Jackson of Industry, Pa., arrived yesterday to attend the funeral. The commissioners for the insane yesterday decided that Mark Holder was a fit subject for the insane asylum. This is a question as to the man's legal residence. He has been placed temporarily in St. Bernard's hospital until the State Board of Control passes on the case. Holder has made his home in Seattle, Wash., for a number of years and the board is of the opinion that it is his legal residence. Mrs. Mary F. Hart, wife of Augustus Hart, 615 South Eighth street, died yesterday morning at the Women's Christian association hospital from nervous prostration. Besides her husband she is survived by one daughter, Miss Lillian Hart, a teacher in the city schools, and one son, Holland A. Hart, who is a student here. Burial will be at 2 o'clock from the residence and burial will be in Walnut Hill cemetery. The service will be conducted by Rev. James Thomson of the First Congregational church. James Laxter, whose home is in Jefferson county, Kansas, and who has been husking corn at Avoca, was in the city last night bemoaning the loss of $100, the savings of his summer wages. He had flashed his roll in a number of saloons on South Main street with the result that some of the light fingered gentry succeeded in getting it away from him. He cried like a child when he discovered his loss and would not be consoled. He said he had been compelled to quit work because he was sick and now that he had been robbed of all his savings life had no further charms for him. Davis sells paint. Operetta Draws Big Audience. The juvenile operetta, "Dame Fire Fly," given last night at the New theater under the auspices of the Women's guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church, attracted an audience which completely filled the house. The operetta was neatly staged and contained the young people scored an unqualified success. The adult parts were taken by Mrs. Nellie Haworth Reed, Miss Nona Forsyth, Miss May Caldwell and Clyde Atkinson. Among the young folk the more important roles were filled by Darrell Bradley, Bob Bender, Harry Kersey, Horace Greer, Henry Jennings, Nellie Gross, Almeda Walk, Ada Fuller, Hazel Hannan and Cora Buckman. Besides the above there were nearly 100 little girls and boys dancing, leaping, cupids, fairies and imps who equally contributed their share to the success of the performance. There will be a matinee performance of the operetta this afternoon. "Let the GOLD DUST do your work."

PROTEST ON A PEST HOUSE

Residents in Vicinity of Lidgett Property Object to Use for that Purpose.

HURTS VALUE OF SURROUNDING PROPERTY

Officials Think Objection Should Have Been Filed Before City Had Purchased Instead of Nov.

The Board of Health, having completed the purchase of the Lidgett property on Oak street and Washington avenue for a female isolation hospital, residents in that section of the city are now up in arms and are making vigorous objections to having a pest house located there. It has been intimated that an attempt to burn down the place might be made and the health authorities have been compelled to place a special officer to guard the property. Residents and property owners in that section of the city have gotten up a petition which is now being circulated, asking the city to refrain from using the Lidgett property as a pest house or isolation hospital. The petitioners contend that the placing of such patients there would endanger the health of the residents in that neighborhood and it is also urged that the location of the pest house there would not only impair the value of the surrounding property, but make it practically worthless.

It has been pointed out to the health board that the persons now circulating this petition will in the event of the city ignoring it, take the matter into the courts and seek to enjoin the city from using the property for the purpose for which it was purchased. Charles Glaser, a former member of the police force and owner of property on East Washington avenue, is particularly active in circulating the petition, which has been signed, among others by ex-Alderman Lewis Hammer, who owns property in the neighborhood. Members of the health board are surprised at the objections being raised now that the property has been purchased and the money paid over to Mr. Lidgett by the county auditor, as the persons now objecting made no protest during the time that the board had the question of the purchase of this property under consideration. Mayor Morgan yesterday gave it as his opinion that the property secured by the city was an ideal place for an isolation hospital, as the premises stand alone in a hollow, without a building within a block of them. It is understood that the petition of the protesting residents and property owners will be presented at the meeting of the city council Monday night, but that the aldermen will decline to take any action on it.

CAN'T AGREE ON EXPRESSMEN

City Council Has a Hard Time of it Providing a Place for Them to Stand.

