The Fourth Trip.

Our cloak buyer is making his fourth trip to New York for this fall season, brought about by the tremendous business in our cloak department. Few if any western cloak buyers visit the New York market more than once or twice a season. It is well known that the shrewd, economical buyer that goes to the market often secures bargains and styles that are unknown to the stay-at-homes. The cloak buyer has left positive instructions with us to clear up and sell, regardless of cost, every garment that can be sold, and during the coming week every day, commencing Monday, we will cut the prices on every garment in this department from 10 to 50 per cent.
