Seiners Make Good Haul.

The seining of Lake Manawa is still being actively carried on under the supervision of Deputy Warden E. C. Brown. Yesterday the seine was drawn at Wray's landing, which is the portion of the lake where the bass are thought to be most plentiful. About 100 pounds of fish classed as "objectionable" were caught and became the perquisite of Bill Hall and Joe Scott, the fishermen employed to do the seining. It is estimated that nearly a ton of the varieties of fish which prey upon the game fish has been removed from the lake as the result of the seining. It is said that great care is exercised in the handling of the fish, so as not to injure the game fish, which are returned immediately to the water as soon as sorted out from the "objectionable" varieties.

READY TO BURY ITS WIRES

Telephone Company Only Waiting for the Coming of Warm Weather.

TALK OF ERECTING EXCHANGE BUILDING

City Attorney Redrafting Ordinance Requiring Other Wires Placed in Conduits and Will Be Ready in February.

It was announced yesterday that the Nebraska Telephone company would begin work in the spring, as soon as the weather conditions permitted, to place its wires in underground conduits within the district prescribed by the recently passed ordinance. This work will involve, it is estimated, an outlay of about $75,000, and will give employment for many months to a large number of men. There is some talk of the company adding to this expenditure by the construction of a building for its telephone exchange. The present quarters occupied by the company are said to be inadequate and unsuitable to the increasing business caused by the growth of the city.

The location of the exchange has not yet been determined upon, but it is understood that it will be in the center of the business part of the city and within a block or two of the present headquarters. It is said the company is prepared to expend $25,000 to $30,000 on its proposed building for a central telephone exchange.

Business men generally indorse the action of the city council in passing the conduit ordinance and favor the passage of the other ordinance with similar requirements for all telegraph, electric light and other wires within the prescribed district, so as to relieve the streets of the unsightly poles and the accompanying network of wires.

Mayor Morgan is expected home from Oregon tomorrow, when it is thought he will at once attach his official signature to the ordinance. In view of the fact that upward of 150 of the leading business and professional men of the city signed the petition urging the passage of the measure, it is not deemed likely that the mayor will hesitate in signing it.

City Solicitor Snyder is at present engaged in redrafting the other ordinance, which will include telegraph, electric light and the feed wires of the motor company, and expects to have it in shape to present to the city council at its meeting in February.

FRAZIER FILES HIS ANSWER

Makes Some Peculiar Allegations in Defense of Breach of Promise Suit.

Dr. J. W. Frazier of Honey Creek, Ia., against whom Miss Leona Mackison of Quincy, Ill., an evangelist of the United Brethren church, brought suit for $10,000 for alleged breach of promise to marry, yesterday filed in the district court his answer and a motion to have the trial of the suit continued until next term.

In his answer Dr. Frazier asserts that he and Miss Mackison discussed the evils of marriage without sincere love and affection between the parties and the mutual desire for its bonds, and that they both agreed that if at any time before marriage the affection of either of them was not wholly for the other, or if the desire of either had cooled or abated, the engagement was to be declared dissolved. Dr. Frazier further alleges in his answer that as a result of an accident Miss Mackison is unfit physically to marry and that he himself is suffering from tuberculosis of the lungs, both of which facts, he insists are well known to the plaintiff.

The doctor also makes the allegation that Miss Mackison has on more than one occasion stated to other persons that she no longer loved him and would not marry him under any circumstances, but she did want his money. Further, that she had also stated that she would have commenced the present suit long ago only she had waited until he had more property.

As ground for having the suit continued, Dr. Frazier asserts he has been unable to secure certain important witnesses and that owing to the death of his attorney, the late Chancellor L. D. Ross, he had engaged the services of Congressman Walter I. Smith; who would be unable to be present at this term of court.

Christian Endeavor Rally.

Rev. C. E. Eberman of Boston, field secretary of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, who conducted a rally of the workers and members of the young people's societies of the city and the Seventh Iowa district at the Congregational church yesterday, was greeted by good sized audiences at both meetings.

In the afternoon Rev. Eberman conducted a workers' conference, which was attended by a large number of the workers in the young people's societies. Practical hints and advice on matters pertaining to work for the young people of the church were given by Rev. Eberman, much benefit being derived by those present from the conference.

