

CURRENT NEWS OF IOWA.

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

MINOR MENTION.

Davis sells drugs. Stocker sells carpets and rugs. Expert watch repairing, Leffert, 49 E. W. Picture framing, C. E. Alexander & Co., 23 Broadway, Tel. 366.

FOUND DEAD BESIDE TRUCK

Indications that Man Had Fallen or Been Thrown from Train.

UNABLE TO SECURE CLUE TO HIS IDENTITY

Paper on His Person Would Seem to Indicate His Destination Was Some Point in Missouri on the River.

Lying at Cutler's undertaking establishment, the body of an unidentified man which was found at an early hour yesterday morning lying alongside of the tracks of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad near Crescent City. The fact that the man's neck is broken and that pieces of gravel and cinders were imbedded in one side of his face seemed to indicate that he either fell or was thrown from a train. The officials of the company declined to give any information, asserting they were unaware how the man met his death and under these circumstances Coroner Treynor has not yet decided when to hold an inquest.

The corpse is that of a man evidently about 60 years of age. The head is partially bald and on the face is about a month's growth of a beard almost white. The large toe and part of the second toe of the left foot had been amputated at some time. The clothing white neat and clean, was that of a laborer. Additional clothing was in a bundle found alongside the body. There were no marks, however, on the clothing to furnish any clue to the identity of the man. His hands were rough as if he had been husking corn and in one pocket was a husking peg. While the neck was broken and gravel and cinders were imbedded in the face, there was not a bruise on the body to show that he had been struck by a train and thus killed.

A small pocketbook, which, with a knife and a tobacco sack containing several collars and cuff buttons, the only articles found in the man's pockets, was a billhead of some meat market, on the back of which was written in pencil: "This man wants to go three miles west of the Missouri bluff on the Kansas side looking for John Duffey, farmer. Please direct him as near as possible." On another slip of paper about an inch in size was written, also in lead pencil, "Rose mill."

A traveling man whose name was not ascertained informed Detective Murphy that the man had stepped off an eastbound train and was struck by a westbound train near the depot at Crescent City.

Povurite Bawl Tontie. Rag up and cum to the foresters' grate povurite bawl at new mackeye bawl tonight. Tickets, 50 cents; extra gala, 25 cents.

Secret Society Elections. Excelsior lodge No. 257, Adjutant Free and Accepted Masons, has elected these officers: Worshipful master, Dell G. Moraga; senior warden, James J. Henry; junior warden, William B. Tracy; treasurer, James H. Crainville; secretary, Thomas McMillen; trustee, A. T. Howell.

John Huss castle at Royal Highlanders has elected these officers: Illustrious protector, W. A. Prindle; past illustrious protector, Thomas R. Drake; chief counselor, Alah Drake; evangelist, Fannie Collins; secretary, Laura J. Morris; treasurer, Harvey DeLong; warden, E. Evers; scribe, Carl Bonney; managers, Mrs. J. C. Fleming, O. A. Noren, J. W. Kilbane.

These officers have been elected by Lily camp No. 1, Royal Neighbors of America; Oracle, Mrs. Anna M. Boyer; vice oracle, Mrs. Nellie Finckney; chancellor, Mrs. Mary Schluter; marshal, Mrs. Carrie Barlow; recorder, Mrs. Laura J. Morris; receiver, Mrs. Mary Wind; inner sentinel, Mrs. Mary Menary; outer sentinel, Mrs. Anna Barry; physicians, Drs. Susan Snyder, M. B. Snyder; delegate, Mrs. Mary Wind; alternate, Mrs. Anna Boyer.

A Free Heating Stove. Before you buy your coal see Wm. Welch at 25 North Main street and he will explain to you how you can get a Round Oak heating stove without costing you a penny. Phone, 128.

Wholesale Firms Branch Out. The Great Western railroad has completed negotiations for the purchase of two lots on South Main street immediately north of the Pioneer Implement company's building at Tenth avenue. On this property the railroad will erect a three-story brick warehouse, which will be occupied by the wholesale grocery house of Stewart Bros. The property has a frontage on Main street of ninety feet and 120 feet on the avenue. The building, which will cost in the neighborhood of $40,000, will occupy the entire two lots, with the exception of a small strip at the rear, which will be used for trackage.

The Harle-Haas Drug company is another wholesale house of this city which is feeling the need of additional warehouse facilities. It is now negotiating for the purchase from O. P. Wickham of the property immediately south of its present building on South Main street. The firm proposes to erect a large brick warehouse and office building on the Wickham property in the event of the deal being effected.

