Exonerates Des Moines Bank.

The action of a jury in the district court in Harlan county yesterday in rendering a verdict for $2,000 against the American Express company in favor of the Bank of Irwin effects exoneration of the employees and clerks of the Des Moines National bank of this city. Some time last summer a package of $2,000 was sent from the Des Moines bank to the bank at Irwin and when it arrived there was no money found. The bank at Irwin held the express company responsible, but the express company claimed the package was delivered exactly as it had been received. The bank had reported that there was no sign of the seals being broken. But the jury decided the express company was responsible. This releases the employees of the Des Moines National bank, who had rested under suspicion.

Refuses to Allow Constitution Seamen to Sit in Photograph.

BRISTOL, R. I., March 29.—Nearly one-half of the crew which is to man Reliance arrived from New York today. They are mostly Scandinavians, rugged, active-looking men who have had years of experience on the coast. Temporary quarters for them were found in lodging houses, where they are resting. The crew of the steam tender Sunbeam, which with Captain Barr and the remainder of the crew is expected here on Friday. The men expressed anxiety to see the new boat which they are to man and were much disappointed when told that the ship was closed on Sunday. A bit of rivalry cropped out today when a photograph of the crew was taken. The crew of the Sunbeam were to be included in the picture. This was not to the liking of the seamen of Reliance, who insisted that their picture should not include any members of a rival crew. The men are in charge of Second Lieut. George A. Bunker, who will begin work on furnishing the plates of the underbody.

BOATERS TAKE TITUS BACK

Find Technical Irregularity in Oarsman's Expulsion and Accordingly Reversed Order.

NEW YORK, March 29.—The Union Boat club today reinstated C. R. Titus, the oarsman. The club passed a resolution which recited that there had been irregularity in his expulsion and adding:

That the said expulsion and reinstatement of the club had been made in violation of the technical irregularity.

President Sinnott of the club said to-night he was perfectly just in dealing with Titus. He said that the technical irregularity was a sufficient reason for exemption from club membership.

Titus brought suit in the courts to compel the club to reinstate him and the matter was to be heard on Tuesday. The technical irregularity was that Titus had only twenty-eight days' experience in a trial membership before being reinstated. The club wanted to try him because he had been through the newspaper about its management instead of filing formal complaint with the officials.

MOVE ON THE SUNDAY THEATER

Members of the Younger Brothers Company Arrested at Close of Performance.

The crusade against the Sunday theater culminated last night in something more than talk when the eleven members of the Younger Brothers Bank Robber company were arrested on the charge of breach of the Sabbath by performing other than necessary labor on that day. The manager of the company, John B. Dell, put up bonds in the sum of $50 each and the theatrical people were released from custody. The hearing was set for Tuesday.

Some time ago the Woman's Christian

Temperance union and a number of the ministers of the city started a crusade against Sunday performances at the theater, but up to last night nothing more than talk resulted.

At 10 o'clock last evening Mrs. Clara E. Brown and Bertha M. Johnston went before Justice Ouren and swore to the complaint and a warrant was put into the hands of Constable Albert, who served it immediately after the close of the performance. While the complainants and their friends object to the Sunday theater in general, they have a particular objection to this company, or rather the play which it presents, as being demoralizing morally.

The company had intended to leave this morning for Beatrice, Neb., where it was billed for an appearance, but during the evening the manager received telegram that the performance had been interdicted on the ground that it was of a character to demoralize those who attended.
