

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Four of the Mayor's Vetoed Stick and Kill That Many Bills.

EXTRA GAS LIGHTS WILL NOT BLAZE

Resolution Ordering 147 Additional Weisbach Street Lamps Is Lost for Lack of One Vote.

Mayor Moore exercised his veto in four cases last night, the council failing to muster the six votes necessary to nullify the wishes of the chief executive. The most important of these votes concerned the resolution to purchase 147 additional gas lamps. Mayor Moore stated that he did not favor the new lighting for the same reason that he opposed additional electric lighting—the shortage of funds. He pointed out that the electric lights ordered by the council would cost $114,747.80, and that the proposed gas lamps would make it $114,747.80. To protect his bondsmen from liability, he asserted, was an additional reason why he should refuse to sign the order. When the communication was read only Councilmen Hassall, Hoye, Lobeck, Trostler, Karr and Zimman were present. Zimman voted to sustain, which made the vote one short. Later Councilman Whitehorn took his seat.

Stops Grading Jobs. The second and third vetoes were of ordinances providing for the grading of sixteenth street from Vinton to Central boulevard and from Central boulevard to B street. Both vetoes, the mayor said, would cause needless expense, work hardship on many poor people, damage much real estate and were not particularly necessary. No petitions had been made for improvement. Councilmen Lobeck, Trostler and Zimman voted to sustain the mayor and the veto stood.

Request had been made by the council for the fourth veto. It was to an ordinance grading the alley between Cass and California streets from Twenty-eighth avenue to Thirtieth street. Property owners of the California street side had complained that the grade proposed would do great damage to their property by elevating their stables many feet above the grade line. Four citizens representing 200 feet of frontage swerved from the petitioners to the objectors and left the former without a majority. The veto was sustained and it was suggested that a compromise grade be arranged.

Councilman Trostler succeeded in advancing the Saegle creek sewer one notch nearer to construction. Upon his motion the committee was ordered to draw warrants amounting to $3,720 against the sewer fund for the payment of damages for land appropriated for the sewerway. When this is done the way will be clear for beginning the work.

Funds to Build Engine Houses. An ordinance that was passed was introduced by Councilman Hassall calling for the city attorney and city engineer to hurry reports, including estimates for new engine houses and garage crematories. He explained that if bonds were to be issued for the improvements it would be necessary to submit the question at the spring election and must be proclaimed thirty days in advance by a mayor. The ordinance was passed by a vote of 10 to 2.

The claim of David Gilbert for salary as engineer of the city had from October to February was ordered taken from the files and recommended to the finance and claims committee upon resolutions by Councilmen Hassall, Gilbert was dismissed by the mayor for intoxication, but a few weeks ago.

AN ABSOLUTE NECESSITY.

So Think at Least One Traveling Man. I would as soon think of starting out without my mileage book and grip as to start out on a trip without a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in my valise. I believe I owe my good digestion to St. Louis hardware house. Why? Because I have to put up at all kinds of hotels and boarding houses. I have to eat good, bad and indifferent food at all hours of the day and night, and I don't believe any man's stomach will stand that sort of thing without "breaking" anyway. I know mine won't. It has to have something to break the fat, and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the crutch I fall back on.

My friends often "josh" me about it, tell me I'm an easy mark for patent medicine takers, that advertised medicines are humbug, etc., but I notice that they are nearly always complaining of their aches and pains and poor digestion, while I can stand most any old kind of fare and feed good and ready for my work when it needs me, and I believe I owe my good digestion to Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, year in and year out, and all the "joshing" in the world will never convince me to the contrary.

I used to have heartburn about three times a day and a headache about three or four times a week and after standing for this for four or five years I began to look around for a crutch and found it when my doctor told me the best investment I could make for fifty cents a month. I first care for my better life insurance.

My druggist tells me they are the most popular of all stomach medicines and that success because they do as advertised. They bring results, and result that what count in a patent medicine as much as in selling barbituric.

