PROVIDE FOR HIS FAMILY,

Illustrating By His Conspicuous Example the Principles of Life Insurance.

Thomas B. Reed's sudden death shocks the whole land and fills every American's soul with sorrow. Friend and foe alike acknowledge his mental capacity and the purity and integrity of his great public career. When he abandoned congress and voluntarily lay down his speaker's gavel three years ago, he forsook the most autocratic as well as the most influential position in public life afforded by our system of government.

THE PRESIDENT, HIMSELF,

has no such power to direct, control and prevent legislation as the Speaker of the American House of Representatives. Thomas B, Reed invented and exemplified in his person the modern speaker. He wielded his immense influence wisely and set the pace for the future legislative autocrat, which the people must hope will be maintained. Not only so, but his reason for abandoning his phenomenally successful career is the basic principle upon which life insurance associations like the aggressive.

BANKERS RESERVE LIFE

created, built into power and conducted. He retired voluntarily to private life in order that he might provide for the future of those dependent upon him and at the same time lay by something for old age, Every well conducted modern life insurance company offers+its policy holders, investment as well as indemnity. Investment if the insured lives through the term of his contract. Indemnity for his dear ones if the call comes as it did to Thomas B. Reed before his business and professional plans had reached fruition.

B. H. ROBISON, PRESIDENT of this excellent company wants the year 1903 to break all records. His heart is set on a $10,000,000 company for next year. Already over $6,000,000 is in force. Every death loss is paid. Every promise made by the company has been kept. The people are its friends and a wide field of action is, before the Association. Already a number of superior traveling men have abandoned their usual occupations and are working for the Bankers Reserve. The Gold Bond Policy of this company sells aetter than staples and rustling commerdal travelers are superior insurance underwriters. Mr. Robison can give good places to half a hundred commercial travelers by January 1st. It will be to the interest of persons interested to write the BANKERS RESERVE LIFE, OMAHA.
