

MONEY IS VOTED EASILY

HousE PASSES Military Academy Appropriation Inside of Twenty Minutes.

CALLS FOR INDIANOLA CORRESPONDENCE

Postmaster General is Asked to Submit All Documents He Has Relating to Mrs. Cox's Case in Mississippi.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The house today made a new record in the matter of appropriation bills, when it passed the military academy bill without a single word of debate. The Indian bill, which followed was not completed today, as Mr. Burton (Ohio) made a long speech on it in general criticism of a policy of the government toward the Indian.

Call for Indiana Letters.

Mr. Loud (Cal.) presented as a privileged report a resolution from the postoffice committee, calling on the postmaster general to transmit to the house, if not incompatible with public interests, all documents concerning the recent resignation of the postmaster at Indianola, Miss.

Mr. Williams (Mass.) asked to permit him to offer an amendment to include the president, as well as the postmaster general.

Mr. Loud declined to yield, saying that the report of the committee was unanimous.

Mr. Swanson (Va.), a minority member of the postoffice committee, said his understanding was that the resolution would procure all the correspondence, except a single personal letter to the president, which it would not be compatible with the public interests to publish, and that he had, therefore, agreed to the resolution. The resolution was adopted.

Money Voted in Five Minutes.

The house then proceeded to the consideration of District of Columbia matters. When the military academy appropriation bill, carrying $444,273, was taken up, was read and passed in twenty minutes without an amendment or a word of debate.

Mr. Overstreet (Ind.) submitted the report upon the anti-trust bill, amendment and obtained consent for individual members of the judiciary committee to file their personal views.

The House Ordered 5,000 Copies of the Majority Report.

The consideration of the Indian appropriation bill was then entered upon.

Mr. Sherman (N. Y.), in charge of the bill, agreed with Mr. Burton (Ohio) that the government had been liberal beyond justice to the red men. The ration system, he said, was continued in pursuance of treaty stipulations. Mr. Burton made numerous criticisms and offered several amendments, but they were voted down. After completing twenty-five of the fifty-two passages of the bill the house adjourned.

QUAY BLOCKS ALL BUSINESS

Says Statedhood Bill Must Be Disposed of Before Senate Discusses Other Matters.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—(Special.)—Mr. Quay (Pa.), in charge of the omnibus statedhood bill, insisted on its consideration to the exclusion of all other business.

When Mr. Platt (N. Y.) attempted to call for a committee report providing for the printing of a document, Mr. Quay objected.

Mr. Hale (Me.) thereupon declared that Mr. Quay was confiscating the time of the senate. The latter replied calmly that this could be obviated by allowing a vote on the statedhood bill.

A resolution offered by Mr. Morgan (Ala.) questioning the credentials of Dr. Herran, the Colombian charge d'affaires, who signed the canal treaty, caused the senate to go into a long executive session. At its conclusion the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill was printed and read for its consideration. To this Mr. Quay (Pa.) objected.

Mr. Hale (Me.) said the objection was extraordinary and that things had come to a pretty pass if privileged reports from the committee on printing could not be considered. He said that Mr. Quay had confiscated the time of the senate from 2 o'clock and he now sought to confiscate the time of the morning hour in the interest of the statedhood bill. He hoped Mr. Platt would move to take up the printing resolution.

Mr. Morgan (Ala.) presented a resolution inquiring into the validity of Senator Herran's credentials and upon motion of Mr. Aldrich (R. I.), seconded by Mr. Hale, the senate went into executive session, which lasted two hours.

When the doors were reopened the credentials of Mr. Kiltroe (S. D.), elected to succeed himself as senator, were presented by Mr. Gamble (S. D.) and the oath of office administered.

The statedhood bill was laid aside informally and the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill was taken up.

An amendment offered by Mr. Lodge (Mass.) providing for a reorganization of the entire consular service was rejected on a point of order raised by Mr. Gallinger (N. H.).

The diplomatic and consular appropriation bill was then passed.

The statedhood bill then was taken up and Mr. Forsaker (O.), having it in charge in the absence of Mr. Quay, yielded for the passage of a house bill making an appropriation for the suppression and to prevent the spread of contagious and infectious diseases of livestock.

Mr. Burnham was not ready to continue his speech today and at 4:30 the senate adjourned.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Board of Education Promotes Three Teachers and Raises Some Salaries.

COUNCIL HOLDS UNIMPORTANT SESSION

Report of Appraisers on Land Deal with Burlington Railroad is Approved—General News of Magic City.

When the Board of Education met last night quite a number of visitors were present, but the action of the board soon convinced the lobby that the Omaha school journals were wrong and that no teachers now on the list were to be dismissed.

Three teachers were taken from the list assigned last and placed on the regular list. Agnes Walsh, Nellie Figgerson and Miss Giffin were those named by the teachers' committee for promotion and the salaries were raised. Miss Walsh will get $50 a month, Miss Fitzgerald $50 and Miss Giffin $40. The salaries of Miss Broderick and Miss Miller were raised from $35 to $50. Both are fourth grade teachers. Miss Mattie Campbell was voted an increase of salary from $65 to $75 a month, to commence at the beginning of the second semester.

