NEWS OF INTEREST FROM IOWA.

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Davis setls drugs. Stockert sells carpets and rugs. Elegant new Xmas photos at Schmidt's. Expert watch repairing, Leffert, 49 B'way rent, modern 6-room residence, 719

Try Cole's Hot Biast stove. No gas, no dirt, no smoke. Picture framing, C. E. Alexander & Co., 233 Broadway, Tel. 365. Three quart inc saucepan tomorrow only 10c. A. A. Howe's, 319 Bronaway.

For Sale-My best violin for $55. Add: so or call at 502 Bronaway. A. Glen.

For rent, nicely furnished front room, reasonable price. anguire 366 North First street. Miss Arkwright's china sale, Saturday, November 2, to December 6, 634 Mynster street.

From zero to 75 degrees in three min-utes is the record of Cole's Hot Blast. Try one. Save one-third of your fuel bill this year by using Cole's Hot Blast. It burns all of the gas.

Adrian Browder of Harrison street is convalencent from a severe attack of ty-phold fever.

Wanted, at once, carrier with horse for route on The Bee. Apply at the office, No. 10 Pearl street. We are headquarters for glass of all kinds. See us before you buy, C. B. Paint, Oll and Glass Co.

Thanksgiving services will be held Thursday merning at 10:30 o'clock in St. Paul's Episcopal church.

Paul's Episcopal church.
Judge Green of the district court left last evening for his home in Sidney, where he will remain until Friday.
Congressman Walter I. Smith will adGress the Epworth league of Broadway Methodist church Tuesday evening at the church.

Emmet L. Hawkins of 1922 Fourth avenue suffered a dislocation of his right arm white practicing on a horizontal ber Friday evening. Good lot on North Eighth street, one block from school. Clear and up to grade. A bargain if taken soon. Inquire at 26 Fourth street, Grand ball given by the Foresters of Hazel camp 171, Modern Woodmen of America, at R. A. hall Wednesday even-ing, Nov. 26 Come. The entertainment committee of Bluffs company No. 27 will give the first of a series of winter dances Wednesday, November 26, at Hughes' hall.

vember 28, at Hughes' hall.

The case against Chester Egbert, charged with attempting to rob a tarmer in a Broadway satoon, was dismissed in Justice Bryant's court yesterday.

E. J. Sayles has been arrested, charged with the theft of a quantity of clothing left hanging on a line in the yard of Mrs. Artic Hulbert at Seventeenth street and Avenue C.

The Citizens' Gas and Flattle.

and Avenue C.

The Citizens' Gas and Electric company yesterday took out a permit for the erection of a frame building in the aliey between Fearl and Sixth street south of Broadway, to cost $1,800.

Having refurnished my gallery up-to-date I offer this month $3 photos for $1.50 and $4 photos for $2.50 per dozen. Have your Christmas photos taken now. Stigleman. $3 and $6 South Main street, upstairs.

Shoriff Cousins left last evening for Shoriff Cousins left last evening for Chadron, Neb., to bring back John Mc-Kenzie, charted with betraying Miss May Price under promise of marriage. Mc-Kenzie is a resident of Macedonia, this county, and will have his trial in Avoca. The police have been advised that the two Indian lads picked up Friday night are runaways from the Haskell institute at Lawrence, Kan. The superintendent of the school will come for them. The officer who picked up the lads will receive $5 reward.

John Lynch, who was ordered discharged from St. Barnard's nospital a few dayr ago by the commissioners for the insane, was returned there yesterday morning by the police. He was found wandering about the streets in a badly demented condition.

The winter term of the Western lowa Business college begins a week from tomorrow. Never in the history of the college has the attendance been so large us at present. It is very gratifying to the management and friends of the college to know that the institution is so prosperous. Those contemplating attending school this winter should arrange to enter either the day or evening session December 1.

Bibles Now Ready. Those who are entitled to the Bible, given as a premium by The Bee, can get same by calling at the Council Bluffs office. Kindly call as soon as possible. N. Y. Plumbing Co., telephone 256.

