

CONDITION OMAHA'S TRADE

Volume of Business Last Week Rather Light Owing to the Storm. SUGAR MARKET A TRIFLE LOWER. How Movement of Farm Produce Said to Be Retarding Collections to Quite an Extent, but No Serious Trouble Is Expected.

Unfavorable weather last week caused both wholesale and retail trade to slacken a trifle. The effect of the weather was taken out of the week the total volume of business was fully as large as could be expected. No one anticipates a serious decline of business for this week.

The only disturbing element in the trade situation seems to be the slow movement of farm produce. Very little grain is being shipped out of the country and as a result farmers are short to some extent of ready money.

The grain market is also a little easier and may be quoted 50 cents higher than a week ago. The wheat market is very firm and fancy country grades are in demand.

Hardware market was rather quiet last week. The lumber market was rather quiet last week. The coal market is very quiet.

There was not any great rush of buyers on the dry goods market. The market is quiet and steady.

The market situation has not changed materially since last report. The market is quiet and steady.