Five Per Cent. Twenty Year Gold Bonds

Another policy held by Mr. Waterhouse was a $100,000 policy which had paid six annual payments of $44.75 each. This form of policy was also introduced and approved by the Mutual Insurance Company of New York, and in settlement of this policy the company will pay ten thousand dollars. $5 Per Cent Twenty-Year Gold Bonds, the income from which will be $500 a year for the next twenty years.

If you desire to know on what terms you can contract for the purchase of 5 Per Cent. Gold Bonds, deliverable to yourself in twenty years or to your family immediately, in case of your death, state the amount of annual income you wish to secure for yourself twenty years hence and give date of your birth.

Nassau, Cedar, William and Liberty Sts., New York, N. Y.

PLEASANT BROS., Managers, Omaha, Neb., Des Moines, Iowa.

HONOR DAY OF ST. PATRICK

Omaha Irish Meet in Memory of the Dear Old Emerald Isle. FATHER FITZPATRICK MAKES AN ADDRESS Gives a History of the Race From the Day of Patrick to the Present and Prophecies Early Freedom for Ireland.

Ireland's sons and daughters throughout the world gathered in memory of their patron saint, Patrick, who brought Christianity and enlightenment first to the people of the Emerald Isle. T. J. Mahoney, as chairman, announced at the beginning of the program that he would have a little singing of Irish melodies before Rev. J. Fitzpatrick, the speaker of the evening, would deliver an address entitled, "God Save Ireland."

The "Fitz" quartet, the Misses Gentlemen and John Gentlemen, and Miss Genevieve Croft, sang and played those old Irish melodies until the eyes of the exiled children of Ireland were wet with tears and they wiped them away unashamed as they smiled at the sweeter memories that flooded back with a new song. In his address, Rev. J. Fitzpatrick, the speaker of the evening, would deliver an address entitled, "God Save Ireland."

Rev. Fitzpatrick in his address touched upon the fact that the Irish are a scattered race that reaches from the far north to the far south, from the orient to the occident. They were driven away from their own country by a continued persecution extending over centuries and despite that fact every Irish heart is loyal to the shamrock and the country it stands for.

The Irish are a race of honor, their thoughts are high and noble and no matter what flag they are fighting under, for they are a race of warriors, they show the same undying devotion, honesty of intention and sturdy patriotism that the deity has traced out through the generations a thousand years ago. He said in part: "It is 1,400 years since Patrick was seen by the people sailing over the sea and was met at the beach by this wild and savage race. With him he brought the cross, the symbol of Christianity, and the identity of the people became a thing of the past. They became an enlightened people and for three centuries the monks of Ireland were the pride of the world. King Alfred was a product of their teaching."

"Great honor and praise is due to Patrick for this work, which meant so much to Ireland. He put in the hearts of the people that honesty, sincerity, truth and devotion that has never been wanting far in any child of Ireland, now far in space and time that child may be found from the heather-covered hills of Erin.

Darkness and Light in Sight. "These three centuries were a time of peace, plenty and good will and then the barbarians swept down upon the land and turned everything into strife and bloodshed. The wars were long and everlasting. Ireland was not strong enough to defeat her enemies, but tenacious enough to live against this flood of blood, rapine, and tyranny for seven centuries, and then she bowed her head to the English who took her and betrayed her and gave her to the nobles to despoil.

"But, now there is a ray of sunshine breaking through the darkness of the clouds and freedom for Ireland is almost discernible. Sympathy for our wrongs, what we ask. When we have sympathy there is public opinion against the English and our victory is assured. Ireland alone cannot break from the yoke, but with the aid of an ally powerful and free, Ireland will be once more free in the north and the Catholic in the south a free people and a nation of great deeds."

A good section of the St. Patrick's day celebrators gathered in Lowe Avenue Presbyterian church, Fortieth and Nicholas streets, to hear William Kennedy's lecture on Ireland, its wrongs and how to see the 106 stereotypical views which illustrated it. Mr. Kennedy took his audience, as in a journey, from Omaha through New York City to Queenstown and then in a circle of the most interesting points of the island. During the evening Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Schurz, Miss Teasdale and H. B. Payne sang typical Irish songs.

