THE TEACHERS MAKE THE SCHOOLSPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT—Prof. A. J. Lowry, the best known and conceded to be the most popular and efficient commercial teacher and accountant in the west, is now principal of the Commercial and Banking Departments.

Prof. A. C. Guthridge, principal of the Shorthand and Typewriting Department, has not only a collegiate education and practical experience in office work, but is the only shorthand and typewriter instructor in Omaha who has attended the Gregg school for teachers and received a diploma.

Miss Berg, principal of the Typewriting Department, is a teacher of rare accomplishments. The influence of her culture and refinement is felt on every hand.

Having instructors of such ability and experience at the head of the different departments, with their able assistants, gives this institution a faculty of teachers unsurpassed in the west.

From all indications every seat will be taken during the winter session. Many are securing their scholarships in advance in order to make sure of their accommodation. If you are thinking of a Business or Shorthand and Typewriting education, call or send for our new and elaborate catalogue, and after reading it no doubt will remain as to what school you will enter.
