TOTAL OF CITY ASSESSMENT

Tax Commissioner's Figures Show Property Valued at $111,048,705.

Table with columns: Real estate, Railroads, Personal, Total, Exclusive of railroads. Values: $72,387,000, $38,661,675, $111,048,705.

Assessment of the Tax Commission

Tax Commissioner Fleming has now far completed his work as to show the total figures of the assessment for 1903, as he adjusted it without the revisions which have been made by the Board of Review.

George D. Patterson appeared before the board yesterday as the representative of the Pacific Express company, which corporation the board had been asked by the Real Estate exchange to assess at $12,000,000 upon its capital stock of $8,000,000.

Mr. Patterson declared that he considered the only fair method of taxation of his company would be on its mileage. The case was taken under advisement.

Mr. Sheehan appeared on behalf of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha and the Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley railroad companies, but merely in a special way, to file protests against the jurisdiction of the tax commissioner and Board of Review, as had been done in the cases of the other railroad companies cited.

THE GAZETIAN is the Perfect Piano Player

It has attained perfection in the only way perfection ever can be attained—by the slow and careful elimination of the imperfections found in the earlier forms.

Terminals were as valuable now as they were in 1894, and the railroad attorney said that while he was not an expert on that subject, and would consider that Mr. McIntosh's opinion should be as good as his own.

As in the other railroad cases, Mr. McIntosh introduced records of the United States court with testimony of officers of the Omaha road as to the value of certain portions of the property of the company. In one place in this resorted testimony John B. Berry was shown to have stated that the terminals of the Omaha road had cost $285,500 prior to 1886 and were at the present time much more valuable.

The Board of Review yesterday completed its valuation of the personal property of the national banks of the city for the assessment of 1903. The valuation has been adjusted by the board on the figures furnished by the banks, but has been fixed in round numbers for convenience in apportioning the amounts among the stockholders of the different institutions.

The amount of capital stock and real estate holdings of each of the banks and the valuation placed by the board upon their property, respectively, is shown in the table below. The totals show a decrease from the figures of last year, which is partly due to a reduction of the capital stock of the Nebraska National bank by one-half and in some instances to the reductions by reason of real estate.

Table with columns: National Bank, Capital, Real Estate, Total. Lists various banks and their values.