In Immanuel Baptist church, Twenty-fourth and Binney streets, also assembled a good sized audience for "St. Patrick in Erin." The pastor, Rev. E. Kerr Eschler, is himself a Scotch-Irishman and talked entertainingly on "Paddy, Himself, His Hopes and His Future." Mrs. G. W. Shields gave a history of the day; D. R. Stambaugh sang "Love's Young Dream," and C. M. Eaton sang "Killarney."

THE REALTY MARKET. INSTRUMENTS placed on record Tuesday, March 17:

I. H. Phillips et al to John Doms, $1,500. Wm. Williams et al to McDonald et al, $1,000. J. Foster et al to John Schmecher et al, $1,000. J. Schmecher et al to C. Corbett et al, $1,000. J. Schmecher et al to C. Corbett et al, $1,000. J. Schmecher et al to C. Corbett et al, $1,000.

Operations are becoming a fact; every young man, as educated, who enters a medical college, considers himself capable of undertaking the most serious and complicated surgical work, and hundreds of lives are sacrificed annually to this mad frenzy of incompetent men, to rush into work which would only be undertaken as a last resort, and then only by the most experienced and careful surgeons.

It is a pleasure, in view of these facts, to read the following letter from a woman who has been saved from one of these dangerous operations. "I know I should have informed you long ago regarding my case of piles, and the good done by, and I believe I am cured. Last December I sent for your book. I have never been bothered since then, and before I had suffered for the last eleven years, and at the time I wrote I had given birth to a child, and they came down with the delivery of the child by the hand. I could not get them back and I suffered everything; and the doctor said nothing but an operation would ever relieve me, but I read of your remedy in our daily newspaper and I told my husband to get me a box and I would give it a trial before consenting to the knife, and thanks be to your wonderful medicine, I was saved from the operation table."

Every person suffering from piles that my husband and myself had, we recommended your wonderful medicine, and we secured one $1 box of Pyramid Pile Cure, and two boxes of Pyramid Ointment and two boxes of Pyramid Pills, and I was, I hope completely cured. If they ever show the slightest return I will certainly get some more medicine, but I hardly think I will need any more for it will be a year the 15th day of December since I had them and that makes it ten months and past now. Thank you again and wishing you abundant success. I remain, Mrs. E. Hodgson, 106 W. 11th St., Des Moines, Iowa.

Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by druggists for fifty cents a package or will be mailed to any address upon receipt of price, by Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich. Write this firm for little book describing the cause and cure of Piles.

HONOR DAY OF ST. PATRICK

Omaha Irish Meet in Memory of the Dear Old Emerald Isle.

FATHER FITZPATRICK MAKES AN ADDRESS

Gives a History of the Race From the Day of Patrick to the Present and Prophecies Early Freedom for Ireland.

Ireland's sons and daughters throughout the world gathered in memory of their patron saint, Patrick, who brought Christianity and enlightenment first to the people of the Emerald Isle. T. J. Mahoney, as chairman, announced at the beginning of the program that he would have a little singing of Irish melodies before Rev. J. Fitzpatrick, the speaker of the evening, would deliver an address entitled, "God Save Ireland."

The "Fitz" quartet, the Misses Gentlemen and John Gentlemen, and Miss Genevieve Croft, sang and played those old Irish melodies until the eyes of the exiled children of Ireland were wet with tears and they wiped them away unashamed as they smiled at the sweeter memories that flooded back with a new song. In his address, Rev. J. Fitzpatrick, the speaker of the evening, would deliver an address entitled, "God Save Ireland."

Rev. Fitzpatrick in his address touched upon the fact that the Irish are a scattered race that reaches from the far north to the far south, from the orient to the occident. They were driven away from their own country by a continued persecution extending over centuries and despite that fact every Irish heart is loyal to the shamrock and the country it stands for.

