Wonderful Saving opportunities in our woman's furnishing department

We could sell goods cheaper than we do in our ladies' furnishing department, but not goods that come up to our standard, and lowering of qualities would be subversive of our long established reputation. In every case our woman's furnishing department supplies reliable merchandise at less than inferior grades are commonly sold for. In all cases our prices are unquestionably lowest quoted for merchandise of equal excellence. Our ladies' furnishing department is pre-eminently the place for true saving—the saving that is based on actual values. Below we quote a few specials in this department Friday.

Announcements of the Theaters.

"A feast of melody and mirth" is the way the critics describe the merry, musical "Chaperons." Frank L. Perley's operatic comedy, which is now in its second season and which last summer met with remarkable success during a two months' run at the New York theater. This unusual travesty on the polite customs of chaperons, with its catchy melodies, laughable satire, fine operatic choruses and elaborate embellishments of costumes and scenery will be seen at Boyd's theater tonight and Saturday for the first time in Omaha.

The company is nearly the same as that which appeared during the Broadway engagement.
