

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE.

E. BOREWATER, EDITOR. PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Daily Bee (without Sunday), One Year $10.00...

TREATY PROSPECTS.

By agreement made in the senate last week the treaty with Colombia will be voted on tomorrow and there appears to be no doubt of its ratification.

DISREGARDING THE LAW.

It appears that for years the southern railroads have refused to publish their rates on freight shipped to and from the seaboard.

Remains Wide Open.

It may be that the national senate will shut the door on the matter. The shutting of the door there has been an open question for years.

Expansion of Railroad Capital.

The Pennsylvania Railroad company, with its authorized capital of $250,000,000 and an existing capital stock of $150,000,000, is certainly a great corporation.

PERSONAL NOTES.

One of New York's get-rich-quickers will now have a year in prison to think up new schemes to make people think he can show them how they can live without working.

THE PROBLEM CONFRONTING OMAHA.

It is an open secret that almost as many people have moved away from Omaha within the past two years as have located in Omaha during the same period.

Early in the preliminary campaign for the congressional nomination last year.

The Bee declared in so many words that David H. Mercer was demanding a renomination not with any hope or expectation of being elected, but for the purpose of using the prestige so gotten as the basis of a claim to federal appointment after his defeat.

There is not a city nor town in Nebraska that is not being cheated out of taxes it should have from the railroads.

By the pretended distribution of terminal values. The people of the interior towns are beginning to have their eyes opened.

All they have to do to convince themselves that the so-called "Omaha scheme" is as much for their benefit as for the benefit of Omaha is to look up the facts and figures bearing on their own local situation, and to remember that every dollar of municipal taxes evaded by the railroads must be paid by the owners of the other property in the town.

ROUND ABOUT NEW YORK.

Ripples on the Current of Life in the Metropolis. Marriages performed in the city hall of New York in the future are to have an architectural imitation of church-like surroundings.

The section of the Treasury department dispensing with the women inspectors recently attached to the immigration bureau may be expected to arouse a vigorous protest from the women suffrage agitators.

Down in Missouri a special grand jury will investigate the charges of attempted bribery in the legislature. The usual system of trading down such charges is through a legislative investigating committee.

His specialty was widows who were feeling wealthy by the collection of insurance upon the lives of their recent husbands.

He made acquaintance through a marriage broker, who does a thriving business on the east side. This gentleman keeps books after the manner of a real estate agent.

He has hearts, affections, conjugal happiness for sale instead of land, that is the only difference. He is called upon by a man who wants a wife. A bill of particulars is asked for and entered upon his books.

Howell Journal: Ex-State Treasurer Barley is said to be making a good living at the present time in loaning money. Of course it is needless to say that his capital was stolen from the state.

Holdrege Citizen: A Barley investigation committee has been appointed by the house to find out about the contents of that cigar box he has been so much talked over since the Barley defalcation occurred.

Elm Creek Beacon: And Barley's committee is after that matter red hot and it would be in shape to find out something.

Wayne Herald: The committee appointed to investigate the Barley "cigar box" story have discovered the whereabouts of the deal, it claims that he had coined the expression when telling the story of checking Barley up.

Mead Advocate: Joe Barley has a little box that's full of stolen "dough," and every place that Barley goes that box is sure to go. He takes it when he goes to bed and when he goes to sleep, and I don't think that he intends to ever divvy up.

North Platte Tribune: Ex-State Treasurer Hill appeared before the legislative investigating committee the other day and under oath declared that when he turned over to Joe Barley there were no I. O. U.'s; that the funds were in cash or in the shape of bank deposits.

THAT BARLEY CIGAR BOX.

Parson Press: The Barley "cigar box" is emitting some smoke. Norfolk Press: Joe Barley is at home to the people who want to borrow money, but not to legislative committees that want him to tell where he got it.

Broken Bow Republican: The much talked of "cigar box" of ex-state treasurer Barley now under investigation by a committee of the house at this writing has the appearance of being a myth.

Crete Vidette-Herald: It is pretty late in the day to examine that "cigar box." Barley has been out long enough to have "smoked" up the entire contents, and the investigation is so hazy that it will end in smoke.

Nelson Gazette: It doesn't matter so much who has that historic cigar box, but the taxpayers of Nebraska are interested in knowing what became of the money entrusted to Barley and whether any of it can be recovered.

Winnipeg Free Press: The letter of Mr. Savage in which he stated that he would show up the contents of the cigar box was a joke says his then private secretary. The whole political course of the ex-staten governor was a huge jest.

Elm Creek Beacon: Now it is possible that the pardon of Joseph E. Barley is only newsworthy on the document is not the proper one, and the secretary of state has signed it. The matter is in charge of the "cigar box" committee for investigation.

Taylor Clarion: The legislature has appointed a committee to "investigate that Barley cigar box." Some people are already saying that "one will 'kick' provided they knock the bottom clear out and do a good job of cleaning up. But, we opine, if there is anything "in it" some one will wish they were not "in it."

Windsor Tribune: And now it is said there now was a Barley cigar box. It will make one Edward Rosewater writhe in agony to think that Savage has made game of him, but Roy's misery will be more than offset by the relief it will give a whole lot of fellows with borrowed state money who really thought there was a farce in book lurking around ready to expose them.

Howell Journal: Ex-State Treasurer Barley is said to be making a good living at the present time in loaning money. Of course it is needless to say that his capital was stolen from the state.

SPRING FLOWERS.

Martha Day Fenner in The Outlook. The Spring will bring another flower. Yes, one of richer hue. Dame Nature knows no meager dew. When Spring would wed with you. The garden of your last year's love. Is killed by frost, but I know that you have set a light above. The gate, then, is not in haste.

The flower of richer hue will bloom. Yes, faint its color rare. A crimson bloom upon the gloom. That ever lingers there look and grieve. You see the flower apart. Then turn with silent tread and leave. The garden of your heart.

Caught in the shower! Damp clothes, wet feet, colds, night coughs, the croup—a part of school life. And it should be a part of home life to keep on hand a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Just one dose at bedtime, when the cold is threatened, will stop all future trouble.

We wish you would ask your doctor if he knows anything better for colds, coughs, bronchitis, weak throats and lungs. I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for eight years, and I know nothing could be better for the coughs and colds of children. Mrs. W. H. Bryner, Shelby, Ala.
