which was on September 24. Although the attorneys worked for it from 2 o'clock to 5:15 Tuesday afternoon and began again before 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, it was nearly noon before a satisfactory jury was secured.

Who the Jurors Are.

The jury finally accepted is made from the drawing of some days ago and from the list of those drawn and served with forthwith summons Tuesday. The jurors are: J. A. Shear 1024 South Eleventh street, bookkeeper for Kingman & Co.; John Wasulewski, Thirty-sixth and U streets, South Omaha, saloon keeper; George E. Wescott, 311 North Twenty-fourth, liveryman; John Smith, 1103 North Twenty-third, street railway laborer; William Osborn 3834 Spalding, paper hanger; Ike Burk, 1113 FIVE FAVORITES WIN RACES Capitol avenue, hack driver; George Nice Thirty-ninth and D streets, South Omaha, stock yards employe; H. Lehman, 2514 Binney street, teamster; Daniel Kline, 1215 Chicago street, second-hand dealer; John Turnbull, 1019 North Eight-

The quiz of every juror was rigorous and many were challenged, but the attorneys now declare themselves well sat-

The theory of the defense, as given by A. S. Ritchie, counsel, is that John Spellman's blow on Earl Caldwell's head was not the one that produced the latter's death, but that a second blow was struck by some other party and that the fatal wound was inflicted with some semi-hard substance, whereas Spellman, it is to be shown, had only his fist. There will be denial that he kicked Caldwell after the latter was prostrate. Counsel implied that much attention is to be given the testimony of Dr. Lavender, who conducted the autopsy, as to the real cause of Caldwell's death.

The jury was conducted to Twelfth and Cass streets yesterday afternoon to inspect | Weber the place where the row occurred and its surroundings.

The testimony of Raymond Chadwick, a striker who was in the crowd that surrounded Caldwell, and of Mordecal Ball, who was with Caldwell when he was attacked and injured, was the only evidence submitted yesterday and it contained no feature new or materially different from the details as published at the time of the fracas and again during the coroner's infracas and again during the coroner's investigation.

For some time past the Board of Health, as well as other city officials, has been having trouble about gaining a free road to the river.