At the mass meeting in the evening Rev. James Parsons of Harlan, president of the Seventh District Christian Endeavor union, presided. Miss Clara Belle Our, secretary of the district union, was also present. Rev. Eberman addressed the meeting on Christian Endeavor work and what the movement is doing throughout the United States for the young people. There was special music, the choir being assisted by Ned Mitchell. At the close of the meeting Rev. Eberman conducted a second conference for those who were unable to attend the afternoon session.

Receiver Cannot Recover.

Judge Smith McPherson of the federal court has handed down his decision sustaining the demurrer of Thomas Bowman, M. F. Rohrer and others to the action brought against them in the United States court by A. U. Wyman, receiver of the Nebraska Fire Insurance company. A former action brought in the district court was decided in favor of the defendants, and it is expected that Judge McPherson's ruling will now end the litigation. About $10,000 was involved in the action. Bowman and other defendants were former stockholders in the defunct company and the receiver sought to make them liable for double the amount of their stock.

The board will go to Avoca Saturday and hear the case. The charge of insanity was made against Cuppy following the habeas corpus proceedings brought by his wife to remove him from the custody of his brother.

With the promotion of seventy pupils from the Washington Avenue school to the high school today, the enrollment in the latter institution will reach the highest mark in its history. The examinations which mark the closing of the first semester of the school year were completed yesterday in all the schools and the grade promotions will be made today. This forenoon the periods in the high school will be shortened and the pupils will be dismissed at noon, thus allowing the teachers the use of the afternoon in which to mark the examination cards, which will be given out Monday morning. Except for the promotions from the Washington Avenue building to the high school there will be but few changes in the grade schools.

Laborer Commits Suicide.

CRESTON, Ia., Jan. 22.—(Special Telegram.)—Peter Smith, who has been employed on the concrete gang near Nodaway, committed suicide some time last night in a room at the Park house by shooting himself in the head. His body was not found until late yesterday afternoon, when the door was broken in. He was a single man, whose home was at Rome. He left no money and but few personal effects. Letters on his person disclosed the cause to have been despondency. His father committed suicide in 1877 by hanging, after several attempts. The remains await word from his two sisters, the only living relatives.

The robber thereupon knocked him down with his revolver, inflicting a severe wound, then fled, with Buck crying loudly for help. He got no money, but left his hat and mask.

Proposes to Test Game Law.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Jan. 22.—(Special Telegram.)—Is it a violation of the Iowa game law to have in one's possession out of season prairie chickens shipped from Nebraska? B. C. The authorities found 206 prairie chickens in his meat market, seized the birds and arrested Potter. His case will be tried in a justice court Monday and a bitter fight is planned.

Dislocated Her Shoulder.

Mrs. Johanna Soderholm of Fergus Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness, and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep, which she had not done for several days. The son was so much pleased with the relief it gave his mother that he has since recommended it to many others.

MONROE GETS THE BANNER

Shows the Greatest Gain in Republican Vote at the Last Election

JASPER COMES SECOND ON THE LIST

Railway Men's Club Announces the Abandonment of Fast Freight Trains Both East and West Bound.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DES MOINES, Jan. 22.—(Special.)—The program has just been arranged for the annual meeting of the Iowa Tippecanoe club and announcement made of the winning counties for the banner and flag. The club has a banner which goes to the county which makes the best showing of comparative republican vote in the preceding state election and a flag to go to the second best. A committee of the club today awarded the banner to Monroe county and the flag to Jasper county. Monroe county came within three votes of having as many republican votes last year as in the presidential election of two years before. The banner for 1901 went to Dubuque and the flag to Davis county.

The banquet of the club will be held on February 9 in this city, when republicans from all over the state will gather here. The banner will be returned by Senator Crawford of Dubuque and will be presented to Monroe county by Governor Cummins. The flag will be returned from Davis by Colonel S. A. Moore of Bloomfield and will be presented to Jasper county by Mayor James Brenton of this city, on behalf of the club. The event is one which usually results in a large gathering of representative republicans from all over the state.

Fast Freight Trains Abandoned.

At a meeting of the Iowa Railway club in this city at which was gathered a large number of the leading railway superintendents and others, it was made known that after the first of next month the railroad companies crossing Iowa are going to abandon the effort to beat each other with fast stock trains from Missouri river points and beyond. The railroad managers have reached the conclusion that such competition as they have been indulging in for several years is too expensive and the damage to track and rolling stock by reason of the fast time made by stock trains more than counterbalances all benefits derived. The schedules will all be revised and the time lengthened. At the same time the fast trains for freight from Chicago westward will be abandoned and longer hours be allowed for the transportation of all freight.

