

RAILROADS PLAY FOR DELAY

Tax Injunction Case May Not Be Tried Within Present Year.

MEANWHILE TEMPORARY ORDER PREVAILS

One of the Attorneys on Railroad Side Says His Clients Will Take Advantage of Every Legal Formality.

The case of the Union Pacific and Burlington railroads against the city of Omaha to restrain the levy of taxes against them on the basis of the assessment as made by the tax commissioner probably will not be tried at the May term of the United States circuit court, and it is also probable that it will not come up within the present year.

An attorney connected with the case on the side of the railroads made the statement that if the companies pursue the policy they have outlined they will take advantage of every legal formality to which they are entitled, and this will mean that it will be impossible to make an issue in the case before the next November term of court at least.

The city has not yet filed its answer to the complaint of either of the roads after the answer is filed the complainants will have sixty days in which to file a reply, and in this reply points can be raised which will force the city to respond to the reply, and the complainants may again file in the case, so that, with the necessary time for the preparation of the pleadings, a November term will be called by the time issue is joined.

May Go to May Term. According to the practice in the federal court it is not difficult to have the cause passed over one term after the issue is joined, and if this continuance is secured it will be the May term of the court in 1904 before the case will come to trial.

Pending this hearing the temporary injunction is in force and it may be, in the opinion of lawyers interested in the case, that the injunction issued by Judge Mungor last month will have considerable effect upon the levy of taxes for next year as well as for this one.

The tax commissioner and the Board of Review must meet and decide upon the assessment for next year before the November term of the federal court adjourns, and the city council must again pass upon the assessment and make the annual levy before the May term of court of next year, the term at which, in all probability, the case will be tried.

About Colds.

In all countries and among all nations of the globe, cough medicines are used and used probably more extensively than any other one class of medicine. The simple reason is, they are required to save human life. Every human being is subject to throat and lung troubles, which may terminate his existence.

The people of all nations know the dangerous consequences of a neglected cold, for the majority of fatalities have their origin in and are characterized first by a simple cold. It is true, also, that many take slight colds, and are soon rid of them without noticing any serious results at the time, and this fact alone leads many others to careless habits. Every cold weakens the system and makes the next one the harder to cure.

The more careful and prudent persons everywhere do not permit a cold to run its course, but treat it promptly. For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been in use throughout the United States and many other countries and time has proved it to be the best adapted of any remedy yet made for all throat and lung diseases, and especially coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough.

HELD ON CHARGE OF MURDER

Thomas McGuigan Waives Preliminary Examination and Goes to District Court.

Thomas McGuigan, charged with the murder of Patrick Murphy, near the corner of Fourteenth and Howard streets, the evening of February 25, was arraigned in the police court yesterday morning. L. J. Platti appeared as his attorney. McGuigan showed but little concern when he was taken before the magistrate and pleaded not guilty. His waiver examination, in accordance with the recommendation of the coroner's jury he was held to the district court for trial without bonds. He was taken to the county jail yesterday and will, Deputy County Attorney Burnam expects, be arraigned in the district court Saturday morning.

William Shaw, Patrick Sison, E. O'Donnell, James Lowe, John Williams and Thomas Dailey, witnesses for the state, were unable to secure the necessary $300 bonds and were taken to the county jail to be detained there until the trial of McGuigan.

Children will take Place's Cure without objection, because its taste is pleasant. At drugists. 25c.

CAMPBELL MORGAN CANCELS

His Voice Falls at Atlanta, Georgia, and He Calls Omaha Engagement Off.

The Young Men's Christian association yesterday received a telegram from Mr. Moody, manager of the Atlanta Exposition, now at Atlanta, Ga., stating that Rev. Morgan's voice had given out from overwork and that his physician directed that a week's rest was imperative, therefore it would be necessary to cancel his dates in this city, but he could give Omaha two weeks in November.

A meeting of the directors of the Young Men's Christian association was held yesterday to discuss the situation and a telegram was sent to Mr. Moody requesting that Rev. Morgan postpone all his dates for one week and come to Omaha on March 15, as it was important that he should be here. Rev. Morgan was to have opened a series of meetings at the First Methodist church next Saturday evening.

Announcements of the Theaters.

"The Moonshiner's Daughter," a melodrama that appeals to all lovers of that sort of entertainment, opens tonight at the Boyd, for an engagement that terminates with the week. A matinee will be given Saturday. As can be seen by the company's advertising matter, the play is crowded with hair raising episodes. A pistol fight between revenue officers and the moonshiners, the blowing up of an illegal still with dynamite and the struggle for life on the brink of a cliff are three of the prominent goose-flesh-producing acts of the many shown throughout the piece. A splendid company is said to handle the piece and the scenic equipment is said to be adequate.

We desire to express our gratitude to our friends and neighbors for their marked kindness to us during the sickness and death of our daughter Mabel. We were deeply touched by the many beautiful floral tributes that were sent and especially by that from Mabel's teacher and classmates at the Walnut Hill school. We are grateful to all.
