Division of Omaha Club on Matter of Administration and Behavior of People Who Go to Church Weddings.

The Day-Smith wedding has practically been the nucleus of the week's social activity and the numerous affairs given in honor of the prospective bride and groom afternoons and evenings of late, but have monopolized fashionable attention as well even the attention of those who were not included in the entertainment, and these were many. Next week's calendar is well scattered over with affairs of more or less

On Monday Mr. and Mrs. James Dewar will entertain the Thistle club, Mr. and first advantage in the community. Mrs. A. B. Smith will give a dinner for their daughter, Miss Edith, and Lieutenant Day and the Omaha Guards will hold their pegular medal drill, followed by an informal hop. On Tuesday the state whist tournament ppens and that will attract the interest of many; Mrs. Herman Kountze has cards out for 1 o'clock luncheon, Mrs. Milton Barwill entertain a whist luncheon and in the evening Mrs. S. D. Barkalow will entertain at dinner.

On Wednesday there will be the confinuation of the whist tournament and in the afternoon Mrs. Heaford and Miss Powell will entertain the Round Dozen club. On Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at Trinity cathedral will be solemnized the marriage of Miss Edith Margaret Smith and Lieutenant Clarence Richmond Day. It is to be one of the largest and smartest social functions of the winter and will be followed by a large reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen B. Smith, 3126 Chicago street.

On Thursday Miss Jean Campbell will entertain the members of the Charmante club in the afternoon and in the evening Mrs. Pritchett and Miss Pritchett will hold an informal reception for Miss Guitar of St. Joseph, Mo., who has been the guest of Mrs. Everett in Council Bluffs.

On Friday the third cotillion will be the being anticipated with interest. Mr. Luther Kountze will lead, Mrs. E. J. Mc-Clernand will entertain at luncheon and Mrs. Preston B. Meyers will be hostess of Catarrh is Found Everywhere.

Catarrh is at home anywhere and every-While more common in cold. changeable climates, it is by no means confined to them, but is prevalent in every state and territory in the union. The common definition of catarrh chronic cold in the head, which is long neglected often destroys the sense of smell and hearing, but there are many other forms of the disease even more obstinate and dangerous. Catarrh of the throat and bronchial tubes as well as catarrh of the stomach and liver are almost as common as nasal catarrh and generally more difficult ot

Catarrh is undoubtedly a blood disease and can only be successfully eradicated by an internal treatment. Sprays, washes and powders are useless as far as reaching the real seat of the disease is concerned.

Dr. Mciverney advises catarrh sufferers to use a new preparation, sold by druggists, called Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, because contain certain antiseptic qualities of the highest value, and being an internal remedy, pleasant to the taste, convenient and harmless, can be used as freely as required, as well for children as for adults.

As a matter of fact, there are not a few people who are evidently still unfamiliar with church etiquet, or, at any rate, churches of which they are not members, when it comes to matters aside from regular services, and as a result things occur occasionally that it is charitable, at least, to attribute to this cause.

Among the most conspicuous of these is the custom of the congregation rising when a bridal party enters the church. As a matter of fact, this is a mark of respect to those about to be wedded, but it is so generally abused that the majority of people are excusably of the opinion that it is merely a privilege that enables them to see the better, and under this mistaken impression, and the undentable excitement, well raised people, supposed to know the proper thing to do, acutally crowd each other like so many sheep and stretch their necks in a fashion that would make them irresistably ridiculous if everybody else were not equally absorbed in a similar interest. At a recent fashionable wedding, even though ribbons had been stretched to confine the congregation to the pews, the guests at the back of the church and even half way to the front, jostled each other in the aisles and craned their necks to see the bride and groom as they advanced into the chancel, a performance of which the principal event of the evening, and as it word "rubber" would have been a dignified has been a month since the last one, it is discription, and that must have been as vexing to the soul of those whose guests they were (could they have seen them) as to the short people whose misfortune it was to be "seated" at the rear of the church.