Miss Edith Carpenter had her salary raised from $55 to $60 a month. Miss Carpenter is one of the primary teachers. Morrill brought up the typewriter question again. It was in the form of a motion to rent ten machines from the Smith and Remington people at $2.50 a month each. Then the question was asked by a member of the board if the price mentioned would be new or old machines. Morrill then inserted a clause in his motion that if the machines were not new they would be returned. Kubat then stated that at the time the Oliver machines were taken away on a review the board had been furnished ten new machines by J. F. McKeenolds. "I do not propose to turn a man down now who helped us out when we were in a hole," said Member Kubat in closing his remarks. Miller followed and said that he was satisfied with the price mentioned for if a purchase is finally made the entire amount of rental will apply on the purchase price. Then a vote was taken and by a vote of 5 to 3 the body decided to retain the machines now in use.

A few minor matters were taken up and disposed of and then the board adjourned until next Monday night.

Council Has Short Session.

The city council held a short session last night. All members were present and the mayor occupied the chair. The first business of importance was the reading of the three damage claims previously mentioned in the Bee. All of these claims, which aggregate $25,500, were referred to the city attorney.

Interest centered in the report of the appraisers appointed to investigate the request of the Burlington road for a vacation of Thirty-sixth street. The appraisers, F. J. Persons, J. H. Kopsitz and J. B. Watkins, gave a lot of statistics showing the value of the property to be vacated, as well as a valuation on that strip along Boyd street which the railroad company wishes to give to the city in return for a portion of Thirty-sixth street. The appraisers find, according to their report, a difference of $1,043.

Upon motion of Adkins, the report of the appraisers was confirmed and upon payment of the amount mentioned the city attorney was directed to draft an ordinance vacating the streets and alleys asked for by the railroad company.

Welsh suggested that the mayor appoint a committee to draft suitable resolutions on the death of William G. Sloane, the second mayor of South Omaha. Mayor Kousky appointed Adkins, Welsh and Quisenberry to do this duty. In the same motion the city officers were ordered closed on the day of the Sloane funeral.

Adkins complained about the failure of Dan Hannon to commence the grading of Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets, from Missouri avenue to M street. He said the contract had been made some time ago, but Hannon, while he had his outfit here, had not started the work. The clerk was directed to notify Mr. Hannon that unless he made an effort to start at once, the contract would be let to others.

A plat of another addition on Spring Lake street was submitted and approved. The council then adjourned.

Death of William G. Sloane.

William G. Sloane, one of the oldest residents of South Omaha, died at his home, Twenty-fifth and J streets, at 6 o'clock Monday morning, after an illness lasting several months.

The deceased was born December 29, 1850, at Shelton, Frankfort, Kentucky. He was in the army in the Civil War, and in 1864, 1865, 1866, 1867, 1868, 1869, 1870, 1871, 1872, 1873, 1874, 1875, 1876, 1877, 1878, 1879, 1880, 1881, 1882, 1883, 1884, 1885, 1886, 1887, 1888, 1889, 1890, 1891, 1892, 1893, 1894, 1895, 1896, 1897, 1898, 1899, 1900, 1901, 1902, 1903.

Mr. Sloane was probably one of the best-known men in South Omaha and his host of friends will be greatly pained to learn of his death, although his physicians announced a few weeks ago that the end was approaching.

While arrangements for the funeral have not been completed, services will be held at St. Martin's church, Twenty-fourth and J streets, either Wednesday or Thursday. The city officers will close on the day of the funeral, and the city officials will attend in a body.

General services over the remains of William G. Sloane will be held at St. Martin's church, Twenty-fourth and J streets, at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Wise, rector, will officiate. The interment will be at Laurel Hill cemetery.

The city officers will be closed on Wednesday, and the mayor and members of the council, as well as other city officials, will attend the services at the church. Members of Knoxall council, Royal Arcanum, are requested to meet at Masonic hall, Twenty-fifth and N streets, at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and attend the services in a body.

Ice Cutting Off.

Ice cutting on the lakes and ponds in the vicinity of South Omaha is off for the time being. The weather of Sunday and Monday put a stop to the work which has been going on for a week on the second crop. While packers say that they have not enough ice yet they hope for another cold spell, and are looking for a third crop next month or during March. Even with the ice on hand, there will be plenty to last through the summer, as a large quantity was left over from last year.

Manager Patterson Arrives.

L. B. Patterson of Chicago, who is slated to take the place of P. D. Schuch as manager of the Swift plant in South Omaha, arrived yesterday and put in a portion of the afternoon looking over the plant. It is understood that Mr. Patterson will assume charge on February 1, when Mr. Manchee will go to Chicago to assume a position with the same concern there.

Material Arriving.

W. B. King, chief engineer of the Union

STOCK YARDS COMPANY

said yesterday that one car of lumber for the repairs to the Q street viaduct had arrived. He cannot, he said, be certain whether the lumber is in sight. The L street viaduct is in good shape just now, but the repairs most needed are for the Q street bridge. As long as there is a chance of repairs beginning soon the council will not take any steps toward closing the Q street bridge.

