at the dinner held yesterday morning in the Woman's club rooms. Among the successful clubs that were not represented were the North Omaha Woman's club and the Cleland club of South Omaha, both of which are clubs of colored women. At the close of the meeting the following resolution was adopted: The members of the Second district, here assembled, express satisfaction with the attitude and spirit of this meeting and believe that it will lead to further the best interests of the Federation. We thank our vice president, Mrs. H. D. Neely, for calling this meeting and assure her of our hearty co-operation and hearty invite her to visit our clubs and pledge her our assistance. Among the new clubs that have been organized is the Thursday Morning Music club, which is composed of women living in the north part of the city. Miss Cora Hoyer is the president and the club has about fifteen members. It was organized four months ago and meets every two weeks. The women have been studying American musicians, but have recently taken up the study of Wagner, his life and works. On account of Thanksgiving, the next meeting will be held on Friday morning, November 28, at the home of Mrs. Merrow, 2624 North Nineteenth avenue. The regular monthly meeting of the Visiting Nurses' association will be held at 4 o'clock on Thursday afternoon at the Paxton hotel. The donation party for the Old People's home will occur on Wednesday. Members of the Woman's Christian association will be at the home, at 2715 Burr street, today to receive visitors and their donations.
