That the governor's appointment of a board of water commissioners under the stitutional is the opinion of City Attorney

Connell, who said yesterday morning: "The gentlemen whose names have been mentioned in this connection are among our best citizens, and undoubtedly well a board, but in my opinion their appointment at this time by Governor Mickey would be premature and absolutely without authority of law. The pretended authority is claimed to be given by sections 5 and t of Howell's water works bill. In the first place I do not think the governor can be empowered to appoint a water board for the city of Omaha, as his act in that behalf would be an usurpation of the power that can only be exercised by the inhabitants of the city. By this I mean the right of the people to local self-government and to control their own affairs and expenditures, especially those that do not relate to the maintenance of peace and good order in which presumably the entire state has an upon the former power of the council to make a levy for the purposes of the water fund Mr. Connell said:

"The council cannot now legally make any such levy. The Howell bill amends a number of sections of the charter and among others section 138, relating to the annual levy of taxes for municipal purposes. Special mention is made of each fund, and the limit of the levy for each fund is stated. Among the other funds for which a levy was authorized under the section prior to the passage of the Howell water works bill was the water fund, as follows: 'For providing a fund for paying for water for fire purposes and for public use, $100,000.' POWER TO PURCHASE REMAINS

Supreme Court Reaffirms Decision in the Poppleton Water Works Case.

The city of Omaha still stands with power to purchase the water works under contract at any time it wishes now, and at the same time it has no power to secure the 200 extra hydrants desired until such purchase is

This is the result of a decision just handed down by the supreme court of Nebraska, in which was reaffirmed the decision of some years ago rendering permanent the Poppleton injunction against the city council. This injunction restrains the council from extending the time of purchase under contract five years, or from 1903 to 1908.

E. M. Fairfield, manager of the Omaha Water company, received telegraphic information from Lincoln yesterday to the affect that this reaffirmation had just been handed down. The case started in 1898. At that time the contract between the city and the water company read for twenty-five years, with the addition that the city might purchase the works after twenty years if desired. The contract dated from 1883. An ordinance was introduced providing

YOUNG MEN FOR CAMPAIGN

McKinley Club Proposes to Take Active Part in Political Contests.

Club Adopts Resolution in Favor of Nebraska Legislature Making Appropriation for Exhibit at St. Louis World's Fair.

The McKinley club is placing its lines to inject young men into future campaigning the president of the club to appoint campaign and each spring campaign, such committees to direct and have charge of the campaign work of the club, in cooperation with the central committee, supplying young speakers from the ranks of the club whenever any such can be of use. For the fall campaigns the appointments are to be made within thirty days after the first regular meeting of the club in August, such committee to include eleven members, or one for each Omaha ward, one for South Omaha and one for the county outside the two cities. The spring campaigu committee, to be named within thirty days after the first regular meeting in February, is to include but nine members, or one for each ward in Omaha. Beyond perfecting organization, neither committee is to do anything until after the republican convention, as the club proposes to ally itself with no faction. The resolution was introduced by E. S. Park. Charles Fear introduced the resolution which is now going the rounds of organized bodies declaring in favor of the Nebraska legislature making an appropriation adequate to maintain an exhibit of the products of the state at the Louisiana Purchase exposition in St. Louis in 1904. The resoand that as far as an American joke is lution was adopted and will be sent to Senator Saunders in the senate and Representative Gilbert in the house.
