Practically all the international list was lower and there was further evidence of forced liquidation.

The continued absence of public interest, the intensity of the Southern Pacific controversy and various adverse rumors ranging from threatened labor troubles to fears of a money stringency were the chief causes for the unsettled state of the list. While definite information is lacking, there is little doubt that some of the banks have called loans as a preliminary to the adjustment of April settlements.

LAND IS A VAST SHEET OF WATER

Break is Now Expected to Prove Onof the Most Disastrous Since the Great Flood of 1884.

There has been little change in the lower lississippi river situation since Sunday. t Vicksburg the stage this morning was 15, a fail of 0.3 since Saturday morning, and at New Orleans 20.3, a rise of 0.2

NEW ORLEANS, March 29.-Discouraging news comes today from the Hymlia break. During the early morning more of the cribbing was swept away by the terrific current that is running through the broken levee and the ends are caving with greater rapidity than ever-

A large force is at the scene and lumbe is arriving in abundance, but the crevasse absolutely beyond control. Senator Brady, in charge at one end, says the break has now reached a width of 700 feet and that while work will continue the outlook for closing is less promising than it has

A conference of all the agencies at work has been called to determine whether it is advisable to go on with the present efforts. The land for miles around is a vast sheet of water and the tracks are completely covered, while the Southern Pacific is constantly in danger from backwater. If, the crevasse is abandoned the break will doubtless prove one of the worst since Pennell Makes Threats While in a New York Hotel.

TWO WITNESSES TESTIFY TO FACT two weeks from new. A leading banker is Judge Murphy Announces the Burdlek Inquest is Closed and that Pen-nell Inquiry Will Be Taken Up Later.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 30 .- The Burdick nurder inquest was reopened today before Police Judge Murphy for the purpose of hearing the testimony of Alexander Quinn, the bartender at the Hotel Roland in New York City, who, it is alleged, heard Pennell threaten to kill Burdick, and of G. H. King, the cashier of the hotel.

Mrs. Burdick stopped at the Roland during her last visit to New York, and Pennell visited her there. Bath men declined to be interviewed before the hearing today began. The official inquiry into the deaths of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pennell was scheduled to begin at the close of the Burdick inquest

When Judge Murphy took his seat he said:

We will close the Burdick case this morning, and owing to the absence of some of the witnesses from the city, the Pennell inquest will be held at a time to be announced later. The witnesses who have been subpoensed in the Pennell inquest are excused until further notice. My statement in regard to the Burdick inquest will be handed out here tomorrow morning. Pennell Makes Threats.

Alexander G. Quinn, the burtender from New York, was the first witness. He said he made the acquaintance of Arthur R. Pennell early in December last, at the Hotel Roland.

Asked to relate the conversation he had with Pennell at that time, Quinn said: "Mr. Pennell first asked for a time table which was given to him. Afterward he entered into conversation with the cashier and myself. Mr. Pennell had several drinks. He gave me bis card. During the conversation, he said: "You do not know what is passing through my mind, boys. There is one man I could kill now, even if I hung velop Austro-Hungarian trade with the far

Other Side. LONDON, March 80 .- Referee Pillabury has decided in the inter-cable chess match in favor of England.

The annual international cable match between the university students of Great Britain and the United States came to an end Saturday night, but no definite announcement of the result was made. Two unfinished games on boards four and six were submitted to the adjudication of Referee H. N. Pillabury by the English players, who had to return to their homes. Mr. Pillabury eventually decided after playing the game on board four that the A barn belonging to C. S. Olson, corner of American had won. This made the score Bridgeman of Harvard and Brown of with the game on board six between by some children who were playing in the Cambridge, but at midnight he decided that yard and the barn was all on fire when he could not adjudicate this game, which > CANNOT AGREE ON BUDGET French Chamber and Senate Dispute Especially Concerning Soldiers' Wine.

PARIS, March 31 .- The Chamber of Deputies and the Senate are still playing battledore and shuttlecock with the budget. The former, after three sittings, passed the budget bill at 10:30 last evening with amendments restoring a number of credits which were rejected by the Senate. The most important of these credits is an ap-propriation of $340,000 to supply rations of wine to the soldiers. The bill then went back to the senate, which sat until 3,75 this morning discussing the chamber's mendments, several of which were adopted, out the senate cut down the soldiers' wine appropriation to $40,000 and made other changes in the bill before adopting it by 253 to 14.
