ACTIVITY AT FIELD CLUB

House Committee Pokes Finger Into Official Side of Building Committee.

BASE BALL AND TENNIS PLAYERS SCORE

At Meeting of the Directors Additional Funds Are Provided for Improved Ball Grounds and Tennis Courts.

The Omaha Field club has planned to have its opening party May 7 and to open its seltzer corner in April. But the caterer who furnished the cafe and bar service last season is not to have the privilege again and has moved out of all his equipment. The house committee have "stocked up" on everything from cups to steins. It doesn't want to undertake this until the building and grounds committee has finished making the contemplated changes in the arrangement of the house. The building and grounds committee hasn't had a tap done yet, nor even determined just what the alterations are to be. This has made the house committee uneasy and it has poked its administrative finger into the official ribs of the building and grounds committee with the hope of prodding it into action.

The directors met Wednesday night and assisted in complicating matters somewhat by rescinding the resolution adopted previously authorizing an expenditure of $2,000 for alterations in the house, and by adopting in its stead a resolution authorizing less expensive changes and making concessions to the base ball and tennis enthusiasts of the club.

As the matter now stands the house alterations probably will not cost more than $400 or $500. A principal desire of the house committee is understood to be the shifting of the beverage counter to a more convenient and less conspicuous location in the northeast part of the building, adjoining the locker room, and the building of a fancy entrance at the west side of the building with six large glass doors through which occupants of the large central lounge room may have the benefit of the excellent view to the west. The building and grounds committee has promised to have a meeting in a few days and decide whether these changes shall be made.

Will Move the Diamond.

The base ball committee was voted $250 with which to build a special amphitheater and was authorized also to purchase new uniforms for the club team. The diamond, which heretofore has been across the tennis courts from the club house, is to be moved across to the southern extremity of the grounds and turned the other way, the batter to face the north instead of the south.

The tennis committee also came in for favors, the board voting it $200. With this money the committee expects to have brick-bats hauled from the old brick yard nearby and utilized as a foundation for the courts. Plenty of dirt will be used on top of the bats and carefully rolled, of course, the only purpose of the bricks being to pro-

LIBRARY BOARD ECONOMIZING

Takes Petition to Keep John T. Edgar Branch Open Under Advancement.

With President Reed and Directors Haller, Rush, Rosewater, Kennedy and Hansen present, the Library board at its monthly meeting last night was waited upon by Michael Lee and Peter Wilg, who, as a committee from the Second Ward Improvement club, urged that the board's previous decision to do away with the John T. Edgar branch on Vinton street be reconsidered. The board took no action, however, as the committee had no suggestion to make as to methods of raising funds other than an appeal to the city council. Librarian Tobitt reported she is unable to find a suitable location for a delivery station in the vicinity of the branch and the project was dropped.

The board reconsidered its order to change the hours of the open house at the Byron Reed collection museum and they will remain as at present, 10 a. m. to noon and 2 to 5 p. m.

The matter of arranging for a more economical illumination of the library was referred to the executive committee. The book committee was asked to see if there be any way of getting the Board of Education to share the expense of maintaining school stations.

In Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

There is no opium in any form or other harmful substance in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and it may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. There is nothing so prompt and effective as it for the relief and cure of colds, croup and whooping cough. It is the mothers favorite and has well merited their confidence and esteem.

Alterations in School Buildings.

During the spring vacation of the public schools, which begins Friday, the superintendent of buildings will construct a partition in the biology room at the high school, making two recitation rooms out of the present large one. It has been found that the room is too large for the purpose for which it has been used and the new room is needed. At the same time the Vinton Street school building will be renovated and six rooms reconstructed. The Monmouth park building will be moved during the vacation to make room for the new brick building which is to be constructed this summer.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Republican City Committee Meets and Fill Vacancies on Ticket.

J. F. McCaffrey FOR TAX COMMISSIONER

Ole Mallen, in the Fifth, and Dan Banner, in the Sixth, Are the New Candidates for Councilmen.

The republican city committee met last night and filled the vacancies on the ticket. J. F. McCaffrey will take the place of P. S. Casey for tax commissioner. Ole Mallen will be the candidate on the ticket for councilman from the Fifth ward and Dan Banner, the candidate to represent the Sixth ward.