Davis sells paint.

Real Estate Transfers.

These transfers were filed yesterday in the abstract, title and loan office of J. W. Squire, 101 Pearl street: 1,000

M. F. Flammant, w½, se¼, 34-74-45, deed
Scottish-American Investment Co., limited, to John Ewing, lot 6, block 6, Potter & Cobb's add., w. d...
John J. Spindler and wife to Fremont Benjamin, lots 9 and 19, block 67, Raifroad add., and lots 24 and 25, block 12, Wright's add, s. w. d..

Total number of transfers, five $4,621 Bibles Now Ready. Those who are entitled to the Bible, given as a premium by The Bee, can get same by calling at the Council Bluffs office. Kindly call as soon as possible.

Marriage Licenses.

Licenses to wed were issued yesterday to the following: the following:
Name and Residence.
Ernest P. Karr, Kansas City....
Grace M. Mason, Council Bluffs
Earl Nelson, Omaha
Lillie Pearl Miller, Omaha C. F. Welbourn, Neola, la... Edith Shreves, Council Bluffs

> LEWIS CUTLER MORTICIAN.

NESTOR OF BAR ASSOCIATION

Chancellor L. W. Ross Expires Suddenly from Attack of Apoplexy.

HAS HAD LONG AND ILLUSTRIOUS CAREER

Practically the Founder of Law School of the State University and for Four Years Its Chancellor.

Chancellor Lewis W. Ross, senior memper of the Pottawattamie county bar and one of the pioneer lawmakers of Iowa, died suddenly at an early hour yesterday morning at his home on Willow avenue. Although of advanced age, Mr. Ross had been in his usual good nealth Friday, when was at his office as usual, and his sudden demise is attributed to a stroke of apoplexy.

Friday evening Mr. Ross complained of a pain in the region of his heart and retired somewhat earlier than usual. About 5:30 o'clock yesterday morning he awoke at the Edgewood church. and aroused his wife, saying he was suffering from considerable pain. Mrs. Ross at once assisted him to a more comfortable position in the bed, but in a few minutes be became unconscious and by the time soft coal and wood heating stoves, and a medical assistance could be summoned he expired.

Chancellor Ross was born October 16. seventy-fifth year. He was married in Lebanon, O., in 1855 to Zee M. Brown, and she with their five children, Charles, Hester, Edith, Anna and Dillon, survive bim tied and there will be plenty of hard coal for all. We have the best base burner in the celebrated Radiant Home that was ever ber 2, with Mrs. Will Butler.

Miss Cora Harle entertained the members of the Euchre club Tuesday afternoon. The club will meet Tuesday afternoon, December 1, which is a second of the Euchre club Tuesday afternoon. The club will meet Tuesday afternoon, December 1, which is a second of the Euchre club Tuesday afternoon. The club will meet Tuesday afternoon, December 1, which is a second of the Euchre club Tuesday afternoon. The club will meet Tuesday afternoon and the celebrated Radiant Home that was ever ber 2, with Mrs. Will Butler. she with their five children, Charles, Hester, Edith, Anna and Dillon, survive him. He came to Iowa in 1856 and moved to sever been made. We have sold hundreds the came to Iowa in 1856 and moved to sever been made were gives satisfaction. Council Bluffs in 1861, where he since had of them and every stove gives satisfaction.

cellor.

Founder of Law School.

