CUBA APPROVES TREATY

Senate Ratifies Protocol by Exactly Two-Thirds Vote. AID GIVEN SUGAR HELPS FINAL RESULT. Argument is Advanced that Europe Will be Distanced and Kept Out of United States Markets.

HAVANA, March 11.—The reciprocity treaty with the United States was ratified tonight by 16 to 5, exactly a two-thirds vote of the senate. Fifteen republican conservatives, or administration senators, and one nationalist voted in favor, and five nationalists against. There were three absentees, all of whom, it is believed, favored the treaty. The ratification required only a majority vote, so that there were three votes to spare. Senator Zayas, the only nationalist who voted for ratification, in explaining his vote said it was his desire to amend the treaty with reference to the exchange of similar commodities produced in both countries, but he had no intention of opposing the treaty itself. Senator Sangally explained that his opposition was designed chiefly to draw out whatever could be advanced in support of the treaty, and to advance the arguments of Senator Bustamante, as put forward in the senate yesterday, convinced him that the country would be more prosperous with reciprocity than without it, but, nevertheless, his attitude of opposition and disapproval of the acts of the executive department of the government forbade him voting yes.

Must Aid Cuban Trade. The vote was taken immediately on the conclusion of a forceful appeal by Senator Bustamante. He insisted that whether it be the product of the chief benefactor, the sugar, or the 20 per cent reduction on Cuban sugar, it was not possible that such differential treatment could result other than favorably to Cuba's trade. Under the treaty the European producers would be unable to compete with Cuba. If the European nations were really seeking to prevent the ratification of the treaty in the United States senate, it was not on account of the little they would lose in the Cuban markets, but because they would no longer be able to send sugar to the United States. The treaty would also provide protection for Cuban tobacco. Viewed in another aspect, he continued, the treaty would give Cuba a national entity and allow it to enter into commercial relations with the nation which has hitherto been considered only as its guardian.

Was Taking Iron. The custom of approving the treaty by articles was dispensed with and the recommendations of the committee were approved in their entirety. So many members of the house of representatives have visited the senate during the last two days that the sessions of the house have been suspended.

NAVAL STATIONS MUST WAIT Cuban Congress Little Likely to Act at its Present Session. HAVANA, March 11.—According to many senators the approaching adjournment of congress renders it improbable that the naval stations agreement will be ratified before the beginning of the new session in April.

BABY'S VOICE Is the joy of the household, for without it no happiness can be complete. How sweet the picture of mother and babe, angels smile at and commend the thoughts and aspirations of the mother bending over the cradle. The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so full of danger and suffering that she looks forward to the hour when she shall feel the exquisite thrill of motherhood with indescribable dread and fear. Every woman should know that the danger, pain and horror of child-birth can be entirely avoided by the use of Mother's Friend, a scientific liniment for external use only, which toughens and renders pliable all the parts, and assists nature in its sublime work. PROTESTS AT ACRE SALE

Bolivian Minister Declares Syndicate Agreement with Brazil Void.

