Gait for the Coming Week Will Not Be Such a Rapid One.

MANY AFFAIRS, BUT MOSTLY SOCIAL

Calendar is Quite Full of Things that Will Prevent Any Stagnation, but Will Not Upset Any Traditions.

Considering all that people have had to say during the last fortnight, the grumbling and promising, the week's calendar is s mething of a disappointment, even to liose who do not as a rule take that sort at thing seriously. To be sure, there is mething scheduled for nearly every day, but there always is for that matter, and the week's affairs are for the most part s nall club meeting, luncheons and the like. On Monday the membership banquet of Young Women's Christian association Ill include a large gathering in the evening. There will be the regular dinner at the Omaha club and the smoker at the

Among the most welcome institutions that fashlonable adoption has made popu-1-r-as well as possible-is the kensington Fincheon, or, in other words, not, only the privilege, but the invitation to spend the liternon, or a part of it at least, with the lostess who has entertained at midday ncheon. Of course people always do stay a little while-that is, those who have not a round to make during the afternoon, but it is an unsatisfactory sort of hanging on that spoils the day for almost everything «ise, and the provision for the afternoon is cenerally welcomed as a balance for lancheon, which, in spite of its degree of e aborateness, is a break in the day,
