WILL PROTECT AMERICANS

Committee Takes Up the Cause of American Railroad Men in Mexico.

The brotherhood relief committee of Kansas City railway orders, with headquarters at Kansas City, is now actively in operation with its plan for investigating the alleged mistreatment of American railroadmen in Mexico, and of putting a stop to the practices of unjust discrimination of which complaint is made.

The committee alleges that a railroad man from the United States who may be handling a train that has an accident and kills some Mexican subject will be imprisoned for an indefinite length of time.

It is stated that a subject of Great Britain, meanwhile, is not time denied the right to give bond, nor an impartial trial.

Many Americans are now imprisoned there, states the committee, and it proposes raising a fund to pay the expenses of a personal investigation by the committee.

It is stated that frequent complaint has been made of this state of affairs to the American consuls, but to no avail.

The brotherhood relief committee is formed by the appointment of one member from each of the local railway orders in Kansas City. It comprises a chairman, James Corrigan, from the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, division 54; a manager and secretary, Harry H. Adams; a consulting attorney, Ben E. Edley; a treasurer, C. E. Hutchison; and three committeemen, W. H. Hollis of the Order of Railway Conductors, division 55; N. O. Harris of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen No. 330, and Dock Swann of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen No. 281.

COMMITTEE TO PUSH TAX FIGHT

Chairman of Mass Meeting Appoints Citizens to Work for House Roll 173.

T. J. Mahoney, chairman of the railroad taxation mass meeting of citizens Friday night, in concurrence with a resolution adopted by that body, appointed the following committee of ten men to go to Lincoln and urge the passage of House bill 173, known as the "tax on railroads."

The committee is composed of Victor Rosewater, Charles H. Brown, Alfred Millard, Thomas Kilpatrick, David Cole, Mel Uhl, Herman Kounitz, W. H. Bell. Some of the members of this committee held an informal meeting Saturday, to determine upon no definite plan of action.

BURLINGTON SETTLES CASE

Arranges Discrimination Charge on Eve of Special Investigation.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 7.—Judges J. D. Youmans and C. A. Prouty, members of the Interstate Commerce commission, came to Kansas City today to hear a case brought by Albert Barr, a merchant of Kearney, Mo., against the Burlington railroad.

The allegation is that the railroad charged him the same rates to Chicago as it did Kansas City merchants. The case was settled by the attorneys, however, and the commissioners returned to St. Louis tonight.
