Roosevelt Will Not Consider Race in Making Appointments.

SAYS NEGROES ARE ENTITLED TO OFFICE

Good Citizenship and Sterling Worth Are Sole Considerations.

DOMINATION OF BLACKS NOT AN ISSUE

Real Question is Whether Africans Have Equal Rights.

TROUBLE ARISES IN SOUTH CAROLINA

President Gives Colored Man Post Which Whites Object to and Receive Still Reluctant from White House.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—The president has sent the following communication to a citizen of Charleston, S. C.:

"My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of November 19 and of one from Mr. Crum, under date of November 11, in reference to the appointment of Dr. Crum as collector of the port of Charleston.

"After making these charges you added as a further reason for opposition to him that he is a colored man, and after reciting the misdeeds that followed carpetbagging and negro domination in South Carolina, you say that we swore never again to submit to the rule of the African, and such an appointment as that of Dr. Crum to any such office forces us to protest unanimously against this insult to the white blood, and you add that you understood me to say that I would never force a negro on such a community as yours.

Objects to Colored Man.

"Mr. Crum puts the objection of color first, saying he is a colored man, and that of itself ought to bar him from the office. In view of the fact that I am a white man, I think I ought to make clear to you why I am concerned and pained by your making them and what my attitude is as regards all such appointments. How anyone could have gained the idea that I had said I would not appoint a colored man is completely beyond me. I have never said that I would not appoint a colored man to any office when the objection was solely on account of their color. I confess I am wholly unable to understand. At the time of my visit to Charleston last spring I had made, and since that time I have made a number of such appointments from several states in which there is a considerable colored population. For example, I made one such appointment in Mississippi and another in Alabama shortly before my visit to Charleston. I had at that time appointed two colored men as judges in the state of South Carolina. I have recently announced another such appointment for New Orleans and have just made one from Pennsylvania.

Will Recognize Negroes.

"The great majority of my appointments in every state have been of white men. North and south alike, it has been my endeavor to appoint only men of high character and good capacity, whether white or black. But it has been my consistent policy, in every state where their numbers warranted it, to recognize colored men of good repute and standing in making appointments to office. These appointments of colored men have in no state made more than a small proportion of the total number of appointments.

"I am unable to see how I can legitimately be asked to make an exception for South Carolina. In South Carolina, to the four most important positions in the state I have appointed white men, and I have appointed a fourth, all of them white men, three of them originally good democrats—two of them, as I am informed, the sons of Confederate soldiers. I have been informed by the citizens of Charleston whom I have met that the four men represent a high grade of public opinion.

"I do not intend to appoint any unfit man to office. So far as I legitimately can I shall always endeavor to pay regard to the wishes and feelings of the people of each locality, but I cannot consent to take the position that the door of hope, the door of opportunity, is to be shut on any man, no matter how worthy, purely on the grounds of race or color. Such an attitude would, according to my convictions, be fundamentally wrong.

"If, as you hold, the great bulk of the colored people are not fit in point of character and influence to hold positions of trust, it seems to me that it is worth while putting a premium on the effort among them to achieve the character and standing which will fit them.

Negro Domination Not in Question.

"The question of 'negro domination' does not enter into the matter at all. It might well be asserted that when I was governor of New York I sought to bring about negro domination in that state because I appointed two colored men of good character and standing to responsible positions one of them to a position paying a salary twice as large as that paid in the office now under consideration, one of them as a director of the Buffalo exposition.

"The question raised by you in the statements to which I refer is simply whether it is to be declared that under circumstances shall any man of color, no matter how upright, honest, no matter how good a citizen, no matter how air in his dealings with all his fellows, be permitted to hold any office under our government.

"I certainly cannot assume such an attitude and you must permit me to say that in my view it is an attitude no man should assume, whether he looks at it from the standpoint of the true interest of the white man of the south or the colored man of the south, not to speak of any other section of the union.