It was mainly through his efforts that the law and medical departments of the State university were established. His connection with the university lasted for seven years, after which he devoted himself to the practice of law in this city, his son, a handmade oil painting with mat and Dillon, being associated with him under frame complete for 17 cents. Size of paintthe firm name of Ross & Ross. The firm acted as local attorneys and agents for a majority of the great mining companies in Colorado which are incorporated under the laws of Iowa, among the number being the Portland Gold Mining company of Colorado Springs. He was, during his connection with the State university, the author of a number of legal works which were designed more for assistance in his work as professor of law in that institution than

No arrangements for the funeral will be made until the arrival of his son, Charles,

A meeting of the Pottawattamie County Bar association was held yesterday afternoon at the call of President Burle to take action on the death of its senior member, Chancellor Lewis W. Ross. These committees were appointed: A. rangements, W. S. Baird, J. P. Organ, G. S. Wright; resolutions, J. N. Baldwin, A. T. Flickinger, J. J. Stewart; flowers, W. H. Ware, A. S. Hazelpall bearers and the making of all arrange- | sertion. ments for the funeral was left to the committee on arrangements, as the association will not meet again until after the whom she was married in Moline, Ill., Janfuneral, when the resolutions will be sub- uary 1, 1899, and from whom she separated mitted to the court with the request that they be inscribed upon the records, and at which time the association will take further action relative to the death of its revered and honored member

Plumbing and heating. Bixby & Son. Davis sells glass.

With the Churches.

The services at the Broadway Methodist church today will be as follows: 9:45 a. m., class meeting; 10:30 a. m., preaching service; 12 m., Sunday school; 6:30 p. m., Epworth league; 7:30 p. m., preaching service. At St. Paul's Episcopal church today hera will be holy communion at 8 a. m. and morning prayer and sermon by the rec-45 tor, Rev. George Edward Walk, at 10:30 o'clock.

First Congregational Church, Rev. Charles Thomson, Pastor-Public worship law & Gardiner, proprietors of the Boston and preaching at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The subject of the sermon in the morning will be "The Home of the Human Soul." The Bible school meets after the morning of the John V. Farwell company of Chicago service and the Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. In the evening the subject of discourse will be "The Song of the Shepherd," which will also be illustrated by stereopticon reproductions of famous pictures. The Second Church of Christ (Scientist) will hold services in Hughes' hall at 11 eromancy; or, Mesmerism and Hypnotism;" Sunday school at 12 m. After today this will be amicably settled and that the suit church will meet in Modern Woodmen of America hall in Merriam block. A Thanks- trustee will be dismissed. The Udeligiving service will be held at 3 p. m. Thursday; subject, "Giving Thanks." Rev. Harvey Hostetler will preach at the second Presbyterian church in the morning

First Thoughts

The first thoughts of Christmas Guards' foot ball team received yesterday presents are naturally of jewelry, and the magnificent display at this store makes the first thought state what team the game would be with, the best thought. We have graphed a reply, accepting the challenge. jewelry that is suitable in de- PAST WEEK IN BLUFFS SOCIETY sign, character, material and price for any and all the presents you Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Running Celebrate want to make. Our new fixtures are in place. We think they are the finest in the west, and would like to have you drop in and see them, and incidentally see the best line of jewelry ever displayed in Council Bluffs.

Herman M. Leffert,

409 Broadway, Conncil Bluffs. Phone L607.

'A Generous Falth."

the newly appointed pastor, Rev. J. W. Abel, will conduct his first services today. In the morning he will take as the subject of his sermon, "Immanuel," and in the evening, "The Unchangeable Christ."

At Grace Episcopal church E. J. Abbott, attended. the newly appointed pastor, Rev. J. W. At Grace Episcopal church E. J. Abbott, lay reader, will conduct morning prayer at in o'clock. Sunday school will be at 9:45 tained a number of friends at cards Wednesday evening.

preach on "The Holy Catholic Church," and in the evening on "The Wolf at the Elder James Caffall will preach today at avenue. The choir of the First Presbyterian church will render at this morning's service the anthem "I Was Glad," which was of King Edward of Great Britain. Rev. A. E. Simons, district missionary of the Southwestern Iowa Baptist association, will conduct services this afternoon

A Stove Famine.

Owing to the outlook of the great anthracite coal strike there was a big rush for famine in this line of stoves looked imminent. Prices on hard coal would seemingly be out of reach of those with moderate incomes. However, the great strike was set-Council Bluffs in 1861, where he since had made his home.

