MEN'S DISEASES

There is seldom a day that I am not consulted by an unfortunate sufferer who, if he had consulted me in regard to his condition in its early stages. I would have cured him and saved him much suffering, annoyance and expense. This, I consider, is due to lack of knowledge on the part of the One who has previously treated the case; therefore, I say to you If you are suffering from any disease or condition peculiar to inen, or if you have been a victim and been disappointed in not setting a permittent cure elsewhere, I would ask that you come to my office. I will explain to you OUR SYSTEM OF TREATMENT, which I have criginated and developed after a vhois life is experience in the treatment of special diseases of men. I will give you a thorough examination, together with an honest and selentific opinion of your case. If I find you are incurable, I will honestly tell you so. Found Dead on Barn Floor.

Marshal Sherman, a stableman in the employ of H. H. Van Brunt, was found dead the barn at the family residence, corner of Willow avenue and Bluff street, about 8 o'clock yesterday morning. The body was discovered by Mr. Van Brunt and infor several hours.

Conditions indicated that he had died while in the act of drawing water for the Printer, 307 Broadway. horses some time Friday night. The body lay a few feet from the hydrant, under which a pail had been placed and the water turned on. It was evident that the water had been running for several hours.

Dr. Jennings, who was called by Mr. Van Brunt, found that death was due to heart failure and was of the opinion that Sherman was dead before he struck the floor. Coroner Treynor, after viswing the remains, decided that an inquest was unnecessary and the remains, were removed to Cutler's undertaking rooms. Deceased was a veteran of the civil war, a member of the Knights of Pythias and had been a resident of Council Bluffs for many years. For a number of years he was in the employ of Mrs. J. L. Slewart as coachman.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock from the undertaking rooms of L. Cutler under the auspices of St. Albans' lodge, Knights of Pythias. Interment will be in Walnut Hill cemetery. Members of St. Albans' lodge will meet at their hall at 3 p. m. The members of Abe Lincoln post. Grand Army of the Republic, will meet at the undertaking rooms.