The Irish are a race of honor, their thoughts are high and noble and no matter what flag they are fighting under, for they are a race of warriors, they show the same undying devotion, honesty of intention and sturdy patriotism that the deity has traced out through the generations a thousand years ago. He said in part: "It is 1,400 years since Patrick was seen by the people sailing over the sea and was met at the beach by this wild and savage race. With him he brought the cross, the symbol of Christianity, and the identity of the people became a thing of the past. They became an enlightened people and for three centuries the monks of Ireland were the pride of the world. King Alfred was a product of their teaching."

"Great honor and praise is due to Patrick for this work, which meant so much to Ireland. He put in the hearts of the people that honesty, sincerity, truth and devotion that has never been wanting far in any child of Ireland, now far in space and time that child may be found from the heather-covered hills of Erin.

Darkness and Light in Sight. "These three centuries were a time of peace, plenty and good will and then the barbarians swept down upon the land and turned everything into strife and bloodshed. The wars were long and everlasting. Ireland was not strong enough to defeat her enemies, but tenacious enough to live against this flood of blood, rapine, and tyranny for seven centuries, and then she bowed her head to the English who took her and betrayed her and gave her to the nobles to despoil.

"But, now there is a ray of sunshine breaking through the darkness of the clouds and freedom for Ireland is almost discernible. Sympathy for our wrongs, what we ask. When we have sympathy there is public opinion against the English and our victory is assured. Ireland alone cannot break from the yoke, but with the aid of an ally powerful and free, Ireland will be once more free in the north and the Catholic in the south a free people and a nation of great deeds."

A good section of the St. Patrick's day celebrators gathered in Lowe Avenue Presbyterian church, Fortieth and Nicholas streets, to hear William Kennedy's lecture on Ireland, its wrongs and how to see the 106 stereotypical views which illustrated it. Mr. Kennedy took his audience, as in a journey, from Omaha through New York City to Queenstown and then in a circle of the most interesting points of the island. During the evening Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Schurz, Miss Teasdale and H. B. Payne sang typical Irish songs.

In Immanuel Baptist church, Twenty-fourth and Binney streets, also assembled a good sized audience for "St. Patrick in Erin." The pastor, Rev. E. Kerr Eschler, is himself a Scotch-Irishman and talked entertainingly on "Paddy, Himself, His Hopes and His Future." Mrs. G. W. Shields gave a history of the day; D. R. Stambaugh sang "Love's Young Dream," and C. M. Eaton sang "Killarney."

THE REALTY MARKET. INSTRUMENTS placed on record Tuesday, March 17:

I. H. Phillips et al to John Doms, $1,500. Wm. Williams et al to McDonald et al, $1,000. J. Foster et al to John Schmecher et al, $1,000. J. Schmecher et al to C. Corbett et al, $1,000. J. Schmecher et al to C. Corbett et al, $1,000. J. Schmecher et al to C. Corbett et al, $1,000.

Operations are becoming a fact; every young man, as educated, who enters a medical college, considers himself capable of undertaking the most serious and complicated surgical work, and hundreds of lives are sacrificed annually to this mad frenzy of incompetent men, to rush into work which would only be undertaken as a last resort, and then only by the most experienced and careful surgeons.

It is a pleasure, in view of these facts, to read the following letter from a woman who has been saved from one of these dangerous operations. "I know I should have informed you long ago regarding my case of piles, and the good done by, and I believe I am cured. Last December I sent for your book. I have never been bothered since then, and before I had suffered for the last eleven years, and at the time I wrote I had given birth to a child, and they came down with the delivery of the child by the hand. I could not get them back and I suffered everything; and the doctor said nothing but an operation would ever relieve me, but I read of your remedy in our daily newspaper and I told my husband to get me a box and I would give it a trial before consenting to the knife, and thanks be to your wonderful medicine, I was saved from the operation table."

HONOR DAY OF ST. PATRICK

Omaha Irish Meet in Memory of the Dear Old Emerald Isle.