CUBAN SENATE RATIFIES THE TREATY

Carnegie Offers to Financially Aid Project of Uniting North and South America by Intercontinental Railroad.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Senator Guachilla, Bolivian minister, has written the Bolivian syndicate, made up of capitalists of New York and London, and also known as the Anglo-American syndicate, saying that he has been informed that it has accepted an indemnity of $70,000 from Brazil for its rights in the Acre territory now in dispute between Brazil and Bolivia. The minister said tonight that he regretted the acceptance of this indemnity as a waiver of the syndicate's right to exploit the Acre territory, and that Bolivia feared Brazil would use the rights obtained through the purchase of the concession to support its claim to the 90,000 square miles in dispute. Bolivia claims that the syndicate is absolutely without authority to take this action, and that it is in violation of the contract under which the concession was granted, transfers of the concession to foreign states or governments being, he said, prohibited. When he learned that the transfer was contemplated, Senator Guachilla protested and suggested arbitration, but his proposition was disregarded and the Brazilian proposition accepted. On learning of this action Minister Guachilla today sent the following dispatch to the representatives of the syndicate: "I have to say to you that the syndicate has had no meeting since the suggestion of a possible arbitration was made and made and there will be no meeting until the arrival of Sir Martin Conway, for whom we have extensive powers of attorney, which will be concluded by the syndicate. On February 21 you wrote to me as follows: 'I have to say to you that the syndicate has had no meeting since the suggestion of a possible arbitration was made and made and there will be no meeting until the arrival of Sir Martin Conway, for whom we have extensive powers of attorney, which will be concluded by the syndicate.' On February 25 you again wrote to me as follows: 'The syndicate has had no meeting and will have no meeting until the arrival of Sir Martin Conway.' That is still true. I know nothing about Mr. Bieker's telegram except what I have seen in the papers, and what I have told you was, of course, perfectly true. Conway called yesterday and will be here next week. Sir Martin Conway reached New York on the 8th instant. The next day he informed me, referring to you, that the syndicate had not met and that therefore it had not yet taken any action. Consequently I continued to discuss the matter and made several proposals, demanding in the first place that the arbitration agreed to in the contract should be carried out. Sir Martin also wrote to me on the 9th instant: 'All I can learn today is that Brazil has not reached the agreement with me, since February 25 an agreement had been reached, notwithstanding my formal and repeated opposition thereto, and that the syndicate had agreed to protest against this action as null and void, which cannot be binding upon my government and which does not affect the rights of my country.' (Signed) FERNANDO GUACHILLA, Minister of Bolivia. Cuba Confirms Treaty. Senator Quesada, the Cuban minister to the United States tonight received a dispatch from his home government saying: "The reciprocity treaty was approved by the senate by 16 votes against 5."

Justice Day is III. WASHINGTON, March 11.—Justice Day of the United States supreme court, who has been ill for the last few days, is still confined to bed. At his hotel it was stated that his condition is not considered serious. Mrs. Day and her youngest son arrived from Ohio this morning. Are Porto Ricans Aliens? In the United States supreme court a motion was made today by Coudert Brothers of New York to advance the hearing of the case of Isabella Gonzalez. Miss Gonzalez is a native of Porto Rico, about 20 years of age, who arrived at New York from the island on August 1, 1901. On her arrival she was detained at Ellis island on the ground that she was an alien immigrant likely to become a public charge. She seeks to secure release on a writ of habeas corpus. In assigning the reasons for asking to have the case advanced, Messrs. Coudert say: "As a further reason for requesting this honorable court to place a number of the docket, the appellant alleges that it is in the nature of a test case upon which it is probable that the government will be asked to determine whether it is to be considered citizens of Porto Rico and certain others of our insular possessions are also to be determined. The government is informed and believe that the officials of the state and treasury department of our government are anxious to obtain an early opinion by this honorable court. Carnegie Aids Railway Scheme. In accordance with notice served yesterday, the diplomatic representatives of every one of the permanent Inter-Continental Railway committee, Mr. Davis announced that Andrew Carnegie was willing to advance and project financially at the proper time. Navy Governs Midway Islands. The president by executive order has directed the Midway islands over to the navy department. It was announced at the instance of the Pacific Cable company which has asked for the protection of its properties on the islands. Roving Japanese Sailors are in the habit of putting into the islands for the purpose of sea and for goods. It is probable that the Navy department will establish a small station on the islands and American warships will make a practice of touching there from more frequently than in the past. The islands are two in number, Sand island having 433 acres, and Eastern island, 245 acres. There is a harbor about eighteen feet deep. The islands are deemed essential to the operation of the Pacific cable, which will touch there on its western route from Hawaii to San Francisco. Fog Delays Potomac Boats. Dense fog on the lower Potomac is seriously interfering with river navigation. The steamer City of Washington, of the Norfolk and Washington line, due here at 7 this morning, did not arrive until tonight, having been detained by the thick weather. The steamer Norfolk of the same line which left here last evening about 7 for Norfolk, was obliged to stop up because of the fog and when about fifty miles down the river at Upper Cedar point, drifted ashore early this morning. It is expected to float again without difficulty at high tide in which event the vessel will reach Norfolk early tomorrow morning. Labor Fight Reaches Courts. The controversy between the American Federation of Labor and the Knights of Labor was brought into the courts again today when the Southern Expanded Metal company instituted injunction proceedings against F. Getz, Henry F. Getz and Robert Portner to prevent the same from further interference with the complainant and its workmen. The Getz are building contractors and Portner is the owner of an apartment house addition on which the workmen are employed. It is charged that the work of the complainant was stopped on March 3 by the contractors on the ground that though the work was being performed by local union workmen, the workmen were objectionable because they were not affiliated with the federation of labor. The complainant says that if the federation establishes its claim to prevent other local union labor from working on buildings on which Knights of Labor members are further employed, the work will be stopped for the further reason that many larger contracts, and will be barred from obtaining or competing for further contracts, with consequence ruinous to the complainant and to good and lawful workmen. Justice Higgins of the district equity court declined to sign a temporary restraining order owing to a technicality in the form of the bill, but gave counsel permission to amend it. Favorable Reports Authorized. The senate committee on foreign relations today authorized favorable reports on the extradition treaties recently negotiated between the United States and Mexico and Guatemala. The Mexican treaty is an amendment to the existing treaty between the two countries, adding the crime of bribery to the list of extraditable offenses. The Guatemalan treaty is new and covers the crimes usually included in extradition treaties. Ex-Senator Jones is Better. The condition of ex-Senator James K. Jones of Arkansas, who has been ill for some days, is reported as improved tonight. A paroxysm of coughing, which lasted two hours, greatly distressed the patient, but the coughing subsided and the family expresses the hope that he will entirely recover. Funston at War Department. General Funston was at the War department in response to a summons from Acting Secretary Sanger to discuss matters connected with his new assignment as commander of the department of the Columbia. Mr. Sanger desires to acquire special information respecting conditions of Alaska, which is in the limits of General Funston's new command, and as the officer will soon be going into that territory, the secretary is charging him with subjecting an inquiry. It is especially desired that data be obtained as a basis of recasting the rules regulating the issue of licenses issued to civilians to occupy sites on military reservations. It is also contemplated to eventually reduce the size of these reservations in Alaska, and General Funston is to ascertain how far this reduction should go and when it can be effected.

