

MARRIED AT 104

Mr. Townsend Miller of Jamaica, L. I., who has just celebrated his 104th birthday and married his third wife, says he is as vigorous and strong as when twenty-five years of age, thanks to Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

TOWNSEND MILLER, PAST 104 YEARS. On May 23, 1902, Mr. Miller wrote: "I am today as strong and healthy as I was 20 years ago, and still able to do a good day's work. I attribute my health, vigor and great age to the constant use of a little Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey daily for diseases and prolonged my life 25 years. Duffy's is the greatest medicine in the world and a Godsend to old people, and I will never be without it. Your truly, Thousands of such letters are received from old men and old women who are nearing the century mark."

LOSS RUNS INTO THOUSANDS

Iowa Holdup Men Get Probably Twenty Thousand Dollars.

TWO SUSPECTS ARE HELD IN DES MOINES

Police, Dogs and Citizens Seize Country in Search of Robbers, Who Are Believed to Have Buried Plunder.

DES MOINES, Nov. 22.—It is now said that the loss in the Davenport holdup on the Rock Island approximately $20,000. Davenport officers of the company, however, assert there was but $500 in the safe when it was dynamited.

Unidentified parties supposed to be the train robbers stole a team and wagon from William Rohrer, whose farm was reached by a mile tramp through heavy timber. They drove northwest and near daylight passed a farm house four miles from the scene of the robbery. The farmer's description tallies with that of the trainmen. The trail is being followed hard and hope is strong that the men will be caught.

The police here have arrested Richard F. Ridley and Luther D. Hayward on suspicion. Posses of policemen and citizens scoured the woods in the vicinity of the crime this morning in the search for the highwaymen. They are believed to have taken the plunder to some island in the Mississippi river, where they buried it, afterward crossing to the Illinois shore and there hiding in the dense woods.

The bandits boarded the train at the busch works, west of the city, as passengers. They soon made their purpose known and after capturing the engine crew detached the engine and express car and ran them to Rockingham, where they loaded the safe and left the train.

At the local railroad office today it is stated the loss must have amounted to $10,000, or possibly $20,000, as the train carried a large sum of money and jewelry for Omaha and Denver.

Official Statement

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—General Manager C. B. Goodenow of the Rock Island road gave out the following official statement of the Davenport holdup:

"The police at Davenport and Rock Island were promptly notified and were quickly on the ground. The supposition is that the robbers left the road and went to the north, cutting through a corn field. The sheriff at Rock Island, with bloodhounds, was promptly on the scene, and every effort is being made to trace the robbers. The office of the United States Express company it is said the loss to the company will not exceed $1,000, and consists of four packages valued at $50 each, a $50 package originating at Rock Island, one package the value of which cannot be accurately ascertained and an amount of Rock Island railway tickets."

DAVENPORT, Nov. 22.—T. W. Hoffmeyer arrived here this afternoon from Knoxville, Ia., with a pack of bloodhounds reported to be noted thief catchers. They immediately went to the scene of the holdup and were put on the trail of the robbers. The police at Muscatine think they had one of the gang in jail there a couple of weeks ago. Other parties report having seen them in the neighborhood of the scene of the robbery during the last day or two.

The officers reported tonight that they had succeeded in picking up a trail and were following the supposed tracks of the robbers. The hounds took a scent now being followed near the scene of robbery. They went to a farm from where the wagon was stolen and then traced the rig to Jamtown. They were then hauled to Blue Grass, where they again took the scent and were working north at last reports.

FOR DEFACING SMOKESTACK

Two High School Boys Are Suspended for Period of Thirty Days.

Two pupils of the High school, of the class of 1903, have been suspended for thirty days, it having been shown that they were responsible for the painting of the top of the new smokestack at the High school in colors of their class.

After the paint had been applied by the pupils and removed by the contractor a member of the city detective force was detailed by the chief of police and brought the matter home to Ernest Kelly and a son of G. G. Wallace. The boys admitted their guilt and in the absence of Principal Waterhouse Superintendent Pearce suspended them from school for a period of thirty days.

