WANTED-MALE HELP.

THE Spring Term OF BOYLES COLLEGE Will Open April 6 in the NEW YORK LIFE BUILDING

The value of a business education according to prominent business men.

John Wanamaker

In these days business is difficult. The young man who starts in at this time will stand but little chance without a business training.

Chauncey Depew

To you, young ladies and gentlemen, a business training is absolutely necessary, and the best thing you can have, whether you come from the common schools, from the academy, from the seminary or from the university.

Lyman J. Gage

This scene before me today carries me back very vividly to a period of about thirty-eight years ago, when I myself, in a Business College, sat at one of these desks and obtained very useful instruction in all the forms of business, such as, I suppose, with many improvements, you now study and pursue.

Andrew Carnegie

I rejoice, young men and women, to know that your time has not been wasted upon the study of languages, but has been fully occupied in obtaining knowledge of shorthand and typewriting, banking methods, bookkeeping, penmanship, business correspondence, business customs and commercial law, and that you are fully equipped to sell upon the element upon which you must live your lives and earn your living.

Hon. William Lawrence

I speak advisedly when I say that the Business Colleges are one of the necessities of our civilization and system of industries.

Albert G. Porter

The young man who starts out in life writing a plain and legible hand starts with a great advantage. If I were a young man and had to make my choice, to graduate at a Classical College and stop there, or to graduate at a Business College and stop there, I would take the Business College in preference.

C. H. Kent

The best advice we have to offer is for every young man who possibly can to avail himself of a scholarship in some first-class Business College. No matter what it costs it will be the best investment he can make if he ever expects to superintend his own personal affairs.

John Sherman

The importance of business education to the young men of our country cannot be overstated. The ordinary college education is of great value, but it is not to be compared in practical importance with the training of young men, who have to make their own way in life, in a Business College.

Doctor Johnson

Let no man enter into business while he is ignorant of the manner of reading books. Never let him imagine that a degree of natural ability will supply the deficiency or preserve a multiplicity of affairs from inextricable confusion.

Horace Mann

If a father wishes to give his son a legacy that will endure while life lasts, let him send him to an institution where he can obtain a general, practical education, and he will have the satisfaction of knowing that he has given him what is better than houses, lands and farms, or even gold and silver. These things may suddenly take wings and fly away, but this knowledge will last while life and reason exist.

E. I. Freedley

A business education will be of advantage to every young man, whatever his future occupation may be.

Thomas C. Fletcher

I have the highest opinion of Commercial Colleges, having seen many reasons to think that plan the best ever adopted to educate young men for the responsible and arduous undertakings of commercial life. Their efficiency is attested in the well formed business character of thousands of those who have, within the past few years, entered the stage of manhood in our large cities.

Call, write or telephone today for advertising literature. It is free.

H. B. BOYLES, President, New York Life Building.

WHY ETUO COM STAY VACANT? Every Day is a Loss of Money When a Little Want-Ad Will Rent It.

A Remarkable Showing by a Remarkable Institution THE OMAHA COMMERCIAL COLLEGE ROHRBOUGH BROS., Proprietors.

Pointer No. 1. Spring Term opens Wednesday morning April 1. New classes in all departments. Edith Jones, Nebraska Telephone Company.

Pointer No. 2. The O. C. C. owes its superior prestige, influence and popularity to the following:

1. To its being the oldest and best equipped commercial school in the state.

2. To its progressive policy and efficient corps of instructors.

3. To its endorsement by business and professional men who employ its students.

4. To its maintenance of a Literary Society, Glee Union, Lawn Tennis, College Orchestra and Lecture Course.

5. To its faculty of teachers, Short-hand and that its why our students are in such demand by business men and why we fill a majority of the job openings that we have no occasion to fill positions which only pay from $100 to $150 per week. Many students who learn Pitman's, Graham or Gregg, and because they have failed to acquire sufficient speed and the ability to read their notes, are forced to attend college by while writers of Mosher Shorthand obtain the positions so numerous upon every hand. If you want to waste no time, take up valuable time learning rules, exceptions to rules and memorizing words-signs, take up one of the old Pitman's systems. The Gregg system in its purity has proven itself to be worse than a waste of time to learn it. It is not better to learn a system which does not originate with the inventor, and which is so constructed as to be legible and readable. It is easy to learn, easy to write and absolutely assures the student of a position. If you desire to spend your time learning one of the old Pitman's systems, do not despair if you never obtain a position.

6. To its general students who have had their attention called to the superiority of Mosher Shorthand, and who have attended other schools, and who have joined our number. They were heartily discouraged, but now they are happy. They did not have a whole year to spend in learning a system of shorthand. A number of others invited us, all of whom we have received that they were so selfishly advised to learn Pitman or Gregg. It requires a vast amount of copying and practice to learn to keep a Pitman or Gregg student in a double and triple time. Students of Mosher Shorthand have no anxiety as to future results.

7. The hard work of our students is relieved now and then by profitable recreation. Such things as Lectures, a Public Entertainment of an Athletic Contest are provided. Our students believe in having a good time.

8. Pointer No. 3. We wish to see in last Sunday's Bee a picture of a group of students representing twenty-four different states and one foreign country. This picture of C. C. has become a commonplace in character. It always attracts attention from real institutions whose influence and power command universal respect.

9. We give below a list of students who are now reaping the reward of having made a wise choice of a school. The list is published in the Omaha Journal located during the past few months. Many will soon be in positions awaiting them. Notice the list, for it means much.

Alberta Stewart, Nebraska and Iowa Creamery.

E. F. Wilson, M. E. Smith & Co. High Street, Jersey, High Street, Sr. contractor.

Abe Levine, World-Herald.

Alex Hiller, Bemis Omaha Bag company.

WANTED, MEN TO LEARN THE BARBER TRADE

Why Waste Time and Money?

Young men who contemplate learning the barber's trade should stop and seriously consider the question. Why enter an inferior barber college when you have access to the best?

It is poor economy to begin in a small concern and then be compelled to pay a double tuition in order to graduate from a school which will qualify you, when you can arrange for the price of one tuition to complete the trade at the

WESTERN BARBERS' INSTITUTE

It is absolutely the oldest, best equipped and only reliable barber college in the country. If we fail to establish the above statement as a fact to parents of prospective students or to students themselves, we will refund to any other barber college you may desire to enter, or will positively pay your fare to and from your home.

This institution is the only one of its kind which commands the respect of the citizens and the better class of barbers.

AN IMPORTANT ADVANTAGE

As we are the oldest and best established, and having been especially courteous to customers, we have patronized by the best establishments have clamored for, but as yet have failed to procure. Therefore they are unable to furnish the principal requisite for development of the students. The student of the Western Barbers' Institute is a thoroughly competent and has the right to impart his knowledge to students. Bonus fees testimonials furnished upon application.
