

AMENDMENTS TO TAX LAWS

Commissioner Fleming Will Suggest Several to Charter Revision Committee. WANTS DEFINITE DATE FOR ASSESSMENT

Consider Present Law Unsatisfactory Because Some Classes of Property Vary in Value During Two Months' Time.

Tax Commissioner Fleming said yesterday morning that he intends to prepare for the committee on charter revision before the close of next week some suggestions as to desirable changes in the laws on taxation. Speaking of this matter he said:

"Of course the principal change to be desired is the repeal of that clause of the charter in regard to railroad taxation which has been dealt with in the resolution adopted at the general meeting of Friday night. There are, however, other provisions of the present charter which might with advantage be revised, and these I will endeavor to point out. My suggestions will chiefly be calculated to facilitate the work of assessment.

HASTINGS & HEYDEN.

New Real Estate and Canada Land Firm.

E. T. Heyden has recently sold his interest in the Omaha Bicycle Co. and has associated himself with Byron R. Hastings, who has been with the Byron Reed Co. for the past fourteen years. They have opened a real estate business under the name of Hastings & Heyden, at room 510, N. Y. Life building. They have inspected large tracts of lands in Canada the past season and will have the sale of these lands the coming year. Sub-agents will be appointed in Iowa and Nebraska and excursions will be made to Canada several times each month, beginning early in the spring. In connection with these lands they will also handle city property and other farm lands. With the past four years' experience Mr. Hastings has had in the real estate business and Mr. Heyden's experience and reputation as a business man, these two gentlemen will no doubt command their share of the business transacted.