In view of the passage of the new school bill no candidates for the Board of Education will be placed on the ticket. Miller, Lott and Schroeder, present members of the board, retire at the expiration of their terms in May. From that date on six members will constitute the board until the spring election of 1910.

Dan Banner, who was placed on the ticket to represent the Sixth ward, has never been a candidate for office, although the republican party has heretofore nominated several times. Heretofore he has always refused.

Taking Depositions.

At the instigation of Jay Lavery a number of South Omaha people were summoned to appear before Justice Caldwell yesterday for the purpose of making depositions in the Lavery-Miller case now pending in the courts. Several witnesses were examined and the statements made duly noted. No effort was made by the attorney for Mr. Lavery to go into details and consequently the witnesses were detained but a short time. All that fact that Miller had made a confession that he had given the democratic nominee a hot race.

Cutting Stone for Library.

Contractor Weise said yesterday afternoon that stone for the Carnegie library building in this city was being cut in Omaha and there would be plenty of stone on hand to push the work as soon as the foundations were laid. The stone for the library comes from the quarries at Bedford, Ind. On account of there being no facilities at South Omaha for stone cutting the work is being done in Omaha. Weise says that the foundations will be laid as soon as the labor troubles in Omaha are settled.

Usual School Vacation.

The public schools closed yesterday for the spring vacation. Teachers and pupils will have a rest until Monday, April 6. During the recess the school houses will be given a thorough airing and the boilers will be cleaned and some repairs made. The teachers were paid yesterday afternoon by City Treasurer Howe, who had money on hand to cash all warrants presented. There has been such a rapid increase in the attendance that the board in charge after the close of the coming term will be compelled to provide more rooms for the accommodation of those who will attend school during the fall and winter.

Underground System Complete.

The laying of cables in conduits across M street by the electric light company has been completed and the big transformers have been lowered to concrete foundations in the basement. Conduits were laid across M street in order to give better service and not to interfere with the view to the library building to be constructed. The improvements cost about $4,000.

Over 1,000 telephones are now in use in South Omaha.

Dr. W. L. Curtis underwent an operation for appendicitis yesterday.

David Boyer, Twenty-seventh and M streets, is reported to be quite sick.

Harry Gardner of Avoca, Ia., is here, visiting his friends, James Austin.

A daughter has been born to Mr. and Mrs. John Vague, Twentieth and O streets. A case of diphtheria is reported at the home of John Chervil, 21 South Twenty-first street.

Magic City Lodge No. 80, Fraternal Union of America, will give a social at Workmen hall tonight.

Benjamin Alexander, Twenty-sixth and Q streets, is quite sick and last night was taken to an Omaha hospital.

Rev. F. F. Miller will commence a series of evangelistic services at the First Methodist church Sunday morning.

The clear butchers at Swift's all went to work yesterday and left the settlement of their grievances to a committee.

Richard Eates of Pacific Junction, Ia., was a visitor at the yards yesterday. He brought over two cars of cattle, which sold for a good price.

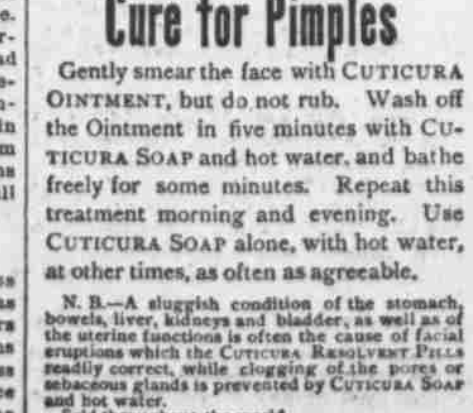

BOSTON'S BARBER REGULATIONS.

Board of Health Orders Sterilization of All that Barbers Use on Customers.

A special dispatch from Boston, May 5, 1900, to the New York Sun gives as new regulations of the Boston Board of Health as to barber shops: "Mugs, shaving brushes and razors shall be sterilized after each separate use thereof. A separate, clean towel shall be used for each person. Material to stop the flow of blood shall be used only in powdered form, and applied on a towel. Powder puffs are prohibited." Wherever Newbro's Hericide is used for face or scalp after shaving or hair cutting there is no danger, as it is antiseptic and kills the dandruff germ. Sold by all druggists. Send 10 cents in stamps for sample to The Hericide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Lobeck-McDonald Contest.