"It seems to me that it is a good thing every standpoint to let the colored man know that if he shows in marked degree the qualities of good citizenship, the qualities of which in a white we feel are entitled to reward, then he will not be set off from all similar reward.

"Without any regard as to what my particular applicant for this particular position, feel that I ought to let you know clearly my attitude on the far broader question raised by you, an attitude from which I have not varied during my term of office. THOROUGH ROOSEVELT."

NORD IS MISSING AN ARMY

Has Ten Thousand Men in Command and Will Declare Himself President of Haiti.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Nov. 27.—Letters received here from Haiti say there is still considerable excitement in that republic, especially at Gonave, where General Nord, the Haitian war minister, is missing a large army with the intention of declaring himself president. It is believed that 10,000 men under his command are advancing on Port au Prince tonight.

PORT AU PRINCE, Nov. 27.—While the situation here today is calm, serious disturbances were apprehended yesterday in the Chamber, which at the request of the president was surrounded by government troops.

On the demand of the provisional government General Alexis Nord, the war minister, recently left Gonave with the head of 5,000 men from the capital and arrived last night at St. Marc. He can reach Port au Prince early next week. There is no confirmation here of the report that General Nord has the intention of proclaiming himself president, but the rumor is much discussed and the people here are awaiting his arrival with interest in order to learn his exact intentions.

CAPE HAITIEN, Nov. 27.—It is impossible to ascertain the real intentions of General Nord. At present he is marching on Port au Prince with about 10,000 men. He declares that he is not an aspirant for the presidency of the republic, but that he will insist on the election of his candidate for that office. The identity of the general's candidate is not known. The press of Cape Haitien is in favor of General Nord.

SAN DOMINGO, Nov. 27.—The political situation in Santo Domingo has been complicated by revolutionary disturbances which have broken out in the northern part of the republic.

The government has taken severe measures to suppress the movement and many arrests have already been made, including General Jose Gil and J. D. Pichardo, a former minister.

RULES CAUSE REICHSTAG ROW

Motion to Vote on Tariff as Whole Leads to Much Uproar in That Body.

BERLIN, Nov. 27.—Scenes of great uproar and disorder resulted in the Reichstag today from a motion introduced by the leaders of the center, national liberal and the two conservative parties, providing to take a vote on the tariff as a whole.

Baron Kadoff offered the motion, which was greeted with laughter by the socialists and radicals, whereupon the baron remarked: "Gentlemen, you have driven us to this course."

The socialist speakers, Herr Richter and Barth, contended that the motion was contrary to the rules of the house. Von Vallestrom admitted that he was in doubt on the question raised and declined to decide on the advisability of the motion, leaving the matter for the house to decide after full discussion.

During the debate on the rules the socialists created great disorder. Herr Antrick and others shouted "pickpockets" and Herr Richter, who repeatedly interrupted the speaker, was called to order three times, the conservatives shouting: "Put him out."

ILLEGAL TO SIGN NAMES

French Ecclesiastical Petitioners Are Found Guilty of Breaking Law.

PARIS, Nov. 27.—The government recently submitted to the council of state the action of the greater part of the French episcopate in signing a manifesto last month for presentation to the Senate and Chamber of Deputies, which urged a return to the principles of the concordat as the only means of securing religious peace in France.

The question submitted to the council of state was whether the signing of this manifesto was not contrary to the article of the concordat forbidding the episcopate to act in concert. The council has decided that the signatories committed an abuse of authority.

This decision may lead to the suspension of the salaries of all the French cardinals, archbishops and bishops, save five who did not sign the document.

BRITAIN ANNEXES ISLANDS

Shells Native South Sea Villages in Order to Punish Filian Murderers.

VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 27.—According to advices received from Sydney by the steamer Aorangi, H. M. S. Sparrow has returned from a protracted cruise through the South sea group. During the cruise the warship's officers annexed Sparrow, Yasabel and Cholei islands for Great Britain.

