BANK AT BANCROFT ROBBED

Burglars Get Away with from Two to Four Thousand Dollars

LEAVE NO CLUE AS TO THEIR IDENTITY

Safe is Not Kept in Vault Making Its Contents an Easy Prey to Expert Cracksmen, Who Evidently Did Job.

BANCROFT, Neb., Nov. 25.—(Special.)—The Bancroft bank, owned by J. E. Turner, was entered by burglars this morning about 2 o'clock. Entrance was obtained by use of a skeleton key to the front door.

The building is a one-story brick. The safe was not kept in a vault, which made it easier work for the burglars.

It is not known exactly what amount was taken, probably from $2,000 to $4,000. All the cash on hand last night is missing, except $1.25, which was found in the wreck this morning.

Two explosions were made, the first one on the outer door, which blew it across the room and almost through the brick wall. The second was on the inner steel chest and was a clean job.

Several people heard the explosions, but were too frightened to cause any alarm. A shoemaker next door heard the reports and attempted to get out, but found all his doors had been fastened.

There is no clue to the burglary, as there has been no suspicious characters noticed around town.

He was placed in jail and said he was sorry and that he was the cause of it.

FATHER MURPHY FILES REPLY

Famous Bishop Bonanum Case is Again Before the Court at Seward.

SEWARD, Neb., Nov. 25.—The answer of Father Murphy, in the famous Bishop Bonanum case against William Murphy, was filed today.

It contains twenty-five pages of closely written matter and alleges as a defense "the persecution" by Bishop Bonanum and contempt of court on the part of the bishop in failing to obey an injunction granted in a former trial enjoining the bishop from meddling with the church property or bringing any suits until the pope decides the controversy, before whom an appeal is pending.

The prayer asks for damages for such failure to obey the mandate of the court. Judge Good has refused to sit in the trial, having been the bishop's attorney before going on the bench, and Judge Shornberger has been called to try the case. The contest is a bitter one.

BRILLIANT CAREERS Blasted By Chronic CATARRH

A Prominent Young Virtuoso Cured of Chronic Catarrh by Pe-ru-nu After Years of Suffering.

Walter V. Wann, violin soloist and instructor (Clairville), Detroit, Mich., writes:

"I suffered with Catarrh of the head and throat to an aggravated degree and had tried many remedies, but only grew worse. 'Peruna was altogether different however, as it seemed to take hold of my case the first week. I think I used eight bottles in all, but that is comparatively little when you consider the many years I suffered from catarrh."

"Peruna entirely cleared my system of any trace of it and I am now in excellent health and have been for a year and all due to Peruna. I am pleased to endorse it as very trustworthy."

Who can compute the value of such recovery? Who can estimate the worth of such a remedy? Peruna has made just such cures throughout upon thousands of times. There is no nook or cranny in the whole United States but that some one could be found who owes his life and success to Peruna the greatest catarrh remedy of the age. Hon. David Meekins, member of the Fifty-fifth congress, from Ohio, writes: "I have used several bottles of Peruna and I feel greatly benefited therefrom by my catarrh of the head. I feel encouraged to believe that I will use it a short time longer I will be fully able to eradicate the disease of thirty years' standing."—David Meekins, Member of Congress.