FATHER FITZPATRICK MAKES AN ADDRESS

Gives a History of the Race From the Day of Patrick to the Present and Prophecies Early Freedom for Ireland.

Ireland's sons and daughters throughout the world gathered in memory of their patron saint, Patrick, who brought Christianity and enlightenment first to the people of the Emerald Isle. T. J. Mahoney, as chairman, announced at the beginning of the program that he would have a little singing of Irish melodies before Rev. J. Fitzpatrick, the speaker of the evening, would deliver an address entitled, "God Save Ireland."

The "Fitz" quartet, the Misses Gentlemen and John Gentlemen, and Miss Genevieve Croft, sang and played those old Irish melodies until the eyes of the exiled children of Ireland were wet with tears and they wiped them away unashamed as they smiled at the sweeter memories that flooded back with a new song. In his address, Rev. J. Fitzpatrick, the speaker of the evening, would deliver an address entitled, "God Save Ireland."

Rev. Fitzpatrick in his address touched upon the fact that the Irish are a scattered race that reaches from the far north to the far south, from the orient to the occident. They were driven away from their own country by a continued persecution extending over centuries and despite that fact every Irish heart is loyal to the shamrock and the country it stands for.

The Irish are a race of honor, their thoughts are high and noble and no matter what flag they are fighting under, for they are a race of warriors, they show the same undying devotion, honesty of intention and sturdy patriotism that the deity has traced out through the generations a thousand years ago. He said in part: "It is 1,400 years since Patrick was seen by the people sailing over the sea and was met at the beach by this wild and savage race. With him he brought the cross, the symbol of Christianity, and the identity of the people became a thing of the past. They became an enlightened people and for three centuries the monks of Ireland were the pride of the world. King Alfred was a product of their teaching."

"Great honor and praise is due to Patrick for this work, which meant so much to Ireland. He put in the hearts of the people that honesty, sincerity, truth and devotion that has never been wanting far in any child of Ireland, now far in space and time that child may be found from the heather-covered hills of Erin.

Darkness and Light in Sight. "These three centuries were a time of peace, plenty and good will and then the barbarians swept down upon the land and turned everything into strife and bloodshed. The wars were long and everlasting. Ireland was not strong enough to defeat her enemies, but tenacious enough to live against this flood of blood, rapine, and tyranny for seven centuries, and then she bowed her head to the English who took her and betrayed her and gave her to the nobles to despoil.

"But, now there is a ray of sunshine breaking through the darkness of the clouds and freedom for Ireland is almost discernible. Sympathy for our wrongs, what we ask. When we have sympathy there is public opinion against the English and our victory is assured. Ireland alone cannot break from the yoke, but with the aid of an ally powerful and free, Ireland will be once more free in the north and the Catholic in the south a free people and a nation of great deeds."

A good section of the St. Patrick's day celebrators gathered in Lowe Avenue Presbyterian church, Fortieth and Nicholas streets, to hear William Kennedy's lecture on Ireland, its wrongs and how to see the 106 stereotypical views which illustrated it. Mr. Kennedy took his audience, as in a journey, from Omaha through New York City to Queenstown and then in a circle of the most interesting points of the island. During the evening Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Schurz, Miss Teasdale and H. B. Payne sang typical Irish songs.

In Immanuel Baptist church, Twenty-fourth and Binney streets, also assembled a good sized audience for "St. Patrick in Erin." The pastor, Rev. E. Kerr Eschler, is himself a Scotch-Irishman and talked entertainingly on "Paddy, Himself, His Hopes and His Future." Mrs. G. W. Shields gave a history of the day; D. R. Stambaugh sang "Love's Young Dream," and C. M. Eaton sang "Killarney."

THE REALTY MARKET. INSTRUMENTS placed on record Tuesday, March 17:

I. H. Phillips et al to John Doms, $1,500. Wm. Williams et al to McDonald et al, $1,000. J. Foster et al to John Schmecher et al, $1,000. J. Schmecher et al to C. Corbett et al, $1,000. J. Schmecher et al to C. Corbett et al, $1,000. J. Schmecher et al to C. Corbett et al, $1,000.