At Malietia five villages of the natives were shelled to punish the islanders for having killed the filian woman because she embraced Christianity. With a view to impressing the natives with the seriousness of the crime committed by them and of warning them against a recurrence of such acts Sparrow visited five places in the island of Malietia, namely Aukia, Seio, Uras Kwal and Fort Diamond, and at each place the villages were shelled and partly destroyed.

CLEAR KRUPP'S CHARACTER

Italian Government Finds Slanders Originated with Disappearing German Painter.

ROME, Nov. 27.—An inquiry instituted in the senate concerning the late Herr Krupp at Capri Island is said to have completely cleared his character, and in consequence the government will prosecute the newspapers which made the defamatory statements.

It is stated that the accusations against Herr Krupp have been traced to a German painter, resident in Capri, whose arrest was ordered. The painter has disappeared.

CATTLE LAWS ARE CHANGED

Argentina Conforms with British Legal Live Stock Regulations.

ARGENTINA, Nov. 27.—In the House of Commons today Mr. Hanbury announced that the Argentine government had introduced a bill making the live stock law of Argentina correspond with the British law governing the inspection of cattle.

ROOSEVELT DINES QUIETLY

Only Members of Family and Few Personal Friends Present.

WHOLE WORLD KEEPS THANKSGIVING DAY

London and Other European Capitals Have Imposing Dinners at Which America is Lauded by Distinguished Guests.

LONDON, Nov. 27.—President and Mrs. Roosevelt had at their Thanksgiving dinner only members of the family and a few personal friends. The table was set in the state dining room.

Those present at the dinner were the president and Mrs. Roosevelt, Senator and Mrs. Lodge, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Adams, Mrs. C. H. and Miss Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Robinson, Captain and Mrs. Cowles, Theodore Douglas Robinson, Miss Helen Roosevelt, Miss Roosevelt, Miss Robinson, J. K. Gracie, Robert Ferguson, Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., John Elliott and Miss Ethel Roosevelt.

All Seats Untaken.

DETROIT, Nov. 27.—At a union Thanksgiving service in the Detroit opera house today Rabbi Levi M. Franklin of Temple Bethel, Judge A. J. Murphy of the recorder's court, a Roman Catholic, and clergymen of the Episcopal, Congregational, Baptist, Methodist, Christian Universalist and Presbyterian churches occupied seats on the platform and took active parts.

The mayor, who is a member of St. Peter's Episcopal church, made an introductory address, in which, alluding to the union service, he said: "The day is one of the great religious thoughts that have run in parallel lines, sometimes converging and sometimes crossing. We can see the parallel lines when, in recognition of a common faith, we came together this way to give thanks."

Attend Two Services.

MANILA, Nov. 27.—The first general observance of Thanksgiving day by the Roman Catholic church in the Philippines took place today. Bishop Gracia issued a letter calling attention to the proclamation of the president and Governor Taft directing the observance of the American holiday.

A solemn mass was celebrated in the cathedral, the apostolic delegate, Archbishop Guila, giving his benediction to the worshippers. Governors Taft and many Americans were among those present.

The other churches held a united service. Bishop Brent presided at the address and Rev. George Pentecost, reading the prayer. Governor Taft and a majority of the American colony also attended this service. In the course of his address Bishop Brent said he had opposed the United States assumption of responsibility for the Philippines, but he added: "Now we must return and face our duty."

Dine in Old London.

LONDON, Nov. 27.—Nearly 500 American citizens and a sprinkling of distinguished Englishmen participated in the annual Thanksgiving dinner held at the Hotel Cecil tonight.

The company included Mr. and Mrs. Choate, all the members of the embassy staff, Robert McCormick, American ambassador to Russia; the consul general, H. H. Asquith, Lord Hely, Lord Fairfax, Lord Roberts and Sir Henry Norman. The speakers were numerous and abundant in good feeling and reciprocal compliments.

Toasts in honor of King Edward and President Roosevelt were drunk with equal enthusiasm.

Mr. Asquith, proposing Mr. Choate's health, jokingly alluded to the abandoned long line of distinguished ministers and ambassadors that the United States had sent to England, each of whom, he said, had largely contributed to the present happy relations of the two nations, and more than any other, Mr. Choate.