Lie served as state senator in the Tenth and Eleventh general assemblies, and from 1864 to 1872 served as trustee of the Iowa tation? You can depend upon our word tation? You can depend upon our word tation? You can depend upon our word tation? You buy a Radiant Home you will be more than pleased with your purchase cocupied the position of regent of the same institution. In 1880 he was made resident professor in the law department of the university and in 1881 was made its chanuniversity and in 1881 was made its chan- whether or not you buy of us, as we want you to see that what we tell you is not

With each $1 purchase in our stationery | to or book departments this week we will sell be ing, 6x9, extreme size of frame, 12x15. DeLong, The Printer, 307 Broadway.

Fresh Lemon Drops,

Angel food taffy, peanue candy, chocolate taffy, horehound, Yankee peanut and other delicious fresh home-made candies will be on sale all day Saturday at only 10 cents per pound. Brown's Candy Kitchen, 546 Broadway.

Gravel roofing. A. H. Reid. 541 Broadway. Matters in District Court.

of the Thanksgiving holidays.

The fury in the suit of W. J. Christainsen against Carl Herr for $5,000 damages for alleged false arrest in connection with a robbery at defendant's tailor shop brought in a verdict for Herr. A similar suit against Herr brought by A. B. Christiansen was continued until next term. Richard Bolte was granted a divorce ton, C. G. Saunders. The appointment of from Jennie Bolte on the grounds of de-

Mrs. Sarah B. Gould filed a petition for divorce from William Taylor Gould, to September 15, 1901.

In the suit of Charles Dobbins against the National Cash Register company, appealed from a justice court, the jury found for the plaintiff in the sum of $60.

Correct Visiting Cards. DeLong, The Printer, 307 Broadway. Catholic Bazar.

Beginning Monday, November 24, the Catholic bazar will open in the Jeffries block, 209 and 211 Main street, and continue the entire week. Beginning Tuesday, dinner will be served from 12 to 2 o'clock. Outside the dining hall the rest of the building will be devoted to booth and art work.

One Creditor Not Satisfied.

The Udell-Samson Woodenware company of St. Louis, one of the creditors of Whitestore, commenced an action in the district court yesterday to have set aside the trust deed to William H. Muse, representative and to enjoin Muse from disposing of the stock or making any payment to creditors until he has filed an inventory list of creditors and other statements as required by law. Judge Green made an order for the examination of the bankrupt firm's books agent. It is understood that the matter to set aside the appointment of Muse as Samson company is creditor for only $384.

Bibles Now Ready. Those who are entitled to the Bible, given as a premium by The Bee, can get same by calling at the Council Bluffs office. Kindly call as soon as possible. Guards to Play in Denver.

Manager Rutherford of the Dodge Light an invitation from the sporting editor of the Denver (Colo.) News to go to Denver for a game on December 5. The invitation, which came by telegraph, did not but Manager Rutherford at once tele-

Sixth Auniversary of Wedding.

Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Jennings entertained at dinner Monday evening. Mrs. H. Hall entertained a few friends at her home Friday afternoon. Miss Mary Evans of Hillsborough, O., is the guest of Mrs. J. H. Arthur. C. F. Lathrop will leave Tuesday for Idaho on a health-seeking trip. Miss Elizabeth Day of Chicago is the guest of Mrs. Thomas B. Metcalf. Dr. A. P. Hanchett is home from a nonth's trip through Old Mexico. Mr. and Mrs. Adamson of LeMars. Ia., the mystery. He has employed Marshal Burlington, one of the pioneer preachers of just before dark and had $200 in his circuit co who have been in the city, guests of the Harkness of Whiting to work on the case. Iowa and still in the pastorate, will be pocket. Since then he has not been seen. Grosscup.

on "As a Nation" and in the evening on family of J. B. Atkins, have returned to "A Generous Faith." At the Fifth Avenue Methodist church the Evening Whist club Thursday.