Operations are becoming a fact; every young man, as educated, who enters a medical college, considers himself capable of undertaking the most serious and complicated surgical work, and hundreds of lives are sacrificed annually to this mad frenzy of incompetent men, to rush into work which would only be undertaken as a last resort, and then only by the most experienced and careful surgeons.

It is a pleasure, in view of these facts, to read the following letter from a woman who has been saved from one of these dangerous operations. "I know I should have informed you long ago regarding my case of piles, and the good done by, and I believe I am cured. Last December I sent for your book. I have never been bothered since then, and before I had suffered for the last eleven years, and at the time I wrote I had given birth to a child, and they came down with the delivery of the child by the hand. I could not get them back and I suffered everything; and the doctor said nothing but an operation would ever relieve me, but I read of your remedy in our daily newspaper and I told my husband to get me a box and I would give it a trial before consenting to the knife, and thanks be to your wonderful medicine, I was saved from the operation table."

HONOR DAY OF ST. PATRICK

Omaha Irish Meet in Memory of the Dear Old Emerald Isle.

FATHER FITZPATRICK MAKES AN ADDRESS

Gives a History of the Race From the Day of Patrick to the Present and Prophecies Early Freedom for Ireland.

Ireland's sons and daughters throughout the world gathered in memory of their patron saint, Patrick, who brought Christianity and enlightenment first to the people of the Emerald Isle. T. J. Mahoney, as chairman, announced at the beginning of the program that he would have a little singing of Irish melodies before Rev. J. Fitzpatrick, the speaker of the evening, would deliver an address entitled, "God Save Ireland."

The "Fitz" quartet, the Misses Gentlemen and John Gentlemen, and Miss Genevieve Croft, sang and played those old Irish melodies until the eyes of the exiled children of Ireland were wet with tears and they wiped them away unashamed as they smiled at the sweeter memories that flooded back with a new song. In his address, Rev. J. Fitzpatrick, the speaker of the evening, would deliver an address entitled, "God Save Ireland."

Rev. Fitzpatrick in his address touched upon the fact that the Irish are a scattered race that reaches from the far north to the far south, from the orient to the occident. They were driven away from their own country by a continued persecution extending over centuries and despite that fact every Irish heart is loyal to the shamrock and the country it stands for.

The Irish are a race of honor, their thoughts are high and noble and no matter what flag they are fighting under, for they are a race of warriors, they show the same undying devotion, honesty of intention and sturdy patriotism that the deity has traced out through the generations a thousand years ago. He said in part: "It is 1,400 years since Patrick was seen by the people sailing over the sea and was met at the beach by this wild and savage race. With him he brought the cross, the symbol of Christianity, and the identity of the people became a thing of the past. They became an enlightened people and for three centuries the monks of Ireland were the pride of the world. King Alfred was a product of their teaching."

"Great honor and praise is due to Patrick for this work, which meant so much to Ireland. He put in the hearts of the people that honesty, sincerity, truth and devotion that has never been wanting far in any child of Ireland, now far in space and time that child may be found from the heather-covered hills of Erin.

Darkness and Light in Sight. "These three centuries were a time of peace, plenty and good will and then the barbarians swept down upon the land and turned everything into strife and bloodshed. The wars were long and everlasting. Ireland was not strong enough to defeat her enemies, but tenacious enough to live against this flood of blood, rapine, and tyranny for seven centuries, and then she bowed her head to the English who took her and betrayed her and gave her to the nobles to despoil.

"But, now there is a ray of sunshine breaking through the darkness of the clouds and freedom for Ireland is almost discernible. Sympathy for our wrongs, what we ask. When we have sympathy there is public opinion against the English and our victory is assured. Ireland alone cannot break from the yoke, but with the aid of an ally powerful and free, Ireland will be once more free in the north and the Catholic in the south a free people and a nation of great deeds."

