BENNETT'S HOLIDAY AFTERMATH!

The Great Receiver's Sale goes on. A settlement of our business affairs must be reached immediately. The order of the court to realize every dollar's worth, gives you a few more days for this CYCLONIC GOODS-FOR-NEXT-TO-NOTHING SALE.

The Court Says, Realize More Money

And the Dry Goods Departments swing into line. Monday morning will witness the MOST SENSATIONAL SLAUGHTER of strictly first class MERCHANDISE EVER HEARD OF IN THE WEST:

- All our women's Jackets, Cloaks, Capes and Ulsters will be sold at one-third off the marked prices. All our Fur Capes, Jackets, Muffs, Collarettes and Scarfs will be sold at one-third off the marked prices.

W. R. BENNETT CO. 16TH & HARNEY STS. E. E. HASTINGS, Receiver.

LAST CALL FOR TOYS

- Monday will finish up the Toys at Bennett's. Everything will be closed out at one price or another, and some things given away. A set of doll furniture free with every 50c purchase in our Toy department.

BANKRUPT SALE OF PIANOS And Organs Still in Full Blast.

- 1 new up-to-date piano, $225, our price $142. 1 new walnut piano $148. 1 new mahogany piano $152. 1 new oak piano $162.

- Second Hand: 1 large piano $185, 1 Sohmer-used $200, 1 Star-used $245, 1 Horlick-used $168.

THREE CARS IN TRANSIT. Every second hand, cheap piano naturally went first—high grades must be moved—still greater cuts. Those wanting a standard, high grade piano, will get it at a fraction of cost.

Bennett's Prices Were Always Lowest. And when you consider that from $75.00 to $150.00 is now taken from already exceptionally low prices, it gives those who really want and can appreciate a high grade piano, an opportunity long sought for.

EASY PAYMENTS, EASY PAYMENTS SHEET MUSIC. All 50c music from 12c to 21c. All 40c music from 10c to 18c.

part that exists in an eastern museum. The former is quite slender and, as one end is tapering, it is presumed that it was fashioned to fit into a handle of wood. The head of the weapon is three inches broad and, hurled by a man of strength, would make a wound that could hardly help from proving fatal.

QUAINT FEATURES OF LIFE. Walter E. Durson, millionaire heir of a New York starch manufacturer, still manages to get considerable enjoyment out of life, though he broke his neck while driving at Oryster Bay three years ago.

growsome relic was disclosed. A letter accompanying the package threw light on what promised to be a mystery. An old soldier in Mr. Brown's district was wounded during the civil war, and a few years ago the amputation of his hand became necessary.

fee, give the proper documents to enter into this blissful state. Let some good brother and sister make the start, and we venture to say that they will come as thick and fast as a Dakota snow.

William Shipley, a prominent farmer of Waynesville, Ill., has in his possession a remarkable relic of prehistoric man, which he dug up on his farm while plowing recently.

Editorial Amenities. Brooklyn Eagle: The new paragraph was anxious to know how his work was "going."

The average man's ambition to see his whimsicalities reprinted with credit. "Oh, I wouldn't want to put you to so much trouble," replied the paragraph, modestly.