The city authorities have as yet failed to arrive at any solution of the vexed question of providing the expressmen a location for standing their wagons and teams but Mayor Morgan stated yesterday that he had hopes the matter would be settled at the meeting of the city council Monday night. The present ordinance governing the expressmen is said to be defective and Mayor Morgan is in favor of a new one being drafted. Conditions of which complaint was made by the owners and occupants of the property at the corner of Main street and Broadway have been improved somewhat since the last meeting of the city council. Chief of Police Tibbitts has given the matter his personal attention and many undue strings at that corner have been given to understand that they must seek another location. The fish wagons, of which complaint was also made, have been made to move elsewhere but pending the action of the city council, no effort has been made to remove the express wagons. While Mayor Morgan is hopeful that a solution of this question will be reached at the meeting of the city council Monday night, several of the aldermen are not so sanguine. The question of providing a location for the expressmen is one of long standing and there does not seem to be any available place today more than when the question first arose several years ago. It has been suggested that part of the expressmen stand at the market back of the city hall and part at the hay market at the junction of Pearl and Main streets, but this is said to be not agreeable to the expressmen who want standing room on the streets.

Dr. Leland Lectures.

The audience which greeted Dr. Samuel Phelps Leland at the high school last night was not what the interesting lecture given under the auspices of the local chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution deserved. Unfortunately the lecture happened on the same evening as the children's operetta at the New theater and this counter attraction undoubtedly had an effect on the attendance at the high school. Dr. Leland's subject was "The Land of Shinarump." The proceeds of the lecture will be devoted to the historical reference library which the Daughters of the American Revolution are endeavoring to provide for the high school. Plumbing and heating, Dixby & Son. Davis sells glass. Frazier a Faithful Correspondent. The petition of Miss Leona Mackinson of Quincy, Ill., in her $10,000 breach of promise suit against Dr. J. W. Frazier of Honey Creek, Ia., was filed in the district court. It is very brief and does not go into particulars beyond the allegation that the defendant entered into a contract of marriage with the plaintiff on or about Janu-

1, 1918, and which he failed to fulfill. The attorneys for Miss Mackinson have in their possession and which will be offered as evidence in the event of the case coming to trial, 128 letters written by Dr. Frazier to the plaintiff.

Canceled Date with Doane.

Manager Rutherford of the Dodge Light Guards' football team yesterday cancelled the game with Doane college for Thanksgiving, as owing to Doane's recent defeats the soldiers did not believe the Nebraska collegians were up to their standard. Manager Rutherford has secured in the place of the game with Doane college one with the Iowa State Normal college at Cedar Falls, which will be played on Thanksgiving afternoon at Lake Manawa. The normal college team is said to be one of the strongest in the state.

Scientist Church Incorporates.

Articles of incorporation of the Second Church of Christ Scientist, were filed in the office of the county recorder yesterday. The officers are: Directors, Mrs. Mabel W. Hynes, Mrs. Julia Munger, Mrs. Nettie L. Woodring; trustees, L. R. Hynes, Earl Beardsley, C. K. Hesse; clerk, Mrs. Eleanor M. Brooke; treasurer, A. P. Bell. The church will for the present hold its services in Hughes' hall, corner Broadway and Park avenue.

Sustains Objection to Venue.

Judge Green yesterday sustained the objections of Attorney Sims to the three special venire drawn to fill out the trial jury panel of the district court for this term. He held that the venires had not been drawn in the manner prescribed by law and ordered the jury men so drawn discharged and a new venire of fifteen jurors drawn.

KEEP UP THE CHASE FOR CORNS

Special Effort Being Made to Run Down Slayer of Sheriff Strain.

ONAWA, Ia., Nov. 21.—(Special Telegram)—W. Richards, deputy United States marshal of the southern district of Iowa, was in Onawa today to gather something of the history of the case of the murderer of W. E. Strain, late sheriff of Monona county. Mr. Richards has been selected by the State Sheriff association to capture Ed Coran if possible and propose to spare no efforts in that direction. The State association has taken up the matter in earnest, each sheriff has been assessed $5, which will be used for expenses in trying to round up the murderer. The state and county also offer a reward of $700 for the arrest of Coran and it is believed his capture is only a question of time.

Chase Buys Back Old Paper.