At the morning service at Trinity Methodist church the pastor, Dr. Buriff, will preach on "The Holy Catholic Church". Miss Phoebe Judson will entertain the members of the Kensington club Wednesday afternoon. Miss Margaret Clifford entertained cleven of her little schoolmates at a dinner party Tuesday evening.

a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school will be held at noon and the regular midweek prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Rev. S. Alexander will preach this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the church at the corner of Seventh street and Seventeenth corner of Seventh street and Seventeenth corner of the nices of the pleasant social affairs of last the Latter Day Saints' church at 10:30

One of the pleasant social affairs of last week was the smoker given by St. Al-ban's lodge, Knights of Pythias, Monday

Miss Caroline Test Rohrer will leave to-morrow for Creston, Ia., where she will be the guest of Miss Nora Landsberg over composed for and sung at the coronation Thanksgiving.

Mrs. C. W. McDonald will leave this evening for a visit with friends at Chicago. She will also visit friends at Milwaukee on her way home.

Mrs. Thomas D. Metcalf entertained at ards Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Cage of Mason City and Miss Elizabeth Day of Chicago. The members of the Woman's Whist club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Albright. The club will meet this week with Mrs. A. R. Brinsmaid.

Miss Edith McAtee of Denver, who has seen in the city, the guest of the family of her brother, S. T. McAtee, left Friday for New York City.

Mrs. B. O. Bruington.

The marriage of Miss Mae M. Robinson to William Henry Dorrance of Omaha will be solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Albert Robinson, 715 First avenue, Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. James Thompson of the First Congregational church will officiate. The initial party to be given at the new ball room of the Grand hotel Wednesday evening promises to be the social event of the season. The committee having the arrangements in charge is Messrs. M. F. Rohrer, R. H. Bloomer, Fred Empkie, Harry Haas, J. J. Hess and George S. Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Running celebrated their sixth wedding anniversary Monday evening at their home, 294 East Washington avenue. A large number of their friends responded to invitations and the evening was highly enjoyed in a guessing contest and progressive high-five. The host and hostess were recipients of a number of pretty souvenirs in honor of the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Metcaif of Blur. morning; by the police. He was found made until the arrival of his son, Charles, wandering about the streets in a badly demented condition.

Judgo Macy returned last evening to his home in Harlan. The attorneys were not prepared to submit their arguments in the motions for new trials in the case of the Monarch Manufacturing Company and in the Omeg contested will case, to hear which had brought him to this city yesterday.

The winter term of the Western lowa

The winter term of the Western lowa

The morning, by the police. He was found made until the arrival of his son, Charles, Judge Green yesterday adjourned district court to Friday morning, at which time the second trial of the $30,000 personal injury damage suit of C. Peterson against the Motor Company and in the other members of the second trial of the $30,000 personal injury damage suit of C. Peterson against the Motor Company and in the other members of the second trial of the $30,000 personal injury damage suit of C. Peterson against the Motor Company and in the other members of the second trial of the $30,000 personal injury damage suit of C. Peterson against the Motor Company and in the other members of the second trial of the $30,000 personal injury damage suit of C. Peterson against the motor company will be begun. This schools, while the son, Dillon Ross, is section that the arrival of his son, Charles, Mac and Mrs. Thomas B. Metcalf of Bluff Court to Friday morning. Ar. After the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Metcalf of Bluff Court to Friday and information the the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Metcalf of Bluff Court to Friday and information to the the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Metcalf of Bluff Court to Friday and information to the the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Metcalf of Bluff Court to Friday and information to the the occasion.

The maction of the Macting Arival Proving Information to the information of the witn

THROW SKUNK IN BALL ROOM Students at the Iowa State University Start Rough House and Fierce Battle Results.

IOWA CITY, Ia., Nov. 22.-The worst class fight in the history of the State unior fifty shots had been fired.

through the window and bombarded the with the situation, for the night watchman hotel with rotten eggs, breaking much in Valley Junction had gone off watch only plate glass and demolishing costly bric-a- about fifteen minutes when they made their brac. Freshmen retaliated and a sangul- raid. nary struggle commenced.