The Lobeck-McDonald commissioner contest may be concluded by noon today. Fifteen of the twenty-five precincts have been counted last night and Lobeck had lost two from the county court count. The decisive precincts in which ballots were thrown out by the county judge had not been reached.

Cure for Pimples

Gently smear the face with CUTICURA OINTMENT, but do not rub. Wash off the ointment in five minutes with CUTICURA SOAP and hot water, and bathe freely for some minutes. Repeat this treatment morning and evening. Use CUTICURA SOAP alone, with hot water, at other times, as often as agreeable.

AT THE PLAYHOUSES

At the Boyd.

Frank L. Perley's comedians in "The Chaparones." Book and lyrics by Frederic Ranken. Music by Isidore Whitmark.

Algermon O'Shaunessy, studying rapid French in Paris.

Adam Hogg, a pork packer of Cincinnati and president of the International Society for the Investigation and Suppression of Vice.

George K. Henry Augustus, his valet—Thomas H. Burton Signor Ricardo Bassini, proprietor of a stranded opera company.

Schmittel, a bill poster.

Tom Schuyler, American student of social music at Paris conservatory.

Albert Farrington Amanthe Dedincourt, managing director of the English and Continental Order of Trained Chaparones.

May Boley Phrosia, an admirer of Old South.

Genevieve Day Horreux, prima donna contralto in Bassini's company.

Jessica Duncan Jacques, prima donna soprano in Bassini's company.

Mac Stebbins And chorus of fifty.

If all chaparones were like Frank L. Perley's chaparones, opening at Boyd's last night, the rest of a crowd would be in imminent danger of being forgotten. For verily the Perley bunch is a likely one, thoroughbred and with a champagne flavor.

From the opening chorus, "Vive la Boheme," to the rhapsody, a finely ensemble unique effect, something worth seeing or hearing is happening just about every second of the time. The wordplay in the dialogue is considerably brighter than the average and the music is all tuneful, pretty and infectious.

Mr. Walter Jones, given the top of the bill, is so good that an audience forgets he can't sing a lick in his present condition because of a temporary huskiness. Miss May Boley as the trainer of chaparones is a dainty piece of handiwork with a very acceptable voice, a very clever way of being saucy and a very dexterous way of using edibles that are worth going some blocks to see. Miss Eva Tanguay, as "Phrosia, the girl detective," is a clownish wonder who made good in a part so impossibly absurd that a less skillful and less energetic worker must have fallen very, very flat with it. Her "My Sambo" and accompanying dance was one of the decided hits of the performance. The dancing of the main line at La Costa. The cause of the stop at La Costa, which is only a small place, is not known. The Sunset Limited was traveling at great speed when it crashed into the Eagle Pass train.

The engine of the limited crashed through a caboose, which was hitched to the rear of the Eagle Pass train and the rear sleeper. This car, in turn, telescoped the

The Pullman in the rear telescoped the private car, crushing them to death. Their bodies were not recovered until they had been burned to a crisp in the fire which destroyed the entire train, including the engine.

The fire originated from the oil in the tender. The trains were eastbound. The first, the Eagle Pass train, was standing at the main line at La Costa. The cause of the stop at La Costa, which is only a small place, is not known. The Sunset Limited was traveling at great speed when it crashed into the Eagle Pass train.

The engine of the limited crashed through a caboose, which was hitched to the rear of the Eagle Pass train and the rear sleeper. This car, in turn, telescoped the Trevino private coach, killing the Mexicans.

The engine of the limited was destroyed. Nearly all of the injured were on the limited. The injured were brought to San Antonio.

Burlington Flyer Is Wrecked.

DES MOINES, March 27.—Southbound passenger train No. 28 on the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, from St. Paul to Quincy, was derailed four miles north of Thompson, Ill., early this morning and twenty were injured.

The two rear coaches, a Pullman sleeper and a chair car turned over and immediately caught fire. Trainmen, chopped a hole through the bottom of the chair car through which the passengers were removed. Those in the sleeper had narrow escapes from burning, many being forced to leave in their night clothes. Possibly two fatalities may result.

Definite word as to the funeral arrangements for the late William E. Annin has not been received in Omaha. C. E. Mr. Llewellyn will go to Denver Saturday.
