The marriage of Miss Myrtle Daharah and Mr. Cassius M. Pierce of Sheboygan, Wis., was solemnized on Thanksgiving day at the home of Mrs. J. S. Cameron, 4212 Farnam street.

The engagement of Miss Ethel Wilkins, Amy Churchill. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wilkins, to Mr. Herbert Howe, was announced on Thursday at a diner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Buckingham. For years the Wilkins and Buckingham families have aland ropes of amilax. ternated their Thanksgiving dinners, and the latest occasion was taken as an auspiclous time for giving out the information. The date for the wedding has not yet been fixed.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at All Saints' church on Thursday evening, Miss Grace Constance Burstall, daughter of Mrs. Eva Burstall, and Mr. Harry T. Whitman being the contracting parties. The bride games, for which prizes were given. Afterwas attended by her sister. Miss Frances Burstall, as bridesmaid and Dr. H. Foster acted as groomsman, Mr. W. R. Adams, uncle of the bride, giving her away. While at a farewell party given in honor of the guests were gathering and during the ceremony Mr. J. H. Simms, organist of All Saints' church, played an appropriate program. Following the wedding there was a reception at Mrs. Burstali's home for the relatives and a few friends, including the ushers, Mr. Tom Lambe and Mr. Bartlett. Mr. and Mrs. Whitman left that evening for a wedding trip and will be at home after January 15 at 2538 Davenport street.

The luncheon had been announced as complimentary to Miss Ruth Bryan of Lincoln who has been Miss Herberta Jaynes' guest, but this fact only gave added interest to the affair, as it was generally suspected that the real occasion of the luncheon was the appouncement of Miss Jaynes' engagement. The table was arranged in shape of a T and very simply though effectively trimmed in green and white. Two low mounds of white chrysanthemums and a third of Narcissus were arranged at intervals and connected with ropes of smilax, the candelabra in delicate green and white shades completing the table trimming, with the exception of the place cards, which were small blank pieces of cardboard, nomewhat to the mystification of all. When all had been seated there was a pause in anticipation of the expected announcement, but to the surprise of all, this failed to come, and it was not until a few minutes later, when one of the girls chanced to turn over her little white place card, that it was discovered that this apparently uninteresting bit of pasteboard explained everything. It was an engraved visiting card and bore the name of Mr. William