Soldiers' Exemptions.

Attorney General Mullan today rendered an opinion to the state auditor on behalf of the county auditor of Bremer county in the matter of exemption for ex-soldiers on property listed for taxation. The attorney general pointed out that the exemption of $800 for soldiers applies to personal property and to real estate alike and should be deducted in every instance, save where it is found that a soldier has property worth above $5,000 to be listed for taxation. There has been some question as to whether this should be exempt from personalty, but the law makes no distinction.

No Coal Conference Delegates.

Governor Cummins has been urged by Mayor Maybury of Detroit to designate Iowa persons resident in Washington or others to represent the state at a second conference in regard to the coal situation to be held in Washington next Tuesday. The governor did not send delegates to the first conference and will not to this one.

Governor Cummins is confined to his home with illness, but hopes to be able to attend the Omaha club banquet January 29 and speak in memory of President McKinley. He has canceled all other immediate engagements.

Responsibility for Bee Stings.

The Iowa supreme court today affirmed a judgment in Warren county where a peddler compelled a farmer to pay for a team of horses stung to death by the farmer's bees. The team had been hitched near the bees and they attacked the horses. The horses were hitched in a public highway and the court holds the farmer negligent in placing his bees too near the hitching post.

The state case of Zenas W. John, from Muscatine, was affirmed, and he must serve ten years for perjury, because he swore falsely in trying to clear himself of a charge of murder.

Court Decisions.

The following were the decisions of the supreme court today:

Ernest Young of route No 3 returned at 5:05 o'clock, after a trip of twenty-two miles. William Devenney, carrier of route No. 1, got home at 5:10 o'clock, after serving patrons on a twenty-three and three-quarters-mile trip. William Graff of route No. 4 was the last one to get in. Twelve dead and fifteen badly wounded Venezuelans were counted in the fort at 7 last night. The result of today's bombardment is not yet known.

Reports First Day's Fight.

Panther left its position close to Fort San Carlos, which it took up earlier in the day, yesterday afternoon at 3, and joined Falke, half a mile outside the harbor and about five miles from the fort.

At 3 the correspondent of the Associated Press, in a rowboat, approached one side of the fort, out of range, and witnessed the long range fire of the German cruisers, which was continued from 3 till 6. Vineta and Falke were close together and nearer the fort than Panther.

The first two vessels, at a range of four and a half miles, poured in a continuous rain of shell and only stopped firing when it became dark. At this hour the German vessels retired seaward, after having made two ineffectual attempts to land troops in the village of San Carlos, situated at the base of the fort.

At 7 on Wednesday evening the correspondent, who was accompanied by a government telegrapher bearing a telegram from President Castro to the commandant of San Carlos, landed on the island and entered the fort. The walls were terribly battered and there were many evidences of the fierce engagement. Twelve dead Venezuelan soldiers were counted behind the ramparts and fifteen other men, seriously wounded, were lying on a low platform.

The fort was literally covered with pieces of broken shells, though many of the German shells had not exploded.

The magazine had a narrow escape, two shells having come within an ace of penetrating it.

It is estimated by the commandant, General Bello, that the German ships fired more than 1,600 shells.

German Aim is Bad.

Although the damage inflicted by the sustained fire of the German cruisers is great, it is not all that would be expected from such a continuous fire from modern high power guns.

The village of San Carlos suffered greatly. The aim of the German gunners appeared to have been inaccurate, for more than 60 per cent of their shells exploded in the village before reaching the fort. The cannon mounted at San Carlos had not sufficient range to reach Falke and Vineta, so the fire from these vessels was not returned. Vineta and Falke draw too much water to cross the bar. Panther alone could do so, and this explains why it was the only one to come in close to the fort.

Some of the artillery on the fort has been destroyed by the German fire, but there are still five guns that can be fired.

General Bello has shown great bravery and is in no way intimidated. He will not abandon the fort, but will resist as long as it is possible for him to do so. He swears that on January 17, the occasion of the first bombardment, Panther fired upon him first, without reason and without provocation.

