He has charged Mrs Bruce with de-serting him and she is fighting the case through Baldrige & DeBord, local attorneys, averring that she has not money to appear in person unless the court will compel plaintiff to pay the expenses of her trip from Brooklyn, where she is resi-

In her answer she alleged that it was Bruce who did the deserting and it develops also that recently, after his suit was started, she applied to the New York courts for separate maintenance and was allowed $100 per week and attorney's fees, but can-not collect because he is in Omaha and she existence of these orders that Judge Dickinson has taken time for ruling on her motion here for alimony and suit money.

In one of her affidavits Mrs. Bruce not only charges infidelity, but affirms that her that he had paresis, was not responsible for what he did and, therefore, could kill her without being made to answer for it.