Bibles Now Ready. Those who are entitled to the Bible, given as a premium by The Bee, can get same by calling at the Council Bluffs office, kindly call as soon as possible.

Sues Cattle Breeder. John R. Webster of Omaha has brought suit in the United States court for $10,000 against George T. Row, a stockman of Mills county. Webster alleges that W. E. Colvin, who owns an extensive cattle ranch in Deuel county, Nebraska, is indebted to him in the sum of $73,000, the indebtedness being secured by mortgage on the ranch and stock. According to the allegations in the petition, Row secured 152 head of cattle from Colvin last summer and transferred them to his land in this state to feed. The removal of these cattle from Colvin's ranch, Webster contends, impairs his security and hence, the suit against Row for the value of the stock.

Plumbing and Heating, Babby & Son. Creditors to Discuss Offer. A meeting of the creditors of Whitlaw & Gardner, proprietors of the Boston store, will be held this morning in the office of George T. Row, a stockman of Mills county. The meeting is for the purpose of considering the offer of Whitlaw & Gardner of a settlement on a basis of 25 cents on the dollar. It is said that a majority of the creditors are in favor of accepting this proposition, as it is very doubtful if as much would be realized under a forced sale of the stock of the store as they offer being accepted Whitlaw & Gardner expect to reopen the store within a few days.

EPISCOPAL DEANERY MEETS

Arrangements Made for Several Missionary Meetings in the Diocese.

Bishop Morrison presided at both sessions of the Council Bluffs deanery of the Episcopal church held yesterday in St. Paul's church, but as he was compelled to leave early in the evening for his home in Davenport, was unable to be present at the public meeting at night. The morning session, following the administration of holy communion, partook of the nature of a "quiet day" for the clergyman present, the feature being a lengthy address of counsel and advice by the bishop. At the afternoon session, Rev. T. F. Bowen read a paper on "The Responsibility of a Churchman for the Moral Tone of the Community," which was generally disapproved. Bishop Morrison taking part in the discussion. Arrangements were made for a series of missionary meetings throughout the diocese, that at Council Bluffs to be February 8, when the bishop will be present. At the public meeting in the evening addresses were made by Rev. S. M. Wilcox, Dr. Cathell, Rev. T. F. Bowen and Rev. W. H. Moore.

Those in attendance at the meeting of the deanery, besides Bishop Morrison, were: Rev. J. Everett Cathell, D. D., Des Moines; Rev. T. Francis Bowen, East Des Moines; Rev. Allan Judd, archdeacon for the western part of the diocese; Rev. Seth M. Wilcox, Boone; Rev. N. F. Douglas, Mapleton; Rev. George Edward Walk, Council Bluffs; Rev. R. E. Craig and Rev. W. H. Moor, Omaha. The visiting clergymen were guests of Rev. Walk at luncheon at the rectory.

Marriage Licenses. Licenses to wed were issued yesterday to the following: Dwight Card, Chadron, Neb.; Mrs. Nettie Davis, Chadron, Neb.; Peter Keizer, Treynor, Ia.; Augusta Weir, Treynor, Ia.; Amos A. Schneider, Brunswick, Neb.; Laura M. Olson, Fremont, Neb.

Building New Road in Iowa. IOWA FALLS, Ia., Dec. 10.—(Special).—At the annual meeting of the Des Moines Iowa Falls & Northern Railway company held in this city, it was decided to run the road northeast from this city and the executive committee was empowered to put a corps of engineers in the field as early as possible in the spring to complete the surveys for the road. The location of this line will depend wholly on the surveys and estimates. The following are the officers for the ensuing year: President, E. S. Ellsworth; vice president, William Welden; secretary, J. H. Furr; treasurer, W. H. Woods; auditor, W. V. Shipley. The same directors were elected with the exception of Charles Hutchinson of Des Moines, who is succeeded by J. B. McKay of this city. The road is now to be built in thirteen miles of Des Moines and the officials hope to close up this gap by the first of the year.

New Owner of Dan Patch. IOWA FALLS, Ia., Dec. 10.—(Special).—A former Iowa Falls man is now owner of the fastest racer in the world, M. W. Savage, who has just bought Dan Patch for $60,000, being a former resident of this city, where he lived for a number of years. It was here that he started the stock food industry that has since given him a big fortune. Being unable to get his product on the market successfully he went to Minneapolis, where he organized the International Stock Food company. Mr. Savage is well known and was always a lover of horseflesh. He will keep Dan Patch for exhibition purposes. He retains Driver McHenry for two years and the latter thinks the horse will yet go in 1:57.

