to flock to the office of Auditor Wes sion of the senate. Senator Fulton is a ton. Presently Judge Ryan, hearing of the former Nebraskan. His home was at Paw- excitement, appeared in the statehouse and did what he could to allay fears, by reassuring the members that his purpose was nother, who still lives at Pawnee City. I simply to bring before the supreme court and not to stop their pay. However, when "Yes, I think there will undoubtedly be it became positively known that a petition agn extra session of congress, in order to had been filed in the district ecurt praying which President Roosevelt has set his state auditor from allowing aby further Judge Ryan filed no bond, however, and does not propose to secure or attempt to secure any injunction. He has taken this igration is pouring into the state at a rapid step, he said, simply as a necessary preliminary to getting the matter properly before the supreme court. He intends to proceed with it and have the validity of this amendment determined once for all.

Starts the Gossips.

C. O. Whedon appears at attorney for Ryan in this action. The association of these two gentlemen, in view of their professional connection with phases of the Bartley case, has stimulated the suspicion that a change of purpose was decide on after the original filing of this petition, and tends to strengthen another report.

Just after Judge Ryan left the state house story which has not been positively verified, got out and lends additional color to this affair. It goes on to say that Judge Ryan, who was an attorney for some of the Bartley bondamen, became very much annoyed at the manifest hostility toward the movement to secure the passage of a bill to release these bondamen from further obligation to the state and sought this means of retaliation. Then it is reinted that when the action of the judge reached the cars of certain prominent legislators they avowed their determination of securing an adjournment of the session sine die.

Attorney General Prout throws cold water on this latter report by saying, after a talk with Judge Ryan, that it was not the purpose of the latter to enjoin the sate auditor from paying the salaries of legislators, but that it was necessary to file this sort of a petition, worded in this manner, in order to lay the proper foundation for a sult in the supreme court for the purpose of testing this law.

History of Amendment.

In the fall of 1886 a constitutional amendment was submitted to the people of Nebrasks proposing that the sessions of the LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 30 .- Rev. E. legislature be increased from forty to sixty E. Plannette, pastor of the Grandview days and the members' salaries from $3 to Presbyterian church, was arrested this $5 a day. On the face of the returns the amendment was carried, but three countles, Sloux, Loup and Blaine failed to send in He is believed to be insane. He was any returns and the validity of the vote was questioned. Accordingly after the new legislature of 1887 had convened Governor Thayer, who then went into office, called upon all the county clerks to send in their polling lists and ballots and a committee consisting of Senators Paul Schminke and J. K. Vandermark, Representatives W. J Boston, for London. At Hamburg-Ariived-Patricia, from New York via Flymouth and Cherbourg At Rotterdam-Arrived-Staatendam, from Pemberton, F. E. White and W. H. Then there was renewed discussion without fruit. Mr. Burbank admitted the validity of Connell's contention; also that he was not pre pared for the coupe. It was desired most urgently to adjourn until a new slate could be arranged, but it required another long talk before he was satisfied that selection of the election boards tomorrow would comply with the ten-day limit of the law.