Policemen clubbed J. H. King and W. M. Kahler, two medical students, inflicting severe wounds. Other medical students assaulted and routed the policemen. Numerous revolver shots were fired and the struggle between the students grew worse. No shots are known to have taken effect and the injuries to the students, though numerous, consist of severe contusions. Dean Curran of the university has ordered an investigation.

HIGHWAYMAN ROBS A HOTEL

Compels Cook at Point of Revolver to Show Him Way to Cash Drawer.

DES MOINES, Nov. 22 .- A lone highwayan entered the St. Joseph hotel at Valley Junction at 4 o'clock this morning by the petitioning company, and this was and at the point of a revolver compelled a. m.; subject, "Ancient and Modern Ne- begun yesterday afternoon by its local the cook to lead him to the cash drawer, where he secured $232. No clue.

Strike in Gypaum Works,

FORT DODGE, Ia., Nov. 22 .- (Special Telegram.)-The plant of the United States Gypsum company, employing several hundred men, is shut down today on account of a walkout among employes. The difficulty among the miners is over the check system in use by the company. Demands will be formulated at a meeting to be held this evening. The United States Gypsum company is one of the largest industries in the city. It is composed of a merger of formerly independent plants.

Drunken Man Palls from Train. ONAWA, Ia., Nov. 22.-(Special Telegram.)-Northwestern trainmen this mornng reported a dead man lying near the track this side of Blencoe, Investigation showed that a man had fallen off the southbound train last night. He was taken to the Blencoe house and examined by Dr Wheeler, who reports the injuries not fatal Papers found on him show that his name is Mike Finley of St. Paul, Minn. He was seen here last night very drunk. His coliarbone was broken.

Gibson Family Disappears.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Nov. 22 .- (Special Telegram.)-The disappearance of an entire family, with the exception of the husband, is a mystery the Sloux City police are attempting to solve, Mrs. G. Gibson, with her daughter, Fannie Bell, age 20, and two sons, aged 7 and 9 respectively, disappeared Monday and have not been seen since. The husband can give no light on

TUXEDO and FULL DRESS

SUITS AND FURNISHINGS

For gentlemen who desire the absolutely Correct Thing for FORMAL, SEMI-FORMAL and INFORMAL evening wear. Our line of suits and furnishings will be found always up to the minute, Gloves, Hosiery, Neckwear, Handkerchiefs, Collars, Suits and Overcoats.

"IF YOU HAVE THEA FROM US THEY'RE RIGHT."

Smith & Bradley,

415 Broadway,

Council Bluffs.

HARRY LEVICH NOT GUILTY

Jury Stood Ten to Two at Start and the Two Finally Come Over.

NEW BUILDINGS AT IOWA COLLEGE Montana Woman Finally Comes Into Possession of Valuable Estate as

Result of Supreme Court

Decision.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Nov. 22 .- (Special.)-The verdict in the Levich murder case was received at the opening of court this mornwhether or not you buy of us, as we want you to see that what we tell you is not "hot air" by any means. Petersen & Schoening, Merriam block.

Framed Oil Paintings, 17c.