The boys and their parents are very much perturbed by the action of the superintendent, as they fear that the suspension will make it impossible for the pupils to graduate next summer with their class. Members of the school board have been appealed to and at least one has promised to take the matter up at the meeting of the board Monday evening. He said: "It looks to me that the punishment is too severe for the offense. It is true that the paint should not have been applied and that the pupils should have been punished. They are both officers in the cadet battalion and punishment severe enough would have been administered if they had been reduced in office. I will try to bring the matter up and have the punishment modified so that it will not interfere with the graduation of the pupils."

REV. LUTHER KUHN RETURNS

Pastor of Grace Lutheran Church Brings Glowing Account of Luther League Meeting in Pittsburg.

Rev. Luther M. Kuhns, pastor of Grace Lutheran church, has returned home after a two weeks' visit in the east, during which time he attended the convention of the Luther League of Western Pennsylvania at Pittsburg and delivered a series of lectures at the convention and in Philadelphia.

Rev. Kuhns' visit east was in response to an invitation to deliver an address at the convention of the Luther League. He came back enthused over the league, and the work its members are accomplishing, and its rapidly increasing membership.

"The league was organized in New York in 1888," he said, "and the national league was founded in 1895. The latter is now composed of 1,800 local organizations, representing a membership of 75,000 young people. It is a distinctly Lutheran organization and covers all branches of the church. Its conventions are held biennially and this one was the greatest I have ever attended. The membership of the league is growing rapidly and its financial condition is good. I was royally entertained and greatly enjoyed my visit."

Rev. Kuhns was a member of the convention which formed the national organization and was instrumental in having the name "Luther League" adopted for all the local organizations. During the discussion in the convention over the selection of a name for the organization, Rev. Kuhns made a speech in favor of Luther league. A vote was taken and the name carried. To show their appreciation of his efforts in its behalf, the delegations from New York and Pennsylvania that had advocated the selection of the name finally chosen, presented Rev. Kuhns with a gold medal upon which was the Luther coat-of-arms. Since the organization of the national league Rev. Kuhns has been actively identified with the work of the league and is now a member of the national executive committee.

Rev. Kuhns was greatly impressed with the growth and prosperity of Pittsburg, at which place he attended school many years ago. "I believe it soon will be second to New York and Chicago in the financial world," he said. "Its growth since I was there has been phenomenal. The amount of freight being shipped out is wonderful, and according to the people of that city, it is due to 'republican prosperity.' For thirty miles east of Pittsburg the houses are so thick that it appears a solid town."

Alaskan Says It Never Gets Colder Than that at Town of Valdez.

E. C. Van Brundt of Valdez, Alaska, was at the Millard hotel yesterday en route to New York on a business trip.

Mr. Van Brundt has been in the country for two years. He is one of the few who struck it rich there, and although he could return to this country and live the rest of his days in a brown stone front in New York City and support a summer mansion at Newport, he now calls Valdez his home and will return as soon as his business affairs will permit. "It is the greatest country on earth," said Mr. Van Brundt. "I would rather be broke in Valdez than to have a good position in the states. I worked fifteen years as a clerk in an office in my old home town of Champaign, Ill., so I speak from experience. I went to Alaska simply as a soldier of fortune, with the idea of opening a business venture on the coast. When I reached there, however, I saw that there were not the opportunities in that line I had expected and following the lead of others I took a dog sled and pushed on into the mining country.

"I do not wish to be understood as advising young men to go to Alaska. There are many hardships and a great deal more money expended in the country than ever comes out. It is only the few who strike it rich, of course, and others might not like the country as I do. But I have seen many men go out there cursing the country and the next year come back to make it their home.

"Valdez, I am confident, will soon be the metropolis of Alaska. There are about 1,000 people there now and by March I look for it to be increased to 5,000. It is the center of the new section of the country. Nome and Dawson are pretty well played out. Valdez can boast of climate and scenery along with the best in the world. The thermometer last summer reached 100 above and in the winter never goes lower than 75 below. These are both exceptions. The average temperature is very mild. For sportsmen it is one of the greatest of countries and a large number of hunting parties come there from New York every year in search of moose, caribou, mountain sheep and bear."