ATLANTIC, Ia., Nov. 21.—(Special Telegram)—A deal was consummated yesterday by which Charles F. Chase, the former proprietor of the Case County Democrat in this city, again assumes the property. Mr. Chase was for a number of years the editor of the paper, but for several years has lived away from here, engaged in newspaper business at Denver and later at Hamilton, N. D. The consideration was $7,000. Mr. Chase will take possession on the first of the year. A Gardner & Son are the present owners.

Charged with Embezzlement.

AMES, Ia., Nov. 21.—(Special Telegram)—F. L. Meredith, insurance agent and collector of Ames, was arrested today charged with embezzlement. The charge is preferred by the Heydinger Map company, which recently published the Story county, Ia., atlas. Meredith had the collections of the Ames claims for them and is alleged to be short on final settlement.

A Timely Suggestion.

"Now that winter with its bad weather is with us, I would advise every family to provide themselves against sudden attacks of coughs and colds by keeping at hand a good cough medicine like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which is the best among the many preparations for these ailments that I have on my shelves," says Mr. L. C. Neaville, the well known and popular druggist of Pittsburg, Ind. "I recommend this remedy and guarantee it to be without an equal for coughs and colds, also as a preventive and cure for croup." Buy it now.

Rural Phones for Grace.

WYMORE, Neb., Nov. 21.—(Special)—W. C. Francis and C. W. McNeil of Kansas City, and Charles Blakely of Beatrice, were in the city this week looking over the town with a view of securing a franchise for an independent telephone company. They propose to organize and place a share of the stock in the hands of local capitalists and the purpose will be to connect all of the towns and farms in Gage county.

Farmer Attacked by Hogs.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Nov. 21.—(Special)—While feeding hogs, Robert Spencer, a young farmer residing near the city, was attacked by a vicious hound. He was knocked down and severely injured before a younger brother came to his rescue, and with a club drove the animal away. While he was severely bruised and gored by the tusks of the animal, Spencer's injuries are not dangerous.

LEVICH'S FATE WITH JURY. Lawyers Get Decidedly Personal in Making Their Arguments. STATE APPEALS BONAPARTE DAM CASE. Killed by the Cars. Mrs. George White, colored, was run over by a Rock Island freight train this morning and one leg was cut off. Mrs. White died soon after she was taken to her home. She was picking up coal along the Burlington tracks, and failed to see the approach of a freight car that was being backed toward her by a switch engine.

Bonaparte Dam Case Appealed. An appeal has been taken by the attorney general of Iowa in the case of the award of damages for the proposed construction of a fishway over the dam in the Des Moines river at Bonaparte. The sheriff's jury awarded $40,000 damages for the state to pay. It was proposed to merely build a fishway without interfering in the slightest degree with the dam, which had been offered to the state a few years ago for $25,000. The award was so large that an appeal has been taken to the district court and a change of venue will be asked that it may be determined in some other county than the one in which the dam is located. Unless a reasonable award can be secured there will be no fishway constructed.

Quarantine Case Appealed. An appeal to the supreme court has been taken in the case of Dr. S. C. Kirby of Grand Junction, who was convicted in Greene county of violating a quarantine order against him. He insisted he did not have the smallpox and made trouble for the local Board of Health. Dr. Adams of the State Board of Health pronounced his case smallpox and the local board ordered the quarantine, which it is alleged he violated. The supreme court will be given a chance to pass on it. Endorse Lightning Rods. The Iowa Mutual Insurance association yesterday elected the following officers for the ensuing year: J. E. Brooks of Greenfield, president; Swan Nelson of Manson, vice president; J. A. Swallow of Shenandoah, secretary and treasurer. The association unanimously adopted resolutions endorsing lightning rods, and making those buildings which are equipped with rods preferred risks. Preserve the Button Crop. The most extensive factories for the making of pearl buttons in the country are at Muscatine and the mussel shells used in the manufacture are gathered all along the Mississippi and its tributaries. Some alarm has been occasioned recently by the fact that a member of the Arkansas legislature has proposed a bill to prevent shipment of the shells from the rivers of that state to Iowa to be made into buttons, but it is learned now that all that is proposed in Arkansas is a law for a closed season, so that the mussel may not be entirely cleared out of the rivers of that state. There is also some talk of an effort to get congress to legislate along this line for the Mississippi river, and thus preserve the mussel beds and the button industry. Homestead and Bankruptcy. The matter of the bankruptcy of A. O.