The women of the Congregational church entertained at a free social given at the church parlors Tuesday evening. Those having the arrangements in charge were Mrs. J. P. Davis, Mrs. R. H. Bloomer and Mrs. B. O. Bruington. two yielded their views and made it unanimous for acquittal. The announcement of the verdict in court was received with great joy by Harris Levich and his immediate friends and a great crowd of persons manifested general approval with the verdict. A juror in speaking of it afterward declared his belief that the state had undertaken to prove too much, that there was too much evidence introduced and it was contradictory and unreasonable in many respects. The witnesses for the state did not agree in many matters and there were several loopholes not filled. Levich announced on his being released that he would proceed against a number of the state's witnesses for perjury and make an attempt to indict them, as he believed a pointed in the verdict as indirectly it leaves the administration under suspicion. The county attorney announced that he would > ever, that the state will now find it very hard to make any case against Walker inasmuch as he was jointly indicted with Levich and Levich was supposed to have employed him. The state had previously contended that the case against Levich was far stronger than that against Walker. Bold Holdup in Valley Junction. At a few minutes after 4 o'clock this morning two men entered the kitchen of ersity occurred last night and raged until the St. Joe hotel at Valley Junction and o'clock this morning. Several students found the cook alone at his work. They were severely injured. Property loss ap- compelled him to pilot them through the proximating $700 was inflicted and the Iowa house. They found the door to the office City police force was routed after forty safe unlocked, secured $123.50 and quietly departed. The men had handkerchiefs over The fight started over the freshmen their faces with holes cut through, but the giving a dance in the Imperial hotel din- cook gave a good description of them ing room. Sophomores threw a skunk otherwise. They were evidently familiar Gregoris is on Trial.

The case of the State against James Gregoris, the Greek, who is accused of murdering his cousin, John Kolomokis, in Perry last May, is now being tried in the district court at Adel.

New College Buildings.

Governor Cummins has returned from Ames and Cedar Falls, where he attended the meetings of trustees of the Iowa State college and the State Normal school. Both meetings were exclusively to consider the building question. At Cedar Falls architects were instructed to draw plans for a ment on Monday afternoon by the heirs of large double gymnasium for the men and the late Judge Springer. The portrait has women, work on which will be commenced been especially painted for the historical in the spring. Architects were directed to department. proceed also in the preparation of plans for a new central college building at Ames visors will be held in Davenport January to cost about $225,000, which will be con- 28-30, and a program is now being made structed on the site of the former central out. About 300 will attend. building. This will be the first building built, though a number of auxiliary buildings will be constructed at the same time.

Later an agricultural hall to cost $200,000 will be built. Claims Valuable Estate.

The supreme court at the last term overruled a motion for a new trial in the case Malcolm of New Hampton a member of of Britt against Hall, from Hamilton county, and issued an order ending all litt gation. As a result Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Britt of Helena, Mont., have come to Iowa and claimed an estate valued at about Defective Insulation in Electric Light $25,000 to $30,000, left by the late Reuben Bennett of Webster city. Bennett had been unmarried and when he died the estate was about to be divided among collateral heirs, among them some of the most prominent residents of Hamilton county. Then Mrs. Britt claimed that she was a daughter of Bennett and proved it. As she had came near resulting in casualties. A de never been heard of in lows, where Bennett had lived for thirty years, her claim atus used in giving the performance of created a great sensation at the time. The Marie Corelli's "Thelma" was the cause of court declared her sole heir and she gets the fire. the entire estate.

Traveling Men Meet.

A large number of traveling men of the state are in attendance at the annual meeting of the local council of the United Commercial Travelers today, and about fifty members were taken in. A banquet and ball was given this evening. About the middle of December a large party will go from Des Moines to Centerville to participate in the services in connection with the dedication of the Drake free library, now nearing completion. Governor Cummins will deliver the dedicatory

Portrait of Famous Preacher.

Books at De Long

NEW BOOKS AT $1.19. THE SPENDERS. A tale of the hird generation, by Harry Leon Wil-D'RI AND I. By Irving Bacheller, author of Eben Holden. THE MISSISSIPPI BUBBLE. By THE MISSISSIPPI BUBBLE. By Emerson Hough.

DOROTHY SOUTH. A love story of Virginia just before the war, by George Cary Eggleston.

JOE BENTLEY, NAVAL CADET. By H. H. Clark, U. S. Navy.

THE KIDNAPED MILLIONAIRES. A tale of Wall Street and the tropics, by Frederick U. Adams.