AMES FIGHTS EVERY STEP Will Not Stand Trial for Bribery Till Law Comp's. PEERS THREATEN WAR OFFICE House of Commons Debates Hazing and is Told Aristocrats Defend It. LONDON, March 11.—There were unusually stormy scenes in the House of Commons tonight when Captain Pirie raised the case of Lieutenant Colonel Kinloch of the Grenadier guards, who was retired for permitting hazing. Captain Pirie proposed to give officers dismissed from the army the option of demanding a court-martial. Colonel Kinloch's brother-in-law, William Broomfield-Davenport, Lord Hugh Cecil and other conservatives violently attacked the war office, accusing Field Marshal Lord Roberts of being improperly influenced. The nationalist members belittled and shouted with delight, especially when Winston Churchill vainly attempted to speak. Mr. Brodrick, in a wrathful speech, defended Lord Roberts and the war office and denied that aristocratic pressure had been used to procure Colonel Kinloch's dismissal, in stormy sentences asserting that pressure was exercised on the other side. Mr. Brodrick had threatened every prominent member of the war office as terrorism. An incident in the debate was the refusal on Mr. Brodrick's part to submit the papers on the subject to the houses. He was violently assailed by Lord Hugh Cecil, and then promised to give the papers. Finally, Captain Pirie's motion was rejected by 155 to 57.

