BONE SETTER'S MARVELOUS WORK

With His Bare Hands, Without Knife or Giving the Least Pain, He Does the Work Quickly.

CRIPPLES COMING TO HUDSON, WIS.

This seems too good to be true. But it is true, every word of it.

Mrs. J. W. Day, a pioneer of Minneapolis, mother of Eugene H. Day, the leading wealthy real estate man of Minneapolis, and the mother of Mrs. Mackey of London, England, here tells the readers of The Omaha Bee how she suffered with a dislocated hip and how the Bone-Setter at Hudson, Wis., gave her instant relief and set her hip with his bare hands, without knife or giving the least pain, and so quickly that she did not know when the hip was set. Her statement is witnessed by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Eugene H. Day, residing at 226 South 7th street, Minneapolis, Minn., and also by Mrs. F. M. Clarendon, a friend of the family. So there is no doubt about the authenticity of the article here published or the work being done in the manner stated. Mrs. J. W. Day is now wintering at Hudson, California. She says: "MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Feb. 10, 1903.—To All Who Are Crippled: It is with the greatest pleasure I can give you the good news and another commendation to the good offices, rare ability and exceptional skill of Dr. W. C. Arons, the Bone-Setter at Hudson, Wis. And I do so cheerfully because he is justly entitled to the credit; and for the sake of those who may be afflicted as I was, who on learning of my former condition and the source of my help, that gave me instant relief, affecting a full and complete recovery from my malady, that they, too, may seek Dr. Arons in the hour of their great need.

"I was suffering terribly with a dislocated hip. Everything was being done for me that could be done, but I was in bed, unable to help myself. Through a very dear friend of mine, an early settler of Minneapolis, like myself, who had suffered in a similar manner and was cured by the Bone-Setter, I learned of Dr. Arons and what he did for her. He gave me instant relief; and the source of my help, that gave me instant relief, affecting a full and complete recovery from my malady, that they, too, may seek Dr. Arons in the hour of their great need.

SOCIETY AND SACKCLOTH

Lenten Abstinence Comes Slowly to the Good People of Omaha.

GLOOM NOT YET WHOLLY IMPENETRABLE

Some Little Rays of Worldly Light Still Penetrate Beneath the Shadow of the Pentecostal Season.

Is society observing Lent? Well, not all of society. The fact is, it would be rather difficult to tell just who to plan on at present, for it is too early in the season for the novelty to have worn off or for any definite plans for spending the time, so society is not committing itself, and the hostesses of the week have very discreetly declined to give the personnel of their guests a list of the hostesses of the week, who were compelled to entertain, as her guests were about to depart, being unable to crowd her entertainment in on Monday or Tuesday, sent out her cards for a later day. It was to be a card party and she was indebted to quite a few, so she had to be leaving the evening before. The fact is, the invitation was made their acceptance doubtful were included—because. When the responses had not been received the woman was not a little surprised to find that the acceptances were largely from those friends supposed to consider Lent and the regrets from those upon whom the season imposes no obligation.

The Lenten musicales, the Euchre club, the Tuesday Morning Musicals, the Creche luncheons and not a few other things yet to be devised will all contribute weekly to the time, and besides these there are the little Kensingtons and teas and Sunday evening suppers, and all of those things that never did count—only to those who are present.

Of course there is the table d'hôte dinner at the Omaha club on Monday evening, and it promises to be large; the informal hop given by the Thurston Rifles at their new armory, and the meeting of the Bouton Card club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Todd on Marcy street.

On Tuesday, Mrs. McIntosh will entertain the Tuesday Morning Musicals; Mrs. J. B. Rahm will give a luncheon; and Mrs. A. T. Austin in compliance to her guest, Mrs. Charles Stacy of Richmond, Va.; Miss Ray Cohn will entertain the A. O. T. Bowling club at Metropolitan club, and in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wright will entertain the Thorburns Card club.

On Wednesday, Mrs. McClelland will give the Creche luncheon; Mrs. Charles Urquhart will give a luncheon; Mrs. Charles Kuntz will entertain the Cooking club, and in the evening Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rahm will entertain the Indian club.

On Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Austin will give a dinner and in the afternoon Miss Hallie Patterson will entertain the members of the Charmante club.

On Friday, Mrs. Cudahy entertains an informal musicale, followed by a luncheon; in the evening the Omaha Lady Rifles will give a dancing Card club.

On Saturday, the second of the Lenten musicales will be given at the Lintner art gallery; Mrs. McCune will give a luncheon, and in the evening Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Blanchard will entertain the Neighborhood Card club.

Of course everybody knows that no matter how much may happen during the week, the calendar is never complete at the beginning, and it will doubtless be more incomplete than ever, for a time.

The Eika's masquerade carnival was not the social success it should have been, although during the time before I was being treated for "tuberculosis" of the hip. Think of it! My long residence in Minneapolis and extensive acquaintance should give credence to this, my statement.

Albany, N. Y.

I have been a great sufferer for over fifteen years, from lame back.

I have tried various remedies for relief, but got none. My doctor told me I had rheumatism of the bowels, and could give me no relief. When I would wake mornings I would be obliged to sit up in bed to get my breath. In stooping I would have to get support to get up. Seeing your Cramer Kidney Cure advertised I made up my mind it was just what I needed, and I bought a bottle.

I commenced to feel stronger and improved in every way. I took three bottles in all, and am now cured of kidney affection of long standing. I cheerfully recommend it to those who are thus afflicted.
