CUBAN STRIKE RIOT

One Man Killed and Eighty-Two Wounded in Street Disturbances.

ALL HAVANA LABOR IS AT STANDSTILL

Cooks, Clerks and All Cease Work to Support cigar Makers.

STREET CARS, HOWEVER, GO ON RUNNING

Mob Stones Trolleys and Forces Ambassadors to Walk Into City.

OFFICIALS ACCUSED OF AIDING TROUBLE

Mayor and Government Secretary Stop Police from Acting Till President Palma Threatens to Send Troops to Scene.

HAVANA, Nov. 24.—As the result of conflicts of a serious nature today between the police and the strikers here two are dead and eighty-two others wounded. Five of the wounded, one a lieutenant of police, whose throat was cut by a striker, have severe injuries.

The police had the rioters well under control this evening, but every precaution was being taken to prevent further outbreak of disorder, and all the police and rural guards in the suburbs have been summoned to concentrate in Havana.

The strike, which at first only concerned the cigar workers, became general this morning when all trades walked out in sympathy. Merchants closed their doors this morning, clerks, cooks and every class of workmen having obeyed the command of the union, except the motormen and conductors of the electric cars.

Hold Up Street Cars.

Trouble began early when the electric cars were held up by the strikers, whose wrath was directed against the street railroad employees.

Several cars were held up and stoned on the outskirts of the city and the passengers were compelled to walk into Havana, among them being the British and German ministers. Several cars were wrecked and some motormen and conductors were injured during the rioting.

The car men, however, continued running their cars until 10, when the superintendent ordered a suspension of traffic. The employees were willing to remain at work, but the officers of the company deemed it wise to suspend the service.

A mob of strikers drove the men on the Western railroad from the trains during the morning.

The mayor of Havana and the secretary of the government, Diego Tamayo, had during the past week been sympathetic with the strikers and had given orders to the police not to use force in dispersing the crowds, and under these conditions the police were unable to cope with the strikers.

The situation was approaching a critical point at noon, serious disorders having taken place in front of the palace itself, in which a police officer named Maso and a number of policemen and strikers received injuries.

President Palma sent word to the mayor that unless the city authorities could preserve order the state would intervene. The mayor then took drastic measures and issued an edict prohibiting crowds from gathering in the streets and authorizing the chief of police to kill if it was necessary to preserve order.

By this time the strikers had become emboldened and frequent clashes between them and the police occurred in all parts of the city. The police were obliged to charge a mob of rioters at the slaughter house and several were injured. The vigorous attitude of the police now made itself felt and traffic on the car lines was resumed and continued with only occasional interruptions. Most of the injuries sustained by the strikers were caused by the policemen's clubs.

Veterans Offer Aid.

The Central Veterans' union, headed by General Gomez, held a meeting this afternoon and voted to aid the labor unions if the disorders continued the veterans would offer their services to President Palma to preserve order.

No bread or meat was on sale today and a continuance of the strike will cause much suffering to the poor. The police fear that trouble may occur in the city tonight and a detachment of rural guards is expected to reach Havana at 2:30 tomorrow morning.

Senor Tamayo has resigned his office of secretary of government, but President Palma will not accept his resignation until the strike has been settled. The public blames Tamayo for his active participation and says he and the mayor are responsible for today's riots, as at a political meeting on Wednesday, at which he was chairman, he endorsed the action of the strikers.

FUNERAL OF HERR KRUPP

To Take Place from Little Old House Where His Father Once Lived.

BERIJN, Nov. 24.—Emperor William will attend the funeral of Herr Krupp, which will take place from the little old house where his father lived while striving to cast the first steel gun.

According to a semi-authoritative statement, provided that the works shall not be turned into a joint stock company under twenty-five years. Meantime the revenues of the whole property will go to the widow and after her death to the eldest daughter. The value of the estate, estimated by bankers who were connected with Herr Krupp, is $75,000,000.

This does not include securities owned by the deceased outside his manufacturing plants, which may possibly amount to as much more.

The suicide theory has not yet quieted. The Cologne Gazette says:

Whether he died of shock due to excitement after learning of the blow struck him, or whether, admitting himself guilty, he took his own life, are questions which have not been answered by the accused himself, but have been decided.

RE-ENACTS DEATH SCENE

Suspected Murderer Goes Through All Details of Mrs. Gore's End.

PARIS, Nov. 24.—The Gore tragedy was presented in a dramatic aspect today, when the French officials, Mr. De Rydzewski to the scene of the crime, and compelled him to re-enact every detail of the affair. This was done in accordance with French law.

The chamber was arranged in the night of the fatality and the same was placed in De Rydzewski's hand to act out his version.

As far as known the prisoner went through the ordeal without wavering from his first story.

Acting on instructions to thoroughly investigate the occurrence, Consul General Gowdy today requested four representative American physicians living in Paris to form a commission, conduct an independent autopsy and report on the circumstances and probabilities of how Mrs. Gore met her death.

The French officials having the case in their charge decided unexpectedly to hold the "reconstruction of the scene" this afternoon instead of waiting longer. This interesting formality occurred in the room where the tragedy took place. The only persons admitted were the examining magistrate, the commissary of police, Dr. Souquet, who performed the autopsy; Gustave Bacon, the expert armorer, De Rydzewski and Lawyer Cruse.

A representative of Mr. Gowdy, M. Paquet, applied for permission to be present, but the magistrate refused on the ground of requirements of the law. The party arrived at the house at 3 o'clock.

De Rydzewski re-enacted the final scene, giving complete details as to the positions of Mrs. Gore and herself.

As a result of the ordeal the examining magistrate has decided to set De Rydzewski at liberty provisionally.

VENEZUELA AGAIN INVADED

Colombian Government Considered Innocent of Offense, but Held to Be Responsible.

WILLEMSTAD, Island of Curacao, Nov. 24.—A new invasion of Venezuela from Colombia occurred recently, when 2,300 revolutionaries, Venezuelan and Colombian liberals, as the result of the surrender of General Uribe Uribe and commanded by General Bangoel Garibra and Espiritu Santo Morales, entered Venezuelan territory.

On Saturday last, after a severe encounter at Las Delicias with Venezuelan troops commanded by President Castro's brother, the revolutionaries were checked.

Colombia is generally considered as being innocent of the movement, though the government at Caracas insists that Colombia is responsible.

CARACAS, Sunday, Nov. 23.—General Velutino in the eastern provinces, will leave tomorrow for Barcelona and Ciudad Bolívar, with 2,500 men to inaugurate a campaign against the revolutionaries. In an interview today General Velutino said:

"The revolutionaries have 1,000 men, jeeps, horses, etc., and we must have fighting will be necessary to capture those troops. I command the Andinos, who will enter the country by the fall of Barcelona, and Ciudad Bolívar the uprising will be ended by a period of peace. A new army will be formed, there can never be another Mato supported by foreign capital, leading military chiefs, warships, 10,000 men and plenty of ammunition."

In addition the Burlington officials announced that a dead train robber would be worth $1,000 to any of its employers.

Officials of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, Illinois Central and Chicago & Alton roads coincided with Mr. Delano's statement, and declared that they would not hesitate to bear their share of any burden brought about by a concerted movement to eradicate the evil.