APPEALS WHEN FREEDOM IS DENIED Proposes to Take Case to Supreme Court at Washington and Spend Years at Least Resisting Returns to Minneapolis. MANCHESTER, N. H., March 11.—Not until all legal proceedings are exhausted will former Mayor Ames of Minneapolis return to that city and stand trial for bribery. His attorneys in this state made a strong effort in the superior court today to secure his release on habeas corpus proceedings and, when beaten, appealed to the supreme court of New Hampshire. Mr. Ames, who is now in the custody of the supreme court of the United States will be asked to set him free, so that he will probably be able to stay in New Hampshire for a year or two at least. In the meantime he will be at liberty providing he finds security to the amount of $12,500, which sum, however, must be furnished before 2 on Saturday afternoon. The proceedings today occupied two sessions of the court before Judge Pike and were based on Dr. Ames' petition for release on sine causa, although his attorneys made their strongest plea on the ground that at the extradition hearing before Governor Bache no evidence was permitted, and also that the charge against him was insufficient in that it was impossible for him to accept a bribe in his official capacity. When the hearing opened today counsel disagreed as to just what took place at the hearing before the governor. It was contended by Mr. Hamblett for Dr. Ames that Attorney General Eastman had objected to the introduction of any evidence whatever, while County Solicitor Tuttle claimed that the attorney general had admitted any necessary to identify Dr. Ames. The court finally sent for the attorney general, who appeared in the afternoon. After hearing Mr. Eastman Judge Pike at once ordered Dr. Ames to be turned over to the Minnesota office. Mr. Hamblett at once gave notice of appeal and Judge Pike remanded Dr. Ames to the custody of Sheriff Doane of Hillsborough county. Bail was fixed at $25,000, but later reduced to $10,000 at the request of Mr. Hamblett. After the court formalities, Dr. Ames walked to his hotel.

Work for Change of Grade to Get Trolley Line on Twenty-Fourth Street. At the meeting of the Southwest Improvement club tonight the committee on the change of grade was still a few feet short of the frontage necessary to secure the proposed grade on Twenty-fourth street between Leavenworth and Mason streets, but it was said that the necessary signatures could be secured today. The committee reported that the reason the Board of Education had refused to sign the petition was because the members believe that the signing of the petition would be a violation of the charter of the city, so members of the board have promised to reconsider the vote. It was decided that the club attend the meeting of the School board Monday evening in a body and in the meantime to have the members of the building and property committee visit the grounds of the Mason Street school and see exactly what effect the bill would have on the grounds. Fred Schamel reported that Councilman Mount had proposed to place a number of gas lamps on Twenty-fifth street, where gasoline lamps have been removed. Short talks were made by W. J. Connell, E. F. Moriarty and W. W. Bingham. As secretary of the Omaha View Improvement club, Mr. Moriarty extended an invitation to the club to join in a general meeting of improvement clubs of the city to discuss matters of common interest. The dumping of garbage in the vacant lots near Mason street was brought up and a committee was instructed to present the matter to the Board of Health, with the request that the practice be discontinued. The club was asked to take up the question of raising the pavement of Leavenworth street near Twenty-fifth where water stands on the street.

ST. PATRICK AS A BAPTIST Jersey City Preacher Will Endeavor to Prove Assertion in Sermon Next Sunday. JERSEY CITY, N. J., March 11.—In his sermon next Sunday Rev. Addison F. Moore of the Bergen Baptist church will try to prove that Ireland's patron saint was a Baptist. "It is a matter of history," he says, "that St. Patrick baptized his converts by immersion, the same as Baptists do. St. Patrick was not a missionary sent to Ireland by the church of Rome. Taking these facts into consideration the Baptists have more rights to St. Patrick than the Roman church. He was simply canonized by the Roman church."

AMES FIGHTS EVERY STEP Will Not Stand Trial for Bribery Till Law Comp's. PEERS THREATEN WAR OFFICE House of Commons Debates Hazing and is Told Aristocrats Defend It. LONDON, March 11.—There were unusually stormy scenes in the House of Commons tonight when Captain Pirie raised the case of Lieutenant Colonel Kinloch of the Grenadier guards, who was retired for permitting hazing. Captain Pirie proposed to give officers dismissed from the army the option of demanding a court-martial. Colonel Kinloch's brother-in-law, William Broomfield-Davenport, Lord Hugh Cecil and other conservatives violently attacked the war office, accusing Field Marshal Lord Roberts of being improperly influenced. The nationalist members belittled and shouted with delight, especially when Winston Churchill vainly attempted to speak. Mr. Brodrick, in a wrathful speech, defended Lord Roberts and the war office and denied that aristocratic pressure had been used to procure Colonel Kinloch's dismissal, in stormy sentences asserting that pressure was exercised on the other side. Mr. Brodrick had threatened every prominent member of the war office as terrorism. An incident in the debate was the refusal on Mr. Brodrick's part to submit the papers on the subject to the houses. He was violently assailed by Lord Hugh Cecil, and then promised to give the papers. Finally, Captain Pirie's motion was rejected by 155 to 57.
