MRS. STEPHENS NOT IN RIVER City Woman Working as Domestic.

The mystery of the missing Mrs. Stephens, who is said to have fied from Sioux City a few days ago, where she left a note stating that she had jumped into the Missouri river, and for whose body the police have been dragging that stream since the message was found, has at last been solved. She was located in Omaha yesterday by the detective department, following a tip which had been received from Chief Davenport of Sioux City.

The story of the woman's escapade has been heralded over this state and for several weeks officers have been on the lookout for her, taking the suicide message as a "fake." It was thought that she had come toward Omaha when she left Sloux City and every possible clue tending to locate her has been closely followed by the officers in that city. When Captain Mostyn received a message yesterday from Chief Davenport of the Sloux City force her whereabouts were quickly determined and she was found working as a domestic in the household of Mr. F. J. Hill, 1924 Farnam street.

When a Bee reporter called at the Hill residence yesterday afternoon to interview the woman he was informed that she had admitted her identity and that she had no statement to make regarding her actions or her course for fleeing from Sloux City under the startling conditions which she created at the time of her departure.

Mrs. Stephens came to Omaha, it is said last Friday and at once applied for the position of domestic in the Hill home. She claimed at the time she accepted the position that she was a resident of Omaha. tending a severe cold and that it is always prudent to remain indoors until the danger is passed. Many, however, do not feel able to lose the time and will be interested in knowing that a severe cold may be broken up and all danger avoided by the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures, but cares quickly and from "Kip" Elbert and Frank

At the Dickey Bird Gun club grounds Sunday afternoon W. D. Townsend and Ed Hafer defeated "Kip" Elbert and Frank Weatherhead of Red Oak in a match for fifty live birds on a side for the price of the birds and a dinner. The feature of the race was the hard luck of Elbert. The birds were about as fast as any that had ever been trapped and the way they flew down the wind was surprising. Of twentythree birds killed by Elbert seven fell outside of bounds, making the total kill credited to him sixteen. The race was won by a score of 42 to 41, the best record being made by Frank Weatherhead of the defeated side, who killed his twenty-five birds Following this came a contest between