A good section of the St. Patrick's day celebrators gathered in Lowe Avenue Presbyterian church, Fortieth and Nicholas streets, to hear William Kennedy's lecture on Ireland, its wrongs and how to see the 106 stereotypical views which illustrated it. Mr. Kennedy took his audience, as in a journey, from Omaha through New York City to Queenstown and then in a circle of the most interesting points of the island. During the evening Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Schurz, Miss Teasdale and H. B. Payne sang typical Irish songs.

In Immanuel Baptist church, Twenty-fourth and Binney streets, also assembled a good sized audience for "St. Patrick in Erin." The pastor, Rev. E. Kerr Eschler, is himself a Scotch-Irishman and talked entertainingly on "Paddy, Himself, His Hopes and His Future." Mrs. G. W. Shields gave a history of the day; D. R. Stambaugh sang "Love's Young Dream," and C. M. Eaton sang "Killarney."

THE REALTY MARKET. INSTRUMENTS placed on record Tuesday, March 17:

I. H. Phillips et al to John Doms, $1,500. Wm. Williams et al to McDonald et al, $1,000. J. Foster et al to John Schmecher et al, $1,000. J. Schmecher et al to C. Corbett et al, $1,000. J. Schmecher et al to C. Corbett et al, $1,000. J. Schmecher et al to C. Corbett et al, $1,000.

Operations are becoming a fact; every young man, as educated, who enters a medical college, considers himself capable of undertaking the most serious and complicated surgical work, and hundreds of lives are sacrificed annually to this mad frenzy of incompetent men, to rush into work which would only be undertaken as a last resort, and then only by the most experienced and careful surgeons.

It is a pleasure, in view of these facts, to read the following letter from a woman who has been saved from one of these dangerous operations. "I know I should have informed you long ago regarding my case of piles, and the good done by, and I believe I am cured. Last December I sent for your book. I have never been bothered since then, and before I had suffered for the last eleven years, and at the time I wrote I had given birth to a child, and they came down with the delivery of the child by the hand. I could not get them back and I suffered everything; and the doctor said nothing but an operation would ever relieve me, but I read of your remedy in our daily newspaper and I told my husband to get me a box and I would give it a trial before consenting to the knife, and thanks be to your wonderful medicine, I was saved from the operation table."

Grandma's Smile. "Wal," Granny said, "when I was reared, of Quaker Oats we never heer'd!" Then on her dear old face appeared The Smile that won't come off. Say Quaker distinctly.

THE BEST OF EVERYTHING

THE NORTH-WESTERN LINE. Lead--Deadwood--Hot Springs. Sioux City--St. Paul--Duluth. 5 Trains Daily Over The Only Double Track Railway To Chicago. CITY OFFICE, 1401-1403 Farnam St. Tel. 561 and 524.

We give written contracts to cure diseases and disorders of men, or refund money paid. Many cases taken $5.00 per month. VARICOCELE, HYDROCELE. CURED IN 5 DAYS, without cutting, pain or loss of blood. Dr. Seales & Seales, Omaha, Neb.

DR. McCREW SPECIALIST. Treats all forms of diseases and disorders of men only. 27 Years Experience. His remarkable success has never been equaled and every day brings reports of the good he is doing, or the relief he has given.

Hot Springs Treatment for Syphilis. And all Blood Poisons. No "BREAKING OUT" or the skin of face and neck. BLOOD DISEASE. CURED IN LESS THAN 5 DAYS. OVER 30,000 cured. Dr. Seales & Seales, Omaha, Neb.

For Woman's Eye. The emollient, sanative, anti-septic, cleansing, purifying and beautifying properties of Cuticura Soap render it of priceless value to women. CUTICURA SOAP. Dr. Seales & Seales, Omaha, Neb.

PENNYROYAL PILLS. Cures all forms of blood diseases. Dr. Seales & Seales, Omaha, Neb.