In responding Mr. Choate replied to Mr. Asquith's references to the "dreaded American invasion and combine" and said: "There is one combination which meets the approval of the people of both countries. America finds itself now the happy recipient of good will from the British empire, and I believe in the inevitable and embracing position of having sailors from all countries, who are not here to do us harm, but to help us in our need. I do not mean to give herself away. She must maintain her independence to the end; at the same time it cannot be conceded that she has been overruled by the overtures from her own race and kindred."

President Roosevelt, he said later, was so strong, brave and true that he might have been the leading spirit of the Mayflower. It was his influence and example that was responsible for the interest that young Americans were showing in politics, and the vigor, courage and human sympathy with which Mr. Roosevelt brought the coal strike to a successful outcome was the admiration of all countries.

Day Signifies Peace.

PARIS, Nov. 27.—Thanksgiving day was quietly observed here by the American colony. Special services were held in several churches. Rev. Dr. Thurber, pastor of the American church, said that the "cause of the world's thanksgiving is that the nations are beginning to completely accept international arbitration in place of the arbitrament of the sword."

BERLIN, Nov. 27.—Three hundred Americans celebrated Thanksgiving day by dining together tonight at the Kaiserhof. Henry White, the retiring ambassador, who presided, proposed the health of the German emperor and President Roosevelt, who, he said, were in many respects alike. The annual general proposed a toast to the ambassador and also to the secretary of the embassy, who leaves for Athens in a few days. A telegram of good wishes was sent to President Roosevelt.

TRIENNA, Nov. 27.—In the absence of the ambassador, Mr. Hale, the American charge d'affaires, and Mrs. Hale gave a Thanksgiving reception at the Hotel Bristol this afternoon. Nearly 300 Americans attended the function.

Old Glory Flies in Rome.

ROME, Nov. 27.—Hundreds of Stars and Stripes hanging from the houses of Americans announced Thanksgiving day to the people here. A special service was held in the American church. Rev. Dr. McCracken of New York officiating. Mr. Francis MacNutt, a papal cavalier of the Cape and Sword, and the highest American layman at the Vatican, gave a magnificent dinner in honor of the day. The guests included Archbishop Chappell, of New Orleans; Fred. Norton, director of the American School of Classical Studies, gave an entertainment to his pupils.

CITY OF MEXICO, Nov. 27.—A Thanksgiving bell was given tonight by the American colony and was largely attended. President Diaz being an attendee of 500,000 people from outside of Chicago.

Wednesday a new $100,000 building, provided by the Union Stock Yards company as permanent headquarters for the purchased live stock record associations of the United States and Canada, will be dedicated by the secretary of agriculture and the governors of a number of agricultural states who have accepted invitations.

DOES NOT SEEK OFFICE

Booker T. Washington is Only Interested in Politics to Raise Negro Race.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 27.—The following letter has been received by the Age-Herald from Booker T. Washington:

"I notice that several newspapers have recently commented upon my name with political inferences in such a manner as to show that my position is not understood. I desire, therefore, to make the following statement: My life work is the promotion of the education of my race.

"What conferences I have had with the president or with any public official have grown out of my position as a politician, but as an educator. It should be borne in mind that there are about 3,000,000 negroes in the United States, who are liable under the law for taxes and military service, and who are punishable for crime as members of the citizenry. I have no right to be a member of the citizenry and executing the laws of the land should be in the hands of the white race, and I have no right to be a member of the white race, when their interests and relations with the whites among the white race are concerned.

"Under no circumstances could I seek to become a member of the white race, and I have no information regarding men or measures, neither have I done so in the past. I have no interest in politics, and I have always sought to place upon education and industry among my people, as the basis for the hope of holding political office. Now, if you are interested in public questions, I am feeding your interest, and I am so fundamental and far-reaching that they will be of benefit to you, and I have always sought to place upon education and industry among my people, as the basis for the hope of holding political office.