Need Refrigerator Cars.

South Omaha packers are calling upon the railroads to deliver the usual quota of refrigerator cars. As a usual thing thirty cars a day are sent out by packers loaded with dressed meats and packing-house products. Within the last few weeks there has been a scarcity of refrigerator cars, and the packers have been compelled to cut down their shipments. Certain railroad officials assert that the refrigerator cars are being sidetracked for coal trains.

Magic City Gossip.

Frank J. Fille was up from Lincoln yesterday visiting his friends.

The Presbyterian king's daughters will give a hard times social at Workman hall Thursday evening of this week.

The annual election of officers of the South Omaha club will be held tonight at the clubrooms on Twenty-fourth street.

OMAHA IS TAKING FRENCH

Therefore Oastarrh of Nose and Earsma Between Shoulders Are Welcome

FOR THE GESTURES GO WITH THE TALK

Afternoon Class Has Appearance Similar to Three Sheets Torn from Census Report at Random in Dark.

Just now there are several hundred people in Omaha who could endure calmly of the nose and a touch of eczema between the shoulder blades without a protest. For they have joined the Nesbit classes, started Friday at the Young Men's Christian association, and are "taking French."

They no longer stand upon the floor, but sit at the table, but in table, learn not by the book, but by the live; write not with the pen or pencil, but with a plume or the crayon; and not upon the paper, but upon the paper, which same may be enclosed not in the envelope, but in l'envoiepe. In short, each declares "Je parle francais a la perfection" and expects other people to believe it.

Yesterday afternoon's class looked like three sheets torn from a census report at random and in the dark. One of the most prominent attorneys in Nebraska sat next to a woman whose renown is no broader than the circle of friends who have tried her angel food. Another attorney with "spears" and political aspirations was between two cherubs from the high school. A patriarch of military title and great prominence in railroad circles had in his chair the reader will notice how readily one acquires the habit, directly each of that society by a girl of 12. The editor of a weekly paper shared a corner with people who never break into his columns earlier than the sixth page. The woman's club was very largely represented, while as for teachers—tres, tres beaucoup!

Gymnastic, Linguistic and Otherwise.

And they were all straining at the same gymnastics, linguistic and otherwise. The teacher would exclaim "le plafond," and 200 hands would point dutifully ceilingward; and he would exclaim "le plancher," and the same 200 hands would be inverted. Then, just to "try" them he would point to the window and exclaim "la porte," where 200 voices would sing out in correction, "Non, non, monsieur!"

"Ah, la fenetre."

"Out, out, monsieur." And, of course, after that, there couldn't remain any doubt about their knowing what was doing.

And the gestures go with this recitation. They are, perhaps, in some cases, rather peculiar gestures, more suggestive of St. Vitus' dance than of artful Paris, but to date the gestures are as good as the talk, for both are unmistakably new. Neither the French shrug nor the French nasal is it being made apparent, anything a man can do to make a Frenchman understand that he will be able to have it ready to take down town with him on the 5-30 car. No, indeed, ce n'est pas! (At this point the reader will place the thumb and forefinger of the right hand surreptitiously and firmly over the nose and say "Je comprends," thus proving that he knows the answer.)

Only a few sentences were tried yesterday. They were rather loosely-jointed affairs, with the basting threads showing plainly, but they gave hope.

Immense French Classes.

Prof. Nesbit's classes have grown too large for the Y. M. C. A. parlors, and they now meet in the Omaha Business University hall, Patterson block, Seventeenth and Park streets, at 10-30 a. m., 4:30 and 8 p. m.

ATHLETES NOT TO CROSS SEA

Amateur Union After Long Discussion Refuses Sporting Invasion of England.

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—The Amateur Athletic union will not sanction the proposed invasion of England by a number of American college athletes, under direction of George W. Overton of the University of Pennsylvania.

George T. Sullivan, secretary of the Amateur Athletic union, today said: "Mr. Overton's request that the Amateur Athletic union give sanction to an athletic team to invade England, and the contention was thoroughly discussed by the board of governors, but they find themselves unable to grant it, mainly because the affair is in charge of an individual and not an organized club. The union cannot sanction it as it is in violation of the American standard."

Claim in favor of international contests, as instanced by the games of 1896. At that meeting the Englishmen were under the management of a gentleman appointed by the parent body to take full care of the finances while the men competed in the one-sided contests arranged. Such meetings reflect nothing but credit on those concerned, whereas meetings with numerous foreign concerns cannot do harm to our amateurs.

CHORYNSKI DEFEATS MAHER

Beaten Boxer Seems Afraid of Opponent, Who Knocks Him Out in Second.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 26.—Peter Maher was knocked out by Joe Chorynski in the second round of a ten-round bout at the Washington Sporting club. Maher was apparently afraid of his opponent, and in the second round he was knocked down from a left-hand swing on the jaw and was counted out.

In the first round Chorynski used a left-hand jab to good effect and by fast foot work kept away from Maher, and the latter was unable to get near him. Finally Chorynski landed fairly on Maher's jaw with a terrific blow.

In the second round it was plain sailing for Chorynski. Maher was slow and seemed to
