

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Ordinance for Purchase of Water Works Introduced and Read. STOP INTEREST ON SPECIAL WARRANTS Resolution Directs City Treasurer to Buy Those That Seem Permanent and Hold Them Indefinitely.

No debate or comment greeted the water works ordinance, which was introduced in the council last night by Councilman Mount, read the first and second times under a suspension of the rules and referred to the committee on finance and city affairs.

The following resolution, introduced by Councilman Mount, was adopted: The city treasurer be and is hereby authorized to purchase any special fund which he may deem available for the redemption of any special fund which has in his judgment become a fixed obligation of the city and to carry said warrants unconditionally pending future disposition, and thereby save 1 per cent on said special warrants.

A favorable report was made by the finance committee on the claim of the Taxpayers' club for the refund of surplus funds out of any special fund which he may deem available for the redemption of any special fund which has in his judgment become a fixed obligation of the city.

An ordinance introduced last summer and providing for a contract with the Omaha Street Sign company for the erection of free street signs bearing advertising matter, was placed on file. The city already has a contract for satisfactory street signs which are now being erected.

Ordinances were read the first and second time for creating sewer district 279, which is for an eight-inch pipe from Thirty-third to Thirty-second street on Cass, and for grading of Thirty-third street from California to Burt without cost to the city.

MUSIC AND MUSICIANS

Gabrilowitch Piano Recital. Oseip Gabrilowitch, the Russian pianist, is to give a recital at Kountze Memorial church, program: Part I. Bach-Tocatta, Fugue (D Minor) Beethoven-Op. 28, Sonata (Pastorale) Allegro, Andante, Scherzo, Rondo.

Oseip Gabrilowitch, the Russian pianist, came very close to the hearts of the 400 music lovers who heard his recital at Kountze Memorial church last night. Though it was his first appearance here, and despite the fact that he risked all by departing emphatically from the usual and expected array of recital selections, his work so thrilled the soul of the man that Gabrilowitch won immediate and fervent commendation. His all-pervading individuality was not to be mistaken.

Gabrilowitch's motto would seem to be "no mannerisms, no conceits" for he sedulously avoids both. His artistic fire is held at play yet dignified poise at the piano, and he plays distinctively with his hands. Four times was he recalled to the platform after each of his earlier numbers, yet he refused to play an encore.

Something You Can See in Any Restaurant or Cafe. A physician puts the query: 'Have you never noticed in any large restaurant at lunch or dinner time the large number of heavy, vigorous, old men at the tables, men whose ages run from 60 to 80 years, many of them bald and all perhaps gray, but none of them feeble or senile?'

Perhaps the spectacle is so common as to have escaped your observation, but comment, but nevertheless it is an object lesson which means something. If you will notice what those hearty old fellows are eating you will observe that they are not munching bran crackers nor gingerly picking their way through a menu card of well-fangled health foods.
