AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Council Will Make Land Trade with the Railroad Companies.

DEAL SAID TO BE IN CITY'S INTEREST

Part of Five Streets Vacated and a Strip of Land Accepted in Compensation from the Railroad.

About the only important feature of Monday night's council meeting was the report of the committee on streets and alleys in relation to the petition of the Omaha & North Platte Railroad company and the South Omaha Land company.

The committee, composed of Councilmen Walsh, Adams and Querson, reported in favor of vacating that portion of Thirty-sixth street between the north line of L street and the north line of I street, also those portions of I, J and K streets between Thirty-sixth street and Boyd street.

This committee asserts that the city will lose nothing by the vacation of the property desired by the railroad, while on the other hand in compensation it will acquire a graded street on the west side of Boyd street, from L street north to I street.

The complaint of L. C. Gibson against the steward at the emergency hospital was referred to the mayor and grounds committee without comment.

When it came to the reading of the proposition of the Wolf & Murnan company for land to be dedicated for a packing house, the members of the council smiled and the mayor referred the communication to the street and alley committee.

Change Arithmetics. At the Board of Education meeting last night a change in arithmetics was made. The book adopted is already in use in the schools here, but about 1,500 new books will be needed.

Three teachers were placed on the permanent list after a vote of two had been taken. Those now on the list are: Miss Thulin, Miss O'Neill and Miss Yost. Miss Eunice Kenner was placed on the assigned list.

Miss Montgomery will doubtless be gratified to know that her salary was raised from $65 to $65 a month and that she will hereafter teach in the eighth grade class.

Mrs. J. B. Johnson died at her home, Twenty-fifth and L streets, South Omaha, Monday afternoon. The deceased was the wife of J. B. Johnson, a well known brick layer, and was 82 years of age at the time of her death.

WOMAN IN CLUB AND CHARITY

Those colored women who belong to a club and study domestic science in the books, instead of the back kitchen, are invited to step over the door line this evening of January 20 and sit with the "quality" at the First Congregational church, while Prof. Perky, president of Oread institute, Worcester, Mass., further elucidates the problems of the household and the science of making both ends most neatly meet.

Such is the effect of a resolution adopted without dissent by the Women's club at its regular meeting yesterday afternoon. The action was the result of accident more than careful planning.

FIFTEEN MORE PATROLMEN

Fire and Police Board Names Its List After Much Deliberation. EX-CHIEF SIGWART AMONG THE NUMBER. Several Names Well Known in Connection with History of Recent Troubles Appear in the List.

After nearly four hours of deliberation, during which time nearly fifty applicants filed into the inner chamber of the Fire and Police board's rooms, the members of that body succeeded in making fifteen choices of men who they think sufficiently qualified to don the blue and carry on the duties of the force.

It is understood that five more appointees may be selected and the appropriations for the police department for the year not exceeded. The new patrolmen will be given a physical examination this afternoon, and if found qualified to begin their probationary service, will be given beats at once.

The board also decided that hereafter a schedule bond would be adopted instead of compelling the officers to give the board a personal or individual bond during the time they are serving the city.

The education committee gave up its time to Mr. Will Parker, trustee of the city, who read some verses from a newspaper concerning the greed of pouring oils and wines into other people's wounds and of the impropriety of passing by on the other side of the general public.
