Omaha Commercial College Breaks All Former Records

More than one hundred new students in two weeks. Every department interestng and profitable.

morow morning in the various departments, new classes will again be organized. We are expecting about fifty new students the coming week. They are still coming in upon all trains. A large number in Omaha will also begin. Now is the time to enter the Omaha Commercial College. The next four months mean much for those who attend. The busiest place in Nebraska is at the corner of 17th and Douglas streets, at the Omaha Commercial College.

Mosher shorthand, which is based upon the Gregg, now leads. It is being demontrated every day that it is far superior to the old fogy systems. Those who advocate antedeluvian methods and ride in prairie schooners, still stick to Pitman, Graham, Munson, and pure Gregg.

A new class in Shorthand will be organized Monday. Those who want to investigate this system will do well to enter this class. If you want to become a highpriced stenographer, in the shortest possible time, learn Mosher Shorthand.

DRESS MAKING.

KEISTER'S
LADIES' TAILORING COLLEGE, Suite 58-54-55-56 Douglas Block, 16th and Dodge Sts.
We will cut patterns free of charge for all ladies who will call at our college on Friday, Saturday and Monday of this week. We do this to demonstrate to the ladies of Omaha what we can do. Everything in ladies' tailoring and dressmaking we teach from practical work, not merely from theory.

thing in ladies' tailoring and dressmaking we teach from practical work, not merely from theory.

This is a branch of Keister's Ladies' Tailoring Coilege of St. Louis, and will be a permanent institution in Omaha. We are here to stay. No doubt many ladies of this city know of our coilege in St. Louis and of the class of patrons that attend our coilege, many of them being ladies of leisure and especially society women, who make many of their gowns for less than half the cost they can have them made clsewhere, make them better and in the latest style.

We design them and cut the patterns for you—you bring the material and two willing hands, and the result of a term at this coilege will please you. If a young lady of colonial times did not possess a knowledge which would enable her to design and make her own gowns she was considered as lacking in one accomplishment today then it was in those good old days, and is certainly one which any lady, no matter what her station in life, should be proud to possess, and without which her education is incomplete. From a practical standpoint, it is of inestimable value to all alike. With such knowledge you can design your own gowns to suit your own taste far better than your tailor can do it for you. Write for booklet.