Former Iowa Man to Be Shot. IOWA FALLS, Ia., Dec. 10.—(Special).—Nate Haworth, formerly of this city, has been sentenced to be shot, the execution to take place on January 16, and to follow conviction for murder, the crime alleged to have been committed several years ago in Utah. The case has been on trial in the courts of that state for several years. The sentence to die was accompanied by the privilege of the condemned to be hanged or shot and he named the latter. Haworth lived here until a young man, when he went west and is said to have lived a wild life. His parents resided here up to a few years ago, when they moved to Fort Dodge, where they still live.

Killed for Slighting Remark. OTTUMWA, Dec. 10.—(Special).—At the mining town of Keb, near here, a murder was committed last night. Frank Williams and William Slater, both colored miners, had a quarrel over an alleged insult offered to the former's wife. Mrs. Williams led her husband to a cabin where Slater lived and demanded a retraction of something that had been said. The quarrel followed and Slater emerged from the house with a stab in his breast. He walked about thirty feet and fell to the ground dead. Williams gave himself up. Slater was unmarried and Williams has a wife and one child.

Will Announce Purchases. Santa Fe President is to Tell Directors of New Lines Bought.

TOPEKA, Kan., Dec. 10.—The directors of the Santa Fe will hold an important meeting tomorrow. It is expected that some interesting announcements will be made by Mr. Ripley, among them being the Texas Central railway, which has its terminal at Stamford, Tex., and will be used as part of a new line from New Mexico, to give a direct line from Galveston to the Pacific coast. The Santa Fe has already chartered such a line in New Mexico, and it is only a question whether it will buy an existing line or build its own.

There has also been some talk of a Santa Fe line to Fort Billwell, the terminus of the Orient road in Old Mexico, and the Santa Fe is said to be trying to purchase some short roads to incorporate in the proposed extension. The directors whose terms of office will expire are: Edward P. Ripley, Byron L. Smith, Charles Steele and Howell Jones. It is believed that all will be re-elected.

DEED OF A JEALOUS WOMAN. In Fit of Rage Fires Five Shots. One Fatal, a Five Near.

CARRINGTON, N. D., Dec. 10.—In a fit of jealous rage Miss Kittie Bondurant shot five times at Thomas Baker, inflicting a wound that will prove fatal. The woman was arrested. Baker is well to do.

Why Syrup of Figs is the best family laxative

- It is pure. It is gentle. It is pleasant. It is efficacious. It is not expensive. It is good for children. It is excellent for ladies. It is convenient for business men. It is perfectly safe under all circumstances. It is used by millions of families the world over. It stands highest, as a laxative, with physicians. If you use it you have the best laxative the world produces.

Because

Its component parts are all wholesome. It acts gently without unpleasant after-effects. It is wholly free from objectionable substances. It contains the laxative principles of plants. It contains the carminative principles of plants. It contains wholesome aromatic liquids which are agreeable and refreshing to the taste. All are pure. All are delicately blended. All are skillfully and scientifically compounded. Its value is due to our method of manufacture and to the originality and simplicity of the combination. To get its beneficial effects—buy the genuine. Manufactured by CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. San Francisco, Cal. Louisville, Ky. New York, N. Y. FOR SALE BY ALL LEADING DRUGGISTS.

JUDGING FRUITS AND CORN

Horticultural Exhibit Not up to Standard Owing to Wet Season.

PROF. HOLDEN TALKS ABOUT SEED CORN

Opens the Eyes of Agriculturists on the Lack of General Information on This Most Important Subject.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DES MOINES, Dec. 10.—(Special).—The culmination of the week's events of special interest to the agriculturists of the state came today, when the fruit and seed corn exhibits were judged by experts. The fruit judging was by a committee consisting of C. L. Watrous, Des Moines; R. M. J. Rohlf, Eldridge, and S. H. Marshall, Madison, Wis. The fruit exhibition at the state capitol was not as fine as it has been in other years, because fruit in Iowa did not come up to the average of the state, but many handsome specimens were shown from all sections. The seed corn exhibit was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is the head of the Department of Agronomy and will conduct the corn-judging school at the college in January. He spent a great deal of time demonstrating how to judge corn and among the veterans who have attended State Agricultural society meetings for many years he attracted more attention than anyone else. Prof. Holden was something new and novel. Specimens of seed corn were on hand to compete for prizes, and Prof. C. P. Holden of the State college did the judging. Prof. Holden is