Thirty-Sixth Street Appraisers May Report to Council Tonight. BURLINGTON'S PROPOSITION FAVORED City Officials Seem to Believe in Road Will Be Giving Full Value for Concession Asked.

It is expected that at tonight's meeting of the city council the appraisers appointed a week ago will make a report on the proposition to vacate a portion of Thirty-sixth street for the benefit of the Burlington road.

At the present time the Burlington and the Union Stock Yards company are spending much money in grading for tracks and for the extension of cattle pens in the western part of the yards.

The three damage cases recently filed doubtless will be brought up and referred to the city attorney. As usual of the cases have been filed after the usual twenty days' limit allowed by law.

At the present time the city council has the day as to whether the stock inspector ordinance should be passed or not.

IRISH DENOUNCE BRITISH

Call Government Bloodthirsty and Cowardly for Condemning Lynch. ONE SPEAKER ASKS CONSERVATIVE ACTION Says Australia is Already Petitioning King for Clemency and it is Better to Await Result Before Breaking Silence.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—At a meeting of delegates of the United Irish-American Societies of New York, presided over by Daniel P. Colahan tonight, resolutions were adopted denouncing the British government and its attitude toward the Irish.

At this time, when England for its own selfish purposes is attempting to conceal its enmity to America under the guise of friendship in order the more thoroughly to avail itself of the superior power, it endeavors to set aside one of the cardinal principles of our institutions and to take the position of the greatest sources of our strength.

Advocate a policy of silence so far as the American people are concerned. Twelve million Irish must have a heavy influence in England in case they move conservatively.

The committee was immediately organized and decided to call a general convention this week.

MOUNTAIN SNOWS MELTED BY RAIN HELP TO SWELL THE FLOODING RIVERS. PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 25.—The heavy rains of the past forty-eight hours have caused the snow in the Cascade and coast range to melt, and the result is that the streams flowing into the Willamette river have become torrents.

Advices from the upper river today show that the Willamette is higher than ever before recorded, and much damage has been done to farms along the river.

The river at this city rose three feet during last night, and tonight stands fifteen feet above low water.

At Eugene, Ore., the Willamette river registered twenty feet above low water mark, the highest mark of which there is no record.

AT THE PLAYHOUSES

Ben Hendricks has been coming to Omaha for the last thirteen years with his "Ole Olson" makeup and dialect, but the size of the house he drew at the Boyd last night would seem to indicate that the play and the player have lost none of their charm for the people.

Two large audiences passed a verdict of approval on the bill at the Creighton-Orpheum yesterday. No one of the acts stands out with any striking prominence above the level of excellence set by this house during the present season.