The report that the biggest of the three attacking vessels was either English or Italian is untrue. All three vessels were German.

The Venezuelan gunboat Miranda is in Lake Maracaibo. It was doubtless the intention of Panther, in trying to pass the fort and get into the lake, to capture this vessel. The passage over the bar that leads into the lake is narrow and the fort commands it. General Bello is confident that he can sink Panther if it attempts to get by with the fire of the five guns that remain to him.

Wednesday night passed without incident and the garrison of Fort San Carlos rested from the fight of the day and made preparations for what the morrow might bring forth.

A fisherman from the village of San Carlos has arrived with his family. Two of his children were killed by shells from the German cruisers.

He reports that more than twenty-five Indian fishermen have been killed or wounded at San Carlos. The fishermen there are helpless.

Last night there was a popular demonstration on the streets of this town.

Caracas is Surprised.

CARACAS, Jan. 22.—The German bombardment of Fort San Carlos is incomprehensible here. The shelling was begun without any warning whetever. The foreign residents of Caracas are greatly dissatisfied with this action of the German waships, especially as the Venezuelan government maintains a fair and generous attitude in the matter of claims.

Senor Baralt, foreign minister, said today:

What more can we do than accept the terms of the powers and send Mr. Bowen with full powers from Venezuela to negotiate at Washington. Have we refused to agree to the terms?

State Department is Reticent.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—A cablegram has been received here from Mr. Russell, American charge at Caracas, confirming the press report to the effect that three warships began to bombard Fort San Carlos yesterday.

The cablegram does not indicate the result of the bombardment, and, in fact, contains no other detail.

There is a singular reticence on the part of the State department officials, suddenly developed, in connection with the Venezuelan situation and especially with reference to the German bombardment, which may be significant of the gravity with which they view the situation.

There is no longer any talk of exerting friendly influences to prevent these bombardments, but it is difficult for the department to answer congressional callers who are seeking for a reasonable explanation. An annoying feature of the situation is the probability that there may be a serious interference with Minister Bowen's mission, in which the United States, though not officially concerned, is deeply interested.

There were many rumors afloat to the effect that the State department had taken steps to point out to the foreign offices at London, Berlin and Rome its view on this subject, but this could not be confirmed today. It was stated that at present the attitude of the United States must be one of patient waiting. Secretary Hay still remains at his home nursing a cold. Such business as Mr. Bowen has to do with him is transacted at his house. The minister was up at an early hour this morning and disappeared from his hotel, so it was said, as cards were refused save to the German charge, Count Quadt, who returned unexpectedly from New York last night. He had been awaiting the arrival from Europe of his family.

So it is a fair proposition that his sudden return to Washington, without meeting them, was brought about by the untoward turn in Venezuelan affairs.

Allied Diplomats Confer.

Count Quadt also had a long conference at the British embassy with Sir Michael Herbert, and he also paid a call at the Italian embassy, where the ambassador, who is suffering from a slight indisposition, was unable to see him.

It was stated that nothing in the nature of an answer to Minister Bowen's proposition for a removal of the blockade, as a condition precedent to negotiations, had been received from any of the European foreign offices, although it is admitted that there is a free exchange of notes in progress between the embassies and the European capitals.

Later Mr. Bowen appeared at the State department and had a short talk with Dr. Hill and with Third Assistant Secretary Pierce. He is making a number of semi-official calls on the foreign embassies and legations, other than the allies, and it is believed that this is in pursuance of his general duty of adjusting any proper claims they may have against Venezuela.

It is the understanding that none of the countries which refrained from joining in the blockade will be permitted to suffer by Venezuela in consequence of forbearance, but citizens who have suffered as a result of a Venezuelan revolutionary movement will, when it comes to a settlement of claims, be placed upon an equality with claimants from England, Germany and Italy.

ROME, Jan. 22.—The second bombardment on San Carlos by the German warships has produced an unfavorable impression here, as the necessity for a recourse to violence is considered to have passed. Government officials are most cautious in expressing opinions of the matter, in view of the peculiar situation of Italy, that country being allied with Germany independently of the Venezuelan affair.

Officials, however, say frankly that Italy will continue its efforts toward conciliation as it has no resentment toward Venezuela and is seeking only to obtain the payment of its claims.

Up to a late hour this evening the Foreign office had received no representations from Washington regarding the bombardment.