CHANTICLEER. A beautiful pastoral romance, by Violette Hall. Beautiful Edition of Poets, $1.19, Longfellow. Whittler, Tennyson, Burns, Scott and other standard poetical works in beautifully embossed leather covers, padded sides, gold stamping and gold edges, each packed in a box-$1.13. If sent by mail add 13c postage for any of above. If possible name sec-ond choice.

These books are cloth bound, good lear print, convenient size, about clear print, convenient size, about 4½x6.

Here are a few of the titles:
"So Near and Yet So Far." Braeme.
"My Lady Nicotine." J. B. Barrie.
"A Story in Scarlet." A Conan Doyle.
"Adventures of a Brownie." Mulock.
"Wonder Book." Hawthorne.
"In His Steps." Sheldon.
"All Aboard." Oliver Optic.
"Try Again." Oliver Optic.
"Poor and Proud." Oliver Optic.
"To Young Acrobat." Alger. "Poor and Proud." Oliver Optic.
"The Young Acrobat." Alger.
"The Shop Lifter." Ohnet.
"Pleasures of Life." Lubbook.
"Past and Present." Carlyle.
"Master and Man." Tolstol.
"Mornings in Florence." Ruskin.
"Marmion." Scott. In ordering these books by mail clease give second cnoice. Postage,

Try DeLong's for TOYS, NOVELTIES & GAMES

Broadway. Dong the Punter Council Bluffs, Iowa.

OUR GUEST

your laundry work, and we treat it as such. We receive it with courteous appreciation. It receives the most careful attention while with us, and we return it promptly, and in god condition. Just send it here and see for yourself.

Bluff City Laundry,

WALLACE & GROUT, Proprietors, COUNCIL BLUFFS. Telephone, 214 22-24 N. Main St.

You Can Laugh at Winter

if you have your plumbing and heating arrangements installed or put in perfect working order by us. We know our business from A to Z, and the work we do can be relied upon; if we do it it's done right.

J. C. Bixby & Son, 202 Main, 203 Pearl St., Council Bluffs, Ia.

JARVIS 1877 BRANDY

presented to the State Historical depart-

The state convention of county super

McManus Gets a Place. O. J. McManus, county superintendent of Pottawattamie county, was today appointed by Governor Cummins to be a member of the State Board of Educational Examiners in place of Prof. Freer of Cedar Falls. The governor also appointed Peter the Board of Veterinary Examiners. PANIC IS NARROWLY AVERTED

City Theater. SIOUX CITY, Ia., Nov. 22 .- (Special Telegram.)-Fire in the Grand Opera house last night caused a panic in the audience which fective insulation in the lime light appar-It caught in the drippings and blazing up gave the appearance of a serious fire. Only the coolness of the management of the house and the orchestra, which struck up a lively piece, prevented a wholesale rush for the door. As it was women fainted and many men went out Man and Money Disappear.

Starts Small Blaze in Sloux

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Nov. 22 .- (Special Telegram.)-The disappearance of Silas Walt- Walters has a divorced wife and grown up ers of Battle Creek in Sioux City has children. He formerly lived in Washingpresented a mystery to the police which ton. ompletely baffles them. Walters , was n prominent Odd Fellow and had a large bridge building contract in Ida county. He came to Sloux City on the night of No-The portrait of Rev. William Salter of vember 2. He was seen here that evening day set for hearing in the United States Burlington, one of the pioneer preachers of just before dark and had $200 in his circuit court for December 26, before Judge

It Works Like a Charm

Our check system on prescriptions is just the thing. Everybody who has seen it pronounces the system the best they ever heard tell of. It enables us to put up a prescription without the least particle of a chance for a mistake.

Our Hobby Is Prescriptions

And we are going to show the people what an up-to-date prescription department is. Come in and let us show you how it works and

F YOU WANT A GOOD SMOKE WE HAVE IT.

GEORGE W. FLETCHER PRESCRIPTION DRUGGIST

TELEPHONE 275. 106 BROADWAY, - COUNCIL BLUFFS.

The police believe he was murdered, Beef Trust Case Set.

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.-The government case against the so-called "beef trust" was to-