OPERA HOUSE FOR DEADWOOD

First Purpose of Newly Organized Business Men's Association.

Names of the Officers.

DEADWOOD, S. D., Dec. 13.—Officers have been elected by the directors of the Deadwood Business club. S. W. Russell is president, Harris Franklin, vice president, and F. T. Harris, treasurer. Orville T. Pryce, secretary. Mr. Pryce is the only officer who is not a member of the board of directors. Other directors of the club are: John R. Wilson, D. A. McPherson, James Munn, B. P. Dague and George J. Ayres.

The directors are preparing to take up a number of matters of importance to the town. Among other things it is proposed to secure an opera house, to supply a want that has been felt since the burning of the old opera house a year ago. This becomes imperative, because of the coming meeting of the American Mining congress, to be held in Deadwood and Lead in September, 1903, there being no place in Deadwood adequate for the assembly. The club has been in existence a year and among the monuments that stand to its credit is the new hotel, nearly finished, at a cost of close to $100,000.

Indications Are That Coming Legislation Will Favor Re-location.

May Caucus Over Location.

HOT SPRINGS, S. D., Dec. 13.—(Special.)—Charles N. Cooper, postmaster at Huron and one of South Dakota's most prominent political workers, is making a tour of the Black Hills in the interest of the proposed re-submission of the state capital question. It is their intention to first secure a re-submission of the question without regard to the towns now striving to secure the location, and when that is accomplished the question will be submitted to a caucus, the town showing the greatest strength to secure the plum.

The Black Hills members have not committed themselves thus far, but it is understood that on this question, as in former legislation, they will stand united for the best interests of the Hills.