Woman's Work in Club and Charity

Out of a bit of unfortunate management a misunderstanding has arisen among some of the members of the Omaha Woman's club that has led to one of the most unpleasant incidents in the history of that organization, for it has not only occasioned hard feelings among some of the members, but promises to result in embarrassment to at least a score of women who were guests of the club on last Monday, about a dozen of them being from out in the state. It had been arranged that a conference of the clubs, federated and unfederated, of the Second district be called to meet in Omaha on Monday morning, the call having been issued by Mrs. H. D. Neely, district vice president, for the purpose of stimulating and strengthening the work of the Nebraska Federation in this district. The Omaha Woman's club offered the use of its rooms for the meeting and as its regular open meeting was to be held in the afternoon, it was decided to invite the visiting women to be guests at this afternoon's session and to give an informal tea drinking and reception at its close, that all the club women might have the advantage of meeting the women from out of town. Later Mrs. Neely and those associated with her in arranging for the district federation meeting decided to extend their invitations to the vice presidents of the other five districts, to the officers of the Nebraska federation and some others. The time was limited and that all might be compassed as quickly and easily as possible, it was suggested by one of the women interested in the invitation that the invitations for both the district meeting and the Woman's club meeting be sent out together. This was presented to the executive committee of the club and allowed and the state officers, the district vice presidents and presidents of clubs received invitations written on the Woman's club stationery. The invitation included the call to the district meeting on Monday morning and said that entertainment would be furnished at noon, further inviting the women to attend the afternoon open club meeting and the reception following, also the Harbour lectures given that evening under its auspices. The invitations were signed by the corresponding secretary of the Omaha Woman's club.

Mrs. S. G. Strickland, vice president, Mrs. Kirkland, secretary, Mrs. L. A. Welch, treasurer, Mrs. Will Redick.

The women of Trinity cathedral have arranged a costume entertainment for Wednesday, December 10, when luncheon will be served and a Christmas sale held.

The Women's society of First Methodist church will hold a bazaar in the church parlors on Friday evening, December 5, for the benefit of the fund they annually raise for the church.

There was a large attendance at Thursday afternoon's meeting of the law department of the Woman's club, Mr. Harrison C. Brome addressing the women on "Insurance."

The meeting of the political and social science department will meet at 3:30 o'clock on Monday afternoon, instead of at its regular hour. The time will be given over to reports of national meetings in the interest of charities and correction that have been held during the summer. County Commissioner Connolly will report the meeting of the National Conference of Charities and Corrections held in Detroit and Sheriff Power will tell of the National Prison conference held recently in Philadelphia. A general invitation has been extended to those interested in this work and its advancement in Omaha.

There will be a meeting at 2 o'clock on Monday afternoon at the First Baptist church in the interest of home missions. Miss Burdette of Chicago of the Board of Women's Home Missions of the West will be the speaker of the afternoon. The public is invited. The women of the church will hold a sale in the church parlors all day on Tuesday for the benefit of the aid committee.

The next meeting of the Home Queen's Circle will be held at 2:30 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon at Mount St. Mary's, Fifteenth and Castellar streets. HENNINGS' VAN MOVES AGAIN

City Treasurer Seizes Dynamite from an Eleventh Street Printing Shop. After a long period of inactivity City Treasurer Hennings' furniture van has again been called into requisition in the enforcement of personal property taxes. Yesterday afternoon soon after 1 o'clock the van called at the printing establishment of J. Fleming on South Eleventh street, between Douglas and Dodge, and the employees of the city treasurer seized upon the dynamite and other machinery in the shop to satisfy personal property taxes amounting to $85 which have for some time past been delinquent. Mr. Hennings leveled on this property several days ago, having at that time been informed that the owner had removed some of his possession to another city, but as an adjustment of the matter appeared likely the machinery was not removed until today.